C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 4th day of March, 1881.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the seventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, in the words following; that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Baptist, situate within the limits of the parish of Woking, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Baptist, situate within the limits of the parish of Woking as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Woking, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint John the Baptist, situate within the limits of such parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John the Baptist, Woking.'

"And with the like consent of the said Edward Harold, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint John the Baptist, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint John the Baptist Woking, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Woking in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester which is bounded on the south-east by an imaginary line commencing at the point near Maybury Hill where the main line of the London and South-Western Railway crosses the boundary dividing the said parish of Woking from the parish of Pyrford in the county and diocese aforesaid and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said main line of railway for a distance of one mile and twenty-five chains or thereabouts (passing thereby through the Woking Railway Station) to the junction of the said main line with the Woking Guildford and Portsmouth Direct Branch of the said London and South-Western Railway, and extending thence in a more southerly direction along the middle of the said branch line of railway for a distance of two miles and sixty-two chains or thereabouts to the boundary on the south-western side of the bridge by which the road leading from Guildford over Stringers Common and Whitemoor Common to Kemishford Bridge crosses the same branch line of railway, which boundary divides the said parish of Woking from the parish of Worplesdon in the county and diocese aforesaid.

"All which said hereinbefore described part of the parish of Woking aforesaid is bounded upon the remaining sides other than upon the south-east as aforesaid, that is to say upon the south-west, the west, the north and the east as follows upon the south-west partly by the parish of Worplesdon aforesaid, and partly by the parish or parochial chapelry of Pirbright in the county and diocese aforesaid, on the west by the last-named parish or parochial chapelry and on the north partly by the parish of Bisley in the county and diocese aforesaid, and partly by the parish or parochial chapelry of Horsell in the same county and diocese and on the east by the parish of Pyrford aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the
