AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modifica-

"tion thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and enquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas William Basil, Lord Bishop of Saint David's hath, pursuant to the enactment aforesaid, represented in a writing, dated the twentieth of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four to the Right Honourable Edward White, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, as follows:—

"To the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury Primate of all England and Metropolitan.

"I the Right Reverend William Basil Lord Bishop of Saint David's do, in pursuance of the twenty-sixth section of the Act of Parliament of the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty chapter 106, hereby represent to your Grace that there is in the county of Carmarthen and my diocese of Saint David's the vicarage of Abergwilly otherwise Abergwili, which is a distinct and separate civil parish defined by well-known metes and bounds and having a population that by the census of 1881 amounted to 2020.

"That a portion of the parish of Abergwilly of triangular form is by the interposition of a part of the adjoining parish of Llanpumpsaint entirely cut off from the main part of the parish of Abergwilly and the whole of such triangular portion is thus defined on all sides by well known parish metes and bounds.

"That the population of such detached portion of the parish of Abergwilly is not separately given in the census but is estimated to amount to two hundred and forty-two persons.

"That the parish church of the said parish of Abergwilly is situated in the extreme south-western corner of the parish at a distance of between five and six miles southward of the extreme northern point of the said detached portion above-mentioned.

"That there is also in the same county of Carmarthen and my diocese of Saint David's the vicarage or perpetual curacy of Llanpumpsaint being also a separate and distinct civil parish defined by well-known metes and bounds the parish whereof lies to the north of the main body of the parish of Abergwilly and adjoins on to the eastern side of the said detached portion of the parish of Abergwilly for a distance of nearly three miles which parish of Llanpumpsaint has a parish church situate just outside of the extreme northern point of the said detached portion of the parish of Abergwilly.

"That according to the census of 1881 the population of the said parish of Llanpumpsaint amounts to 502.

"That the benefice of Abergwilly is now held by the Venerable William Evan James and has a vicarage house or residence near to its church.

"That the benefice of Llanpumpsaint has at present no vicarage house or residence and is held by the Reverend Joseph Lloyd together with the adjoining benefice of Llanllawddog under dispensation.

"That the patronage or right of presentation to the said vicarage of Abergwilly is vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said See of Saint David's and the patronage or right of presentation or nomination to the said two benefices of Llan-pumpsaint and Llanllawddog is vested in the vicar for the time being of the said benefice of Abergwilly.

"That the net annual value of the said vicarage of Abergwilly is two hundred and twenty-five pounds and of the said vicarage or perpetual curacy of Llanpumpsaint ninety-four pounds.

"That it does not appear that any of the inhabitants of the beforementioned detached portion of the parish of Abergwilly have any right by faculty or otherwise to the exclusive use of any of the pews or sittings in either the parish church of Abergwilly or the parish church of Llanpumpsaint aforesaid.

"That it appears to me that the whole of the detached portion of the parish of Abergwilly above-described may under the provisions of the Acts of Parliament of the first and second years of Her present Majesty chapter one hundred and six and the second and third years of Her said Majesty chapter 49 be with advantage separated from the said parish of Abergwilly and annexed to the said parish of Llanpumpsaint.

"That it is proposed that each of the said benefices of Abergwilly and Llanpumpsaint shall retain after such alteration shall be effected all the income they now respectively possess but the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have intimated that they are prepared on the said detached portion of the parish of Abergwilly being separated from Abergwilly and united to Llanpumpsaint and the said benefice of Llanllawddog being vacated and hereafter held separately and apart from Llanpumpsaint to augment the income of the two several benefices of Llanpumpsaint and Llanllawddog each to the total annual sum of three hundred pounds besides granting to each of such two benefices a capital sum of one thousand five hundred pounds towards providing a house of residence.

"That pursuant to the direction contained in the twenty-sixth section of the said first-mentioned Act of Parliament I the said Lord Bishop have drawn up a scheme in writing appended to this representation describing the mode in which it appears to me that the alteration above proposed may be best effected and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction glebe lands tithes rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues rates and payments and in respect to patronage and rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested and I do submit the same to your Grace together with the consents in writing of myself the said Bishop the patron of the said vicarage of Abergwilly and of the Venerable William Evan James Clerk vicar of the said vicarage of Abergwilly and as such vicar the patron of the said vicarage or perpetual curacy of Llanpumpsaint, and of the Reverend Joseph Lloyd the vicar or incumbent of the said vicarage or perpetual curacy of Llanpumpsaint that your Grace may if on full consideration and inquiry you shall be satisfied with the said scheme certify the same and such consents to Her Majesty in Council. Given under my hand this twentieth day of May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four.

