"And with the like consent of the said Harvey Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle (testified as aforesaid), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint James situate at Tebay as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

C. L. Peel.

Privy Council Office, December 31, 1883.

THE following Statutes, made by the Governing Body of the College of St. John the Evangelist, in the University of Cambridge, on the 4th December, 1883, have been submitted for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, and notice of their having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877.

A STATUTE to amend a Statute framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 (40 and 41 Vict. c. 48) in relation to the College of St. John the Evangelist in the University of Cambridge duly made at a general meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose, held on the 4th day of December 1883 and passed at such meeting by the votes of the whole number of persons present and voting and submitted for the approval of Her Majesty the Queen in Council.

WHEREAS by Statute 30 framed by the Commissioners under The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1877 (40 and 41 Vict. c. 48) in relation to the College of St. John the Evangelist in the University of Cambridge they enacted as follows:

"There shall be sixty Scholarships on the Foundation of the College, of the annual value of not less than fifty pounds each.
The Council may admit any additional Scholars in virtue of any new benefactions, but such additional Scholars shall be "admitted only subject to the same rules and regulations as the Foundation Scholars of the College.

"The election to the Foundation Scholarships shall be made every year, on some day in June to be fixed by the Council, or on such other day as the Council shall appoint, provided that in the latter case they shall have given notice thirty days beforehand of the day so appointed.

"The Foundation Scholars shall be chosen from the Students of the College, or from such other persons, and of such standing respectively, as the Council shall think fit.

"They shall be chosen with special reference to their learning, ability, and moral character. Their intellectual qualifications shall be ascertained in such manner as the Council shall from time to time determine; and the Council may at any time, if they think fit, give a preference in adjudging one or more of such Scholarships to excellence in one or more of the learned or Oriental languages, or in special departments of Mathematics or of Physical Science, or in any other branch of the University studies.

"All vacancies in Scholarships shall be filled up not later than the second annual election of Scholars after they occur; and the income of any vacant Scholarship accruing between the first and second annual elections of Scholars after such Scholarship becomes vacant shall be expended in Exhibitions payable to such Students and during such periods as the Council shall determine.

"These Scholarships shall be tenable till the Scholar in each case shall become of standing to be an Inceptor in Arts, or till he shall become a Fellow of the College, or of any other College, and no longer.

"The election of the Foundation Scholars shall be vested in the Council, and shall be conducted in the same manner and governed by the same rules as the election of Fellows.

"On the day after their election the Scholars shall be admitted, and shall make a declaration as follows:

"Ego, NN., huic Collegio Divi Johannis promitto ac spondeo me omnia hujus Collegii statuta, præscriptiones, ritus, consuetudines laudabiles servaturum; præterea me huic Collegio fidelem futurum; nec ullum ei damnum ante incommodum allaturum; Magistro insuper et Præsidi reliquisque qui mihi præficiuntur, in omnibus legitimis honestisque, morem gesturum et dignam debitamque legibus et statutis omnibus reverentiam exhibiturum. Hæc omnia in me recipio meque sedulo facturum promitto ac spondeo."

And whereas it appears to us The Master and Fellows of the said College (being the Governing Body thereof) that these enactments restrict the discretionary powers of the Council of the said College and thereby unnecessarily and injuriously limit the assistance which may be given to Scholars and that the object of these enactments namely the advancement of education religion learning and research and also the diminution to deserving Students of the expense of a University education may be better served and the educational objects of the College advanced by conferring on the Council of the said College greater powers for regulating the tenure and emoluments
