TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1884.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
February 4, 1884.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the State Apartments of Windsor Castle will be closed after Friday next, the 8th instant, until further orders.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2nd day of February, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS in pursuance of "The Bishops' Resignation Act, 1869," a representation has been made to Her Majesty by the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William by Divine Providence Lord Archbishop of York Primate of England and Metropolitan at the instance of the Right Reverend William by Divine Permission Lord Bishop of Chester within the said Province of York that the said Bishop is desirous of resigning his Bishopric by reason that he is incapacitated by age and by permanent physical infirmity from the due performance of his duties as Bishop.

And whereas Her Majesty is satisfied of such incapacity and that the said Bishop has canonically resigned.

And whereas it has also been made to appear to Her Majesty that the said Bishop has undertaken during such time as he may occupy the episcopal residence hereinafter mentioned to insure and keep insured against fire the said episcopal residence in the sum of six thousand pounds and also (in addition to any dilapidations which may be payable by him the said Bishop his executors or administrators in respect of his past occupation) that he and his executors and administrators shall pay the like dilapidations or sums in the nature of dilapidations in respect of his future occupation of the said episcopal residence.

Now therefore Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her said Council is pleased hereby to declare the said Bishopric of Chester to be vacant and on the special grounds of the great age of the said Bishop and of his long services at Oxford and in his Bishopric to assign to the said Bishop for his residence during his life the episcopal residence hitherto occupied by him and Her Majesty by and with the like advice is pleased hereby to direct that the Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chester.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2nd day of February, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Bishopric's Act, 1878, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, on the 17th day of January, 1884, certified to Her Majesty under their common seal, that the annual value of the Southwell Bishopric Endowment Fund, together with the annual sum which will ultimately be derived in pursuance of the hereinbefore mentioned Act from the two contributory Bishoprics of Lincoln and Lichfield is not less than three thousand pounds, and that contributions to that fund sufficient to raise the same annual value within five years from the date of the certificate up to three thousand five hundred pounds have been guaranteed to the satisfaction of the said Commissioners;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Most Honourable Privy Council to order and declare as follows:—

1. The Bishopric of Southwell is hereby founded.
2. The diocese of the said Bishopric shall consist of the counties of Derby and Nottingham.
3. The parish and collegiate church of Southwell, subject to the rights of the patron and incumbent of such church, shall be the cathedral church.
4. The Bishop of Southwell is constituted a body corporate, and is hereby invested with all such rights privileges and jurisdictions as are possessed by any other Bishop in England, and is subjected to the metropolitan jurisdiction of the Archbishop of Canterbury.
5. This Order shall come into operation on the publication of the same in the London Gazette.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2nd day of February, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the "Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," it is enacted that "Whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships for the time being in force under the principal Act have been “ adopted by the Government of any foreign country and are in force in that country, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by Order in Council to direct that the ships of such foreign country shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of registry, or other national papers, and thereupon it shall no longer be necessary for such ships to be remeasured in any port or place in Her Majesty's dominions, but such ships shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in their certificates of registry, or other papers, in the same manner, to the same extent, and for the same purposes, in to and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of British ships is to be deemed the tonnage of such ships ;”

And whereas by “ The Merchant Shipping Act, 1876,” it is enacted that “ Where Her Majesty has power under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, or any Act passed, or hereafter to be passed, amending the same, to make an Order in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time to make such Order in Council, and by Order in Council to revoke, alter or add to any Order so made ;”

And whereas it was made to appear to Her Majesty that the rules concerning the measurement of tonnage of merchant ships now in force under “ The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854,” had been adopted by the Royal Norwegian Government, and came into force in Norway on the 1st day of April, 1876 ;

And whereas by Order in Council, dated the 17th day of May, 1876, Her Majesty was pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to direct that the merchant ships belonging to the said Kingdom of Norway the measurement whereof had after the said 1st day of April, 1876, been ascertained and denoted in the registers, and other national papers of such ships, testified by the dates thereof, should be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in such registers, or other national papers, in the same manner, and to the same extent, and for the same purpose, in, to, and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of British ships is deemed to be the tonnage of such ships : provided nevertheless that should the owner or master of any Norwegian steamship desire the deduction for engine room in his ships to be estimated under the rules for engine room measurement and deduction applicable to British ships instead of under the Norwegian rule, the engine room should be measured and the deduction calculated according to the British rules ;

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that a new Royal Ordinance, which came into operation on the 5th day of May, 1883, stipulates that the certificates of tonnage of Norwegian steamships may show the net tonnage calculated according to British rules ;

And whereas it has been made to appear desirable to Her Majesty that the provisions of the said recited Order in Council of the 17th day of May, 1876, should be revoked, and a new Order in Council made and substituted in lieu thereof :

Now therefore Her Majesty in virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Acts, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that the said recited Order of the 17th May, 1876, shall be, and the same is hereby revoked, and in lieu thereof, and in substitution therefor, Her Majesty is hereby pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to direct as follows :—

1. As regards sailing ships : that merchant sailing ships of the said Kingdom of Norway, the measurement whereof shall, after the said 1st day of April, 1876, have been ascertained and denoted in the certificates of registry, or other national papers of such sailing ships, testified by the dates thereof, shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in such certificates of registry, or other national papers, in the same manner, and to the same extent, and for the same purpose, in to and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of British sailing ships is deemed to be the tonnage of such ships.

