

across such proposed street to its junction with Fishwick-lane and extending thence generally eastward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of twenty-eight chains or thereabouts to the point at the Pinfold where the said lane bends towards the south and is joined by the private footpath leading from Fishwick Bottoms and extending thence that is from the last-described point south-eastward and in a direct line for a distance of seventeen chains or thereabouts to the point where the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Mary Preston from the district of Ribbleton in the county and diocese aforesaid (which boundary also forms part of the eastern boundary of the Parliamentary borough of Preston) strikes the stream which flows through Dark Wood to the River Ribble.

"All which said hereinbefore described part of the new parish of Saint Mary Preston aforesaid is bounded upon the remaining sides other than upon the south-west and south as aforesaid that is to say upon the east and upon the north-west as follows: upon the east by the district of Ribbleton aforesaid and upon the north-west by the new parish of Saint Luke Preston aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester: C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 14th day of April, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-seven; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirteenth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four in the words and figures following; that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Your Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Chad situate at West Coseley in the district parish of Coseley in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said district parish of Coseley, and of the parish of Sedgley in the county and diocese aforesaid which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such district parish and parish respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said district parish of Coseley, and of the said parish of Sedgley should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Chad situate at West Coseley as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend William Dalrymple Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield as such Bishop and also as the patron in right of his See, of the vicarage of the said district parish of Coseley, and with the consent of the Right Honourable William Earl of Dudley patron of the vicarage of the parish of Sedgley aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said district parish of Coseley and of the said parish of Sedgley which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Chad situate at West Coseley aforesaid and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Chad West Coseley.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"SCHEDULE.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Chad West Coseley, consisting of:—

"I. All that portion of the district parish of Coseley in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield which is bounded on part of the north-west and on the north-east by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said district parish of Coseley from the consolidated chapelry or new parish of Saint Mary the Virgin Sedgley in the county and diocese aforesaid at the point where Ivy House-road is joined by Coppice-road and by the footpath leading to Upper Etingshall and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the said Ivy House-road for a distance of fourteen chains or thereabouts to its junction at Fullard's End with Tunnel-street and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to its junction with Castle-street and with Bayer-street and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of fifteen chains or thereabouts thereby crossing over the line of the London and North-Western Railway, to the junction of the said Bayer-street with Bridge-street and extending thence in a direction rather more southerly along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of twelve chains or thereabouts to its junction with Male-lane and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said lane for a distance of seven chains or thereabouts; thereby again crossing over the line
