ed with Ermin, and a round Cap of the same, turn'd up with Ermin, each attended by their Gentlemen; Then the Crown, Scepter, and Globe, carried by three Noblemen; the two Swords of Charlemagne and the Emperor Maurice; And after them Count Pappenheim, Vice-Marshal of the Empire, carried the Sword of State naked before the Emperor, who followed with the Imperial Crown on his Head, and a Purple Robe Imperial Robe, imbroidered all over with Pearls and Jewels, wrought into Embroidery, and many curious Cyphers of Leopoldus, with his Order about his Neck; He was supported on each side by the two Princes of Deux-Ponts, his High Steward and Chamberlain, having silk Batons in their Hands; Then followed the Empress, with Charlemagne's Crown on her Head, led by her High Steward Count Wolfestein, and her Train born up by the Three unmarried Princesses Palatine her Sisters, the eldest whereof wore on her Breast the Prince of Parma's Picture, to whom she is Contracted; The Canopy over the Emperor and Empress was carried by Eight Principal Citizens in black laced Cloaks, with Gold Chains and Medals; After them followed the Three Ecclesiastical Electors, with their Hats on; and then the Empress's Ladies of Honour, to the number of Forty, most richly dress'd and adorned with Jewels: After all came the Empress's Chair and Couch of State, being of red Velvet, covered both within and without with high Embroidery and Massy wrought Silver Work, the Grooms, Coachman, Postilion, &c. being clad in Tissue or red Velvet laced, the Harness likewise of Velvet all Embroidered. When they came to the Town-house, the Emperor and the Empress sat alone at a Table at the upper end of the Hall, raised a Step and a Half, opposite to theirs was one for the Electors raised one Step, the Ecclesiasticks sit together on one side, and the Secular Electors on the other; at a Table on the Right Hand sat the five Princes of the Empire, and on the Left the Empress's three Sisters; The Dishes were carried to the Emperor's Table by Princes of the Empire, and they were Served in the other Offices by the Electors Deputies. The Assembly broke up about five in the Evening, and the Solemnity concluded with Bonfires made in Iron Pans, which were hung up at the Corner of every Street. The King of Hungary did not appear at this Ceremony, but was there Incognito. This day all Strangers are to leave the Town, to meet Affairs being the Election or Coming of the Roman. The Elector Prince of Saxony is come hither, to represent the Elector his Father on this Occasion. We have no further Particulars of the late Action between the Imperialists and Turks in Bosnia; But there is News of a Victory over the Turks in Transylvania.

Strasburgh, Jan. 29. We hear from Berlin, that the Electoral Prince intends Journey to Prague to be on the Tenth of March.

Cologne, Jan. 31. The Post arrived through this place on Thursday Express from Vienna, with the News, that the Turks of Hungary were on the 4th instant [illegible] Troops of the Romans, and that he was [illegible] The Letters from Transylvania [illegible] Prince Lewis of Baden, and by the Imperial Forces, under the Command of the Duke of Holstein, in the late Battle [illegible] with the Turks, [illegible] Reconnoitring Parties [illegible].

Brussels, Feb. 1. Our Intermitten[illegible] has received Advice, by an Express from Vienna, [illegible] the Five Electors there present, and [illegible] Bishop of Bamberg, had, on the [illegible] Day, the Honour to Dine with the King of Hungary, [illegible] Table. The Ceremony of the Coronation of the Queen of Hungary [illegible] the Month of May next. On [illegible] came to Town from Antwerp [illegible] Lord Howard to desire Leave to [illegible] Day by himself and Family to take [illegible]

Plymouth, Jan. 24. Since our last Letters from hence This Day [illegible] Ships the Dover Capt. [illegible] Commander, [illegible] in Rotterdam, Wednesday [illegible] of [illegible] Ships [illegible]

London, Feb. 2. On the 29th past arrived here the Hind [illegible] Ship from Virginia, [illegible] Tobacco, [illegible] Capt. [illegible] Commander, [illegible] Ship from Virginia