2. As regards steamships : that merchant ships belonging to the said Kingdom of Norway which are propelled by steam or any other power requiring engine-room the measurement whereof shall, after the said 1st day of April, 1876, have been ascertained and denoted in the certificates of registry, or other national papers of such steamships, testified by the dates thereof, shall be deemed to be of the tonnage denoted in such certificates of registry, or other national papers, in the same manner, and to the same extent, and for the same purpose, in to and for which the tonnage denoted in the certificate of registry of British ships is deemed to be the tonnage of such ships : provided nevertheless that if the owner or master of any such Norwegian steamship desires the deduction for engine room in such ship to be estimated under the rules for engine room measurement and deduction applicable to British ships instead of under the Norwegian rule, the engine room shall be measured, and the deduction calculated, according to the British rules ; and that, in the event of the net registered tonnage of such steamships estimated under the British rules being denoted in the said certificates of registry, or other national papers, the same shall be deemed to be of the tonnage so denoted therein.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2nd day of February, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis,” it is enacted that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, burials in any part or parts of the Metropolis, or in any burial grounds or places of burial in the Metropolis, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that from and after a time mentioned in the Order burials in such part or parts of the Metropolis, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require ; provided that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the parishes in which any burial grounds or places of burial affected by such representation shall be situate, or on some other conspicuous places within the part or parts of the Metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month at the least before such representation is so considered; provided always, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk of such parish:

And whereas by another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has made a representation, stating that, he is of opinion that the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the twenty-seventh August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, with respect to interments in the churchyard of St. Mary's, Fulham, in the county of Middlesex, should be varied so as to admit of the burial in the churchyard of the coffins now lying in the vaults under the church:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by Her Order in Council of the twelfth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, to give notice of such representation and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-sixth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette and copies thereof have been affixed as required by the above recited Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

That nothing contained in the said Order in Council of the twenty-seventh August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, shall prevent the burial in the said churchyard of St. Mary's, Fulham, of the coffins now lying in the vaults under the church of St. Mary, Fulham, and the burial of such coffins shall be excepted from the provisions of the Order in Council of the twenty-fifth November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three restricting burials in graves to one body in each grave in the said churchyard.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2nd day of February, 1884.

PRESENT

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that for the protection of the public health the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered: provided also that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish:

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parish without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with certain modifications:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twelfth day of December last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-sixth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that no new burial-ground shall be opened in the undermentioned parish without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials in the said parish shall be discontinued (except as herein otherwise directed), as follows, viz.:—

HARLINGTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Harlington, in the county of Middlesex; and also in the old churchyard, except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the old churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented :

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the old churchyard, as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those already interred therein as can be buried at or below that depth.

(c.) In such reserved grave spaces in the old churchyard as have never before been buried in, and, when opened, are free from water, burials may be allowed of so many members of the families to whom they have been allotted as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet. C. L. Piel.

Colonial Secretary's Office, 27th June, 1883.

Whitehaven Union.—Parish of Harrington.
To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish of Harrington, in the County of Cumberland:—
And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the population of the said parish of Harrington, according to the last census, exceeds two thousand persons;

And whereas at a Meeting of the Vestry of the said Parish, held, pursuant to public notice in that behalf, on Friday, the 23rd day of November, 1882, it was resolved,—

“That the Churchwardens be authorised to “apply to the Local Government Board
“under Section 1 of the 13th and 14th Vict.,
“cap. 57, to put in force in this Parish so
“much of the Act as relates to the provision
“of a room for holding Vestry Meetings.”

And whereas the Churchwardens of the said parish have made application in writing to the Local Government Board, pursuant to the above Resolution:

Now therefore, We, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by the Statutes in that behalf, hereby Order as follows:

ARTICLE I.—So much of the Act passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled “An Act to prevent the holding of Vestry or other Meetings in Churches, and for regulating the Appointment of Vestry Clerks,” as relates to the providing of a room or suitable buildings for the purpose of holding Vestry or other Meetings, shall forthwith be applied to and be put in force within the said parish.

ARTICLE II.—A copy of this Order shall be published in the London Gazette by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said parish.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this fourteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

Charles W. Dilke, President.

