

of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three in the words following; that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew, Lincoln, situate within the limits of the parish or parochial chapelry of Saint Peter at Gowts, in the city and in the county of the city of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln.

“Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Andrew, Lincoln aforesaid.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Christopher Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Saint Peter at Gowts, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Andrew, Lincoln, situate within the limits of such parish or parochial chapelry as aforesaid and that the same should be named ‘The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Lincoln.’

“And with the like consent of the said Christopher Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Andrew Lincoln, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

“We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Lincoln, being:—

“All that part of the parish or parochial chapelry of Saint Peter at Gowts in the city and in the county of the city of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln which is bounded on the west for the most part by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary dividing the said parish or parochial chapelry of Saint Peter at Gowts from the parish or parochial chapelry of Saint Botolph in the city county and diocese aforesaid crosses the middle of Sincil Dike, such point being a little to the south of the junction of the said Sincil Dike with Great Gowts Drain and extending thence, that is from the said parish boundary, northward along the middle of the said Sincil Dike for a distance of twenty-six chains or thereabouts to the boundary a little to the north of the bridge which carries Portland-street over the said Dike, which boundary divides the said parish or parochial chapelry of Saint Peter at Gowts from the parish or parochial chapelry of Saint Mark in the city county and diocese aforesaid.

“All which said hereinbefore described part of the parish or parochial chapelry of Saint Peter at Gowts aforesaid is bounded upon the remaining part of the west by the parish or parochial chapelry of Saint Mark aforesaid and upon all other sides that is to say, upon the north upon the east and upon the south, as follows:—upon the north partly by the last-named parish or parochial chapelry of Saint Mark and partly by the parish or parochial chapelry of Saint Mary-le-Wigford in the city county and diocese aforesaid, upon the east by the extra-parochial territory called or known as South Park otherwise South Common, otherwise Cow Paddle, and upon the south by the parish or parochial chapelry of Saint Botolph aforesaid.”

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “An Act further to amend the laws concerning “the burial of the dead in England,” it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the
