

“ by regulations made under Clause 20 of this Statute from time to time have determined.”

And by inserting in Clause 22 of the same Statute after the words “each Fellowship” the words “except as hereinafter provided” and by adding at the end of the same Clause 22 the following paragraph. “There shall be attached to a Fellowship to which the Bursar shall have been elected under Clause 11 (a) of this Statute a fixed emolument being not less than £100 per annum nor more than £200 per annum free in any case of Income Tax. The fixed emolument shall be £100 per annum free of Income Tax unless the Master and Fellows immediately before the election and at the Meeting held for that purpose shall by a Resolution carried by a majority consisting of not less than two-thirds of those present and voting, have fixed the emolument at a greater sum.”

And we alter and amend Statute iv. by inserting in Clause 2 after the words “The officers of the College” the words “except as hereinafter provided in the case of the Bursar” and by adding at the end of the same Clause 2 the following paragraph “The Bursar shall not be required to reside unless the Master and Fellows from time to time at any of their stated General Meetings make regulations to the contrary under Statute iii. 20.”

Given under our Common Seal this twenty-sixth day of April 1884.