S. B. Provis, Assistant Secretary.

J. S. PURCELL, Registrar of Bank Returns.

Inland Revenue Office, February 2, 1884.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.
Mr. Justice Pearson.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1867, and in the Matter of the Chapel House Colliery Company Limited.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition for the winding up of the above-named Company by the Court was, on the 4th day of February, 1884, presented to Her Majesty's High Court of Justice, Chancery Division, by Frederick William Snell, Frederic Alford Snell, and William Mason Greenip, of No. 1, George-street, Mansion House, in the city of London, Solicitors, creditors of the above-named Company; and the said petition is directed to be heard before his Lordship Mr. Justice Pearson, on Saturday, the 16th day of February, 1884; and any creditor or contributory of the said Company desirous to oppose the making of an Order for the winding up of the said Company under the above Acts, should appear at the time of hearing by himself or his Counsel for that purpose; and a copy of the petition will be furnished to any creditor or contributory of the said Company requiring the same by the undersigned, upon payment of the regulated charge for the same.—Dated this 4th day of February, 1884.

Snell, Son, and Greenip, 1, George-street, Mansion House, London, E.C., Solicitors and Petitioners in person.

In the High Court of Justice—Chancery Division.
Vice-Chancellor Bacon.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867, and in the Matter of Knights, Stocks, and Company Limited.

BY an Order made by Vice-Chancellor Sir James Bacon in the above matters, dated the 26th day of January, 1884, on the petition of John Brotherton, of Stockton, in the county of Durham, Timber Merchant, trading under the style or firm of Forster, Brotherton, and Company, it was ordered that the voluntary winding up of the said Knights, Stocks, and Company Limited be continued, but subject to the supervision of the Court; and any of the proceedings under the said voluntary winding up might be adopted as the Judge should think fit; and the creditors, contributories, and Liquidators of the said Company, and all other persons interested, were to be at liberty to apply to the Judge at Chambers as there might be occasion; and it was ordered that James McKinlay, the Provisional Official Liquidator appointed by the Order dated the 15th January, 1884, be discharged; and it was ordered that the costs of the petitioner and of the said Company, and of the creditors supporting the said petition of that application, including the costs of and consequent on the appointment of the said Provisional Official Liquidator, be taxed by the Taxing Master, and paid out of the assets of the said Company, but in such taxation only one set of costs was to be allowed to the said creditors supporting the said petition.—Dated this 4th day of February, 1884.

John R. Eldridge, 15, Parliament-street, Westminster; Agent for Charles John Archer, Stockton-on-Tees, Durham, Solicitor for the said Petitioner.

In the High Court of Justice—Chancery Division.
Mr. Justice Pearson.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867, and in the Matter of the Victoria Pier Company.

BY an Order made by Mr. Justice Pearson in the above matter, dated the 26th day of January, 1884, on the petition of above-named Company, and of Henry Lewis, of 114, High-street, in the borough of Portsmouth, Stationer, the Chairman of the said Company, and of James Greir, of 111, High-street aforesaid, Outfitter; James Trayler, of Hazeldene, Merton-road, Southsea, Hants, Gentleman; Arnoldus Louis Van Der Bergh, of Bath-square, in the borough of Portsmouth, Shipping Agent; and Richard Ward Beale, of 59, High-street, Portsmouth, Shipping Agent, respectively Directors thereof, it was ordered that the Victoria Pier Company be wound up by the Court under the provisions of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867.—Dated the 4th day of January, 1884.

J. T. and G. F. Marshall, of 26, Theobald's-road, Gray's-inn, Middlesex; Agents for Binstead and Prior, of Portsmouth, in the county of Hants, Solicitors for the Petitioners.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.

Mr. Justice Chitty.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867, and of the Harrogate Electro Hydropathic Company Limited.

BY an Order made by Mr. Justice Chitty in the above matter, dated the 26th day of January, 1884, on the petition of James Haskew, of Waterloo House, Buxton-road, Derby, it was ordered that the Harrogate Electro Hydropathic Company Limited be wound up by this Court under the provisions of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867; and it was ordered that the costs of the petitioner, and of the contributories supporting this application, be taxed by the Taxing Master, and paid out of the assets of the said Company, and in such taxation only one set of costs is to be allowed to the said contributories supporting the petition.

J. and W. Maude, 29, Lincoln's-inn-fields, W.C., Solicitors for the said James Haskew.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.

Mr. Justice Kay.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867, and in the Matter of the International Fish Dinner Company Limited.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Mr. Justice Kay has fixed the 16th day of February, 1884, at twelve o'clock at noon, at his chambers, in the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, as the time and place for the appointment of an Official Liquidator of the above-named Company.—Dated this 2nd day of February, 1884.

In the High Court of Justice—Chancery Division.

Mr. Justice Chitty.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867, and in the Matter of the London and Provincial Traders Wholesale Stores Limited.

