AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 2nd day of February, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Order in Council, made in pursuance of the Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862, and dated the fourteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, Her Majesty, on the joint recommendation of the Admiralty and the Board of Trade, was pleased to direct that, on and after the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty, the Regulations for preventing collisions at sea, contained in an Order in Council dated the ninth day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, and the additions by an Order in Council dated the thirtieth day of June one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, made thereto, should be annulled, and that there should be substituted therefor the new Regulations contained in the First Schedule to the said first-named Order in Council, and that the same should, from and after the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty, apply to ships of the countries mentioned in the said Second Schedule thereto, whether within British jurisdiction or not.

And whereas, by Order in Council, dated the twenty-third day of August one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, Her Majesty was pleased to direct that the operation of the Article numbered 10 of the New Regulations contained in the First Schedule of the said Order in Council of the fourteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine should be suspended until the first day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and that in lieu thereof, and in substitution therefor, the Article numbered 9 of the Regulations appended to the said Order in Council of the ninth day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three should continue and remain in force until the said first day of March one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

And whereas the Admiralty and the Board of Trade have jointly recommended to Her Majesty that the operation of the said Article numbered 10 shall be further suspended until the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and that, in lieu thereof, and in substitution therefor, the said Article numbered 9 shall continue and remain in force until the said first day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that the operation of the said Article numbered 10 of the New Regulations contained in the First Schedule of the said Order in Council of the fourteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine shall be suspended until the first day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and that, in lieu thereof, and in substitution therefor, the said Article numbered 9 of the Regulations appended to the said Order in Council of the ninth day of January one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three shall continue and remain in force until the said first day of September one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four. C. L. Peel.

(FOOT-AND-MOUTH DISEASE.)

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 6th day of February, 1884.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1878, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :

1. The following Area (namely),—the parish of Elm, in the Liberty of the Isle of Ely,—which was declared by Order of Council to be an Area infected with foot-and-mouth disease, is hereby declared to be free from foot-and-mouth disease, and that Area shall, as from the commencement
