“ shall consist, may be separated therefrom with advantage to the interests of religion, the said Archbishop shall enquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such enquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully dissolved, so far as respects such benefice or benefices, he shall six weeks at least before certifying such inquiry to Her Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement, in writing, of the facts, and in all other cases a copy, in writing, of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church or in some public and conspicuous place in each of the benefices forming part of the united benefice, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they may within such six weeks show cause, in writing, under his, her, or their hands to the said Archbishop against any such disunion: and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent, when the patron's consent is necessary, to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to issue an Order for separating such last-mentioned benefice or benefices from such united benefice, and for declaring the rights of patronage of the several patrons, if there be more than one patron, and such Order shall be registered in the registry of the diocese to which such united benefice shall belong, which Order the Registrar of such diocese, immediately on the receipt thereof, is hereby required to register accordingly, and thereupon immediately if such united benefice shall be then vacant, otherwise on the first avoidance thereof, such union shall be ipso facto dissolved, so far only as regards such benefice or benefices so proposed to be separated from such united benefice, but in all other respects shall remain in full force and effect, and thenceforward such last-mentioned benefice or benefices shall be and be deemed and taken to be a separate and distinct benefice or benefices to all intents and purposes whatever as if no such union had taken place, and the patron or patrons thereof shall and may according to the terms of such Order present or nominate thereto respectively, and so from time to time upon each and every avoidance of the same.”

And whereas it is enacted (amongst other things), “ That whenever two or more benefices which have at any time been united into one benefice shall be disunited, and become separate benefices under the provisions of this Act, whether the Order for Disunion shall extend to the whole number of benefices of which such united benefice consisted, or to one or more of such benefices only, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council, on the recommendation of the Archbishop of the Province, with the consent of the patron or patrons of such benefices respectively (such consent to be signified in writing under the hands of such patron or patrons), to assign and attach such portion of the glebe lands, tithes, moduses, rent-charges, or other endowments or emoluments belonging to or arising or accruing within the limits of such united benefice to each of such benefices respectively, as to Her Majesty in Council shall seem fit, notwithstanding such proportion of glebe land, tithes, rent-charges, moduses, or other endowments or emoluments, or any part thereof, may not arise or accrue within the limits of the benefice to which the same shall be so assigned and attached as aforesaid, or may not have belonged thereto, and also to divide and apportion between such benefices all such charges and outgoings as before the disunion thereof were imposed upon the whole united benefice, and in the case of mortgagees with the consent of the mortgagees in writing under their hands and seals.”

“ That on such enquiry it appeared to us that such union might be usefully dissolved and that the said Lord Bishop of Lichfield being the patron or person entitled to present to the said united benefice if the same were now vacant has signified his consent in writing to such proposed disunion.

“ That six weeks and upwards before certifying such enquiry and consent to Your Majesty in Council we caused a copy in writing of the aforesaid representation of the said Lord Bishop to be affixed on the principal outer door of the parish church of Weeford and on the principal outer door of the parish schoolroom of Hints (the parish church having been pulled down in order to its being rebuilt) with notice to any person or persons interested that he she or they might within such six weeks show cause in writing under his her or their hand or hands to us the said Archbishop against such disunion and no such cause has been shown.

“ The representation of the said Lord Bishop of Lichfield the enquiry into the circumstances of the case, the reply thereto the consent in writing of the patron and the copies of the representation and notice before mentioned are hereunto annexed.

Bounty Office,

Westminster, January 1, 1884.

NOTICE is hereby given, pursuant to Rule 5 of the Second Charter of 12 Anne, that on the 19th day of March next, the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty will make their annual distribution of the funds available for grants amongst duly qualified benefices, in accordance with the Rules and Regulations prescribed by the said Charter and by Royal Sign Manuals, &c., now in force.

The applications during the past three years have been far more numerous than the Governors could satisfy.

The following observations apply to the distribution:—

1. No grant can be made to any benefice—

(a.) whose net income from all sources exceeds £200 per annum.

(b.) which has not a duly consecrated church.

2. The grants are usually of the capital sum of £200.

3. No grant is given except to meet a benefaction of the value of £200 or more in money, land, houses, rent-charge, or stipend. A rent-charge, &c., of £15 per annum is considered equal to £200.

4. The Governors have power to make as many as three grants in one year to the same benefice to meet three separate benefactions.

Further information and forms of application may be obtained from the Secretary. The last day for receiving applications is the 1st day of March next.
