

“ annual payment, not being less than fifty pounds nor more than eighty pounds, as the Council shall determine.
 “ To each of the nine Sizar such annual payment (if any) as the Council shall from time to time determine.
 “ And subject to these payments, and to the payment in each year to the University of the sum authorized and directed by the Statutes of the University to be charged upon the College, and to such other payments as in the judgment of the Council may be required for the purposes of the College, and the management or improvement of its estates and property, there shall be paid :—
 “ To every Fellow of the College such sum as the Council shall fix for the dividend of the year, not exceeding two hundred and fifty pounds.
 “ To the Master a sum equal to three and three-fifths times the amount of such dividend.
 “ To each Member of the Council a sum equal to one-fifth of such dividend, in addition to his dividend.
 “ Provided, that if any person shall have been Master, Member of the Council, Fellow, Foundation Scholar, Minor Scholar, Sizar, or Officer of the College, for a part only of the year, he shall be entitled only to one-fourth part of his annual stipend, dividend, or allowance for each quarter of the year, or part of a quarter greater than a half, during which he may have been Master, Member of the Council, Fellow, Foundation Scholar, Minor Scholar, Sizar, or Officer.
 “ All Fellows of the College shall be entitled, in addition to such dividend as is above provided, to rooms and commons, if in residence, or to such pecuniary allowances in lieu thereof as the Council shall from time to time determine.”

And whereas it appears to us The Master and Fellows of the said College (being the Governing Body thereof) that so much of the said Statute as relates to the Foundation Scholars the purpose whereof is to secure to the Scholars the due payment of their emoluments will be more fully secured by the amended Statute hereinafter set out while the general educational objects of the College will be advanced by the greater freedom thereby conferred. Such amended Statute being taken in connection with the amended Statute 30 We The Master and Fellows of the said College do hereby in exercise of the powers given us by the 54th section of the said Act alter and amend the said Statute 43 hereinbefore set out by substituting therefor the Statute following that is to say

“ The income of the College, after payment of the ordinary expenses, including all commons allowed by these Statutes, and of such stipends and salaries to the Lecturers and other officers and the Servants of the College as shall have been fixed by the Council, shall be paid, applied, and distributed as follows, that is to say :
 “ To the Master a fixed annual stipend of seven hundred and ninety pounds (£790) as provided by the Statute for that purpose.
 “ To each of the Scholars such annual payment, not being less than forty pounds (£40), as the Council shall subject to the provisions of Statute 30 determine, the whole sum so distributed in Scholarships “ being not less than two thousand seven hundred pounds (£2700) in each year.

“ To each of the Minor Scholars such annual payment not being less than fifty pounds (£50) nor more than eighty pounds (£80), as the Council shall determine.

“ To each of the nine Sizar such annual payment (if any) as the Council shall from time to time determine.

“ And subject to these payments, and to the payment in each year to the University of the sum authorised and directed by the Statutes of the University to be charged upon the College, and to such other payments as in the judgment of the Council may be required for the purposes of the College, and the management or improvement of its estates and property, there shall be paid :—

“ To every Fellow of the College such sum as the Council shall fix for the dividend of the year, not exceeding two hundred and fifty pounds (£250).

“ To the Master a sum equal to three and three-fifths times the amount of such dividend.

“ To each Member of the Council a sum equal to one-fifth of such dividend, in addition to his dividend.

“ Provided, that if any person shall have been Master, Member of the Council, Fellow, Foundation Scholar, Minor Scholar, Sizar, or Officer of the College, for a part only of the year, he shall be entitled only to one-fourth part of his annual stipend, dividend, or allowance for each quarter of the year, or part of a quarter greater than a half, during which he may have been Master, Member of the Council, Fellow, Foundation Scholar, Minor Scholar, Sizar, or Officer.

“ All Fellows of the College shall be entitled, in addition to such dividend as is above provided, to rooms and commons, if in residence, or to such pecuniary allowances in lieu thereof as the Council shall from time to time determine.”
