

unless to bury another member of the same family, in which case a layer of earth not less than one foot thick shall be left undisturbed above the previously buried coffin, but if, on re-opening any grave, the soil is found to be offensive, such soil shall not be disturbed, and in no case shall human remains be removed from the grave:

(3.) No coffin shall be buried in any un-walled grave within four feet of the ordinary level of the ground unless it contains the body of a child under twelve years of age, when it shall not be less than three feet below that level:

(4.) That no body shall be buried in any grave that is not free from water.

LINSLADE.—Forthwith and entirely in the Bethel Chapel and vestry, and also in the chapelyard within ten feet of any dwelling, in the parish of Linslade, in the county of Buckingham; and that in the rest of the chapelyard the following regulations be observed:—

(1.) That the number of interments be limited to six:

(2.) That every coffin buried in a vault or walled grave shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented:

(3.) No coffin shall be buried in any un-walled grave within four feet of the ordinary level of the ground.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the fourteenth day of August next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said fourteenth day of August.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz.:

In the churchyard of Southwick, in the parish of Monkwearmouth, in the county of Durham, to the thirtieth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

In the churchyard of Lyndhurst, in the county of Hants, to the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

In the churchyard of North Crawley, in the county of Buckingham, to the first day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

HER Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign affairs has received a note from His Excellency the Austro-Hungarian Ambassador respecting the facilities which will be granted to goods sent to the Exhibition which is to be held at Budapesth in 1885. The Austrian and the Hungarian Railway Companies, the Danube Steam Navigation Company, and the "Advia" Navigation Company will carry such goods at reduced rates. The Austro-Hungarian "Lloyd" has also made certain alterations in its rates for the same goods, and various Railway Companies in Germany, Holland, France, and Russia have agreed, under certain conditions, to carry back, gratis, any goods not sold at the close of the Exhibition. The Finance Ministry of Hungary has also granted various customs' facilities for foreign goods destined for the Exhibition. The Governments of Germany, Holland, Italy, Belgium, France, and the United States of North America have consented to re-admit free of duty goods which are brought back unsold from the Exhibition in question.

Further and more detailed information can be obtained at the Austro-Hungarian Embassy, Belgrave-square, London.
