At the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of December, 1883.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the under-mentioned parish without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with the following modifications, viz.:

HARLINGTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Harlington, in the county of Middlesex; and also in the old churchyard, except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the old churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the old churchyard, as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those already interred therein as can be buried at or below that depth.

(c.) In such reserved grave spaces in the old churchyard as have never before been buried in, and, when opened, are free from water, burials may be allowed of so many members of the families to whom they have been allotted as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-sixth day of January next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation, one month before the said twenty-sixth day of January.

C. L. Peel.

Privy Council Office, December 21, 1883.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Petition has been addressed to Her Majesty by certain Inhabitant Householdors of the town and borough of Okehampton, in the county of Devon, praying, that a CHARTER may be granted whereby the provisions of the Municipal Corporation Acts, may be extended to that town and borough; and notice is hereby further given, that the said Petition will be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the fourth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

THE ENGLAND AND WALES MARKETS AND FAIRS TEMPORARY ORDER OF 1883, AMENDMENT.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 21st day of December, 1883.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT:

Lord President.

Mr. Dodson.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. The England and Wales Markets and Fairs Temporary Order of 1883 (in this Order referred to as the Markets Order) is hereby amended as follows:

Extension of Markets Order to certain Districts.

(i.) The following Districts (namely),—

County of Gloucester,
Borough of Bristol,
Borough of Cheltenham,
Borough of Gloucester,
Borough of Tewkesbury,
County of Glamorgan,
Borough of Aberavon,
Borough of Cardiff,
Borough of Neath,