MR. JUSTICE CHITTY has by an Order, dated the 5th day of October, 1883, appointed John Smith, of 8, Old Jewry, in the city of London, Chartered Accountant, Official Liquidator of the above-named Company, in the place of James Waddell, who was by the said Order removed from being the Official Liquidator of the said Company.—Dated this 1st day of February, 1884.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1880, and in the Matter of the Staffordshire Union Bank Limited.

MR. JUSTICE CHITTY has, by an Order dated the 10th day of December, 1883, appointed Henry Grosvenor Nicholson, of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Chartered Accountant, to be Official Liquidator of the above-named Company.—Dated this 31st day of January, 1884.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.

Vice-Chancellor Bacon at Chambers.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1880, and in the Matter of the Dorset Fire Brick and Blue Clay Company Limited.

VICE-CHANCELLOR Sir James Bacon has appointed Frederick Henry Cridland, of Observer-chambers, Bournemouth, in the county of Hants, Public Accountant, to be Liquidator of the above-named Company.—Dated this 30th day of January, 1884.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.

Vice-Chancellor Bacon at Chambers.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1880, and in the Matter of the Dorset Fire Brick and Blue Clay Company Limited.

THE creditors of the above-named Company are required, on or before the 29th day of February, 1884, to send their names and addresses, and the particulars of their debts or claims, and the names and addresses of their Solicitors (if any), to Frederick Henry Cridland, of Observer-chambers, Bournemouth, in the county of Hants, Public Accountant, the Liquidator of the said Company; and if so required by notice, in writing, from the said Liquidator, are, by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their said debts or claims at the chambers of Vice-Chancellor Sir James Bacon, at the Royal Courts of Justice, in the county of Middlesex, at such time as shall be specified in such notice, or in default thereof they will be excluded from the benefit of any distribution made before such debts are proved. Monday, the 3rd day of March, 1884, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the debts and claims.—Dated this 30th day of January, 1884.

In the Court of the Vice-Warden of the Stannaries. Stannaries of Devon.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1883, and of the Haytor Mining Company Limited.

BY an Order made by the Vice-Warden of the Stannaries in the said matter, dated the 31st day of January instant, on the petition of John Henry Holman and James Miners Holman, trading together as partners under the name or style of Holman Brothers, at Camborne, in the county of Cornwall, Ironfounders, claiming to be creditors of the said Company, it was ordered that the said Company be wound up by the Court under the provisions of the Companies Act, 1862.—Dated Truro, January 31, 1884.

In the Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster.—Manchester District.

In the Matter of the Court of Chancery of Lancaster Act, 1850, and in the Matter of the Court of Chancery of Lancaster Act, 1854, in the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1867 and 1877, and in the Matter of J. P. Westhead and Co. Limited.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an Order made by His Honour Henry Fox Bristowe, the Vice-Chancellor of the County Palatine of Lancaster, on the 29th day of October, 1883, in the above-mentioned matters, it was ordered that the special resolutions passed at an Extraordinary Meeting of the said Company, held on the 6th day of September, 1883, and confirmed at an Extraordinary Meeting of the said Company, held the 21st day of September, 1883, and which resolutions were in the words and figures following: "That the capital of the Company shall be reduced from £400,000, divided into 40,000 shares of £10 each, to £300,000, divided into 30,000 shares of £10 each, by cancelling the 10,000 shares, numbered respectively 30,001 to 40,000, all inclusive, and which have not been taken up by any person, and that the said 10,000 shares shall be and the same are hereby cancelled accordingly. That the capital of the Company be further reduced from £300,000, represented by 30,000 shares of £10 each, with £7 per share paid up, and £3 unpaid, by reducing the paid-up amount of each share from £7 to £6, and that accordingly there be written off from the Company's account the sum of £30,000, being the amount of £1 per share received in pursuance of calls on 30,000 shares allotted, the said 30,000 shares being henceforth treated as 30,000 shares of £9 per share, with £6 per share paid up, and £3 per share uncalled, making the reduced capital henceforth £270,000, be confirmed." And it was ordered that the addition of the words "and reduced" to the name of the Company be dispensed with altogether. And notice is also hereby given, that the said Order has been produced to the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, and a copy thereof has been delivered to him, together with a Minute approved by the said Judge, in the words and figures following, namely: "The capital of J. P. Westhead and Co. Limited is £270,000, divided into 30,000 shares of £9 each, at the time of the registration of this Minute the sum of £6 has been and is to be deemed paid on each of the said shares, leaving £3 unpaid and liable to be called up on each of the said shares;" and such Order and Minute have been duly registered by the said Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.—Dated this 20th day of December, 1883.

Sale, Seddon, Hilton, and Lord, 29, Booth-street, Manchester, Solicitors for the said Company.
