(i.) The Sheriff of the county of Warwick or his deputy, and the Clerk of the Crown for the said county or his deputy, shall attend at the Assizes at Birmingham as well as at Warwick, and all Justices of the Peace and Coroners bound by law to attend at the Assizes shall attend at the said Assizes at Warwick or Birmingham according as their usual place of residence may be in the said Warwick Division or Birmingham Division respectively; and such Justices and Coroners as have no residence in either of the said divisions shall attend at that one of the said places which shall be nearest to their usual place of residence, and all the Mayors, Stewards, and Bailiffs of liberties, hundreds, and wapentakes in the said Warwick Division shall attend at the Assizes at Warwick, and those in the Birmingham Division at the Assizes at Birmingham, and every Justice of the Peace shall certify his examinations, informations, inquisitions, bailments, and recognizances in respect of offences which under this Order are to be tried at the Assizes at Warwick to the Clerk of the Crown before or at the opening of the Court at Warwick, and in respect of offences which are to be tried at Birmingham before or at the opening of the Court at Birmingham.

(k.) The Sheriff of the county of Warwick shall summon a Grand Jury from and for the body of the said county, which shall attend at the Assizes at Warwick, and shall be sworn for the body of the whole county as heretofore, and another Grand Jury which shall attend at the Assizes at Birmingham and be sworn in like manner, which said two Grand Juries may consist in whole or in part of the same or different persons.

(l.) The precept issued by the Judges of Assize to the Sheriff of the said county of Warwick or other minister to whom belongs the return of the jurors for the trial of issues at the Assizes in and for the said county to summon jurors for the said Assizes for the trial of civil and criminal issues, and to summon special jurymen to try the special jury causes at such Assizes pursuant to the provisions of the Common Law Procedure Act, 1852, or any other Act or law shall direct the said Sheriff or other minister to summon such jurors and special jurymen respectively for the purposes aforesaid at the said Assizes at Warwick and Birmingham respectively, and the said Sheriff or other minister shall accordingly summon a competent number of men named in the jurors' book to serve on juries indiscriminately on the civil and criminal side at the Assizes at Warwick so as such number be not less than 48 nor more than 72, and also a competent number of the like persons to serve on juries indiscriminately as aforesaid at the Assizes at Birmingham, so as such number be not less than 48 nor more than 72; and the said Sheriff or other minister shall also summon a sufficient number of special jurymen, not exceeding 48 in all, for each place to try the special jury causes at each of the said Assizes at Warwick and Birmingham respectively, provided always that the Sheriff or other minister in summoning juries to attend at Warwick or Birmingham respectively shall have regard to the convenience of jurors in reference to their respective places of residence, provided also that the High Court of Justice or any Judge thereof, or the Judges named in the Commissions of oyer and terminer and other Commissions for the said county, may at any time direct a greater or less number to be summoned in any of the said cases, whereupon such greater or less number shall be summoned accordingly, and provided also that it shall be lawful for the High Court of Justice or any Judge thereof at any time to issue any further or other or special directions or orders to the said Sheriff or other minister as may be necessary.

(m.) Every person who shall have served as juror at any of the said Assizes shall have the like privilege and exemption by virtue of the County Juries Act, 1825, or any other Act, as if he had served at Assizes holden for the whole county, and all the powers and provisions of the said Act, the Common Law Procedure Act, 1852, and any other Act and law touching the summoning of juries, common and special, and the summoning of jurors to serve indiscriminately on the civil and criminal side and otherwise, shall be in force with respect to each of the said Assizes to be holden at Warwick and Birmingham respectively.

(n.) In all actions the venue is to be laid in the said county, with the addition of "Warwick Division," or "Birmingham Division," as the case may be, and issues arising therein shall be tried at Warwick or Birmingham accordingly, provided that in all cases where by law the venue is local the same shall be laid in the "Warwick Division" or the "Birmingham Division," according as the cause of action may have arisen in one or the other division. Provided nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for the High Court of Justice or any Judge thereof, if they or he shall think fit to change the venue from one division to the other, whether the cause of action be local or not. All actions where issue has been already before the date of this Order joined shall be tried at Warwick, unless the said Court, or a Judge thereof, shall otherwise order.

(o.) In all cases of indictments removed into the High Court of Justice by certiorari or otherwise, and in all cases of civil and criminal informations filed in the Queen's Bench Division of the said Court, triable at the said Assizes for offences alleged to have been committed, or matters alleged to have arisen, in the county of Warwick or otherwise triable therein, the trial of any issue or issues arising therein shall take place at the Assizes at Warwick, unless (in the case of indictments) the said High Court, or any Judge thereof, and (in the case of informations) the said Queen's Bench Division, or any Judge thereof, shall otherwise order.

(p.) The High Court of Justice, or any Judge thereof, or any Commissioner named in the Commissions of gaol delivery or oyer and terminer for the county of Warwick, may, if such Court, Judge, or Commissioner think fit, order and direct that the issue or issues upon any indictment found by either of the Grand Juries at Assizes at Warwick or Birmingham respectively shall be tried at any Assizes to be holden at either of the said places, and order and direct any prisoner or accused person to be brought up or appear, as the circumstances may require, at either of the said places, and may direct a writ of habeas corpus or issue any other necessary direction for the purpose. Provided that this power of changing the place of trial shall not apply to the case of any person heretofore committed for trial.

(q.) Every recognizance which shall be entered into to appear and prosecute or give evidence or to appear and answer, as the case may be, at the Assizes to be holden at Warwick or Birmingham