"W. Basil St. David's."

And whereas the said scheme drawn by the said Lord Bishop of St. David's, and the consents referred to in the said representation, are as follows:—

"SCHEME.

"It is proposed to separate from the parish of Abergwilly in the county of Carmarthen all that detached and isolated portion of the said parish of

"That the said parish of Llanpumpsaint so enlarged shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said parish was subject to before being so enlarged.

"That the said benefices of Abergwilly and Llanpumpsaint shall respectively retain all the emoluments to which they are now respectively entitled save the fees mentioned in the next paragraph of this scheme.

"That the incumbent of the said parish of Llanpumpsaint shall also have cure of souls within the limits of the said portion so to be united to such parish as part of his parish.

"That the right of patronage or presentation to the said benefice of Llanpumpsaint shall remain as heretofore.

"That the inhabitants of the said detached and isolated portion of the parish of Abergwilly so to be separated therefrom and united to the said parish of Llanpumpsaint shall be exonerated from all liability (if any such now exists) to repair the parish church of Abergwilly or any other church or chapel now or hereafter to be erected in the said parish of Abergwilly.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein recited, that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein recited that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the alternate right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (which said church and cure are hereinafter called the said benefice) of Lydbrook in the county of Gloucester and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

"Whereas the right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Lydbrook is vested as to every alternate turn thereof for an estate in fee simple in possession in the Provost and Scholars of the Queen's College in the University of Oxford and their successors the other alternate turns of the same right of patronage and presentation being vested in Your Majesty Your heirs and successors.

"And whereas the said Provost and Scholars are desirous that the said alternate right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Lydbrook now vested in them as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Charles John now Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol is willing to accept for himself and his successors in the bishoprick of Gloucester and Bristol the said proposed transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts hereinbefore-mentioned or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said Charles John Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Lydbrook which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the new parish of Lydbrook (being the parish or district in or in respect of which the said right of patronage and advowson arises and exists) by rendering the said benefice more eligible than it is at present for augmentation out of the funds under our control.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Provost and Scholars of the Queen's College in the University of Oxford (in testimony whereof they have sealed this scheme with their corporate seal) and with the consent of the said Charles John Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the said alternate right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Lydbrook now vested in the said Provost and Scholars and their successors as aforsaid shall be transferred from the said Provost and Scholars and their successors to the said Charles John or other the then Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol as such Bishop and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Charles John or other the Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol and his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, at Gloucester and at Bristol.

"And with the like consent of the said John Charles Bishop of the said diocese of Liverpool (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend George Bond the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said new parish of Farnworth shall continue to be such vicar or incumbent all the fees which may be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices at the church of Saint Ambrose Widnes as aforesaid shall be paid over by the minister of such church to the said George Bond, and provided also that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Ambrose, Widnes, being :—

"All that part of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Farnworth in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Liverpool, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with that portion of the township of Widnes, which is bounded on the north and on part of the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said township of Widnes from the township of Cuerdley in the new parish of Farnworth aforesaid at the centre of the bridge which carries the Barrows Green-road over the line of the Cheshire Lines Committee Railway and extending thence westward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of forty chains or thereabouts to the point where the same line of railway passes under the Saint Helen's Branch Line of the London and North Western Railway and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-mentioned branch line of railway for a distance of forty-seven chains or thereabouts to the point to where it is crossed by Albert-road and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of forty chains or thereabouts to its junction with Dickson-street, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the last-named street for a distance of thirteen chains or thereabouts to its present north-western end at its junction with Frederick-street, and extending thence still north-westward and in a direct line for a distance of thirty-four chains or thereabouts to the point where Lower House-lane is joined by Steward's-lane, and extending thence westward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of ten chains or thereabouts to the boundary at Steward's Bridge, which boundary divides the said township of Widnes, and the said new parish of Farnworth from the township of Ditton and from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Michael Ditton in the county and diocese aforesaid.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twelfth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four in the words and figures following, that is to say :—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken out of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Atherton in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said new parish of Atherton which is hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas by a certain deed or indenture bearing date on or about the nineteenth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four and made or expressed to be made under the provisions of "The New Parishes Acts 1843 1844 and 1856" or some or one of them between Robert Clay of Bowdon in the county of Chester Gentleman of the first part Thomas Lee of Alder House in the said new parish of Atherton Esquire of the second part the Board of Finance of the said diocese of Manchester of the third part and us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners of the fourth part (which deed or indenture is intended to be enrolled in the Chancery Division of Your Majesty's High Court of Justice) the said Robert Clay did at the request and by the direction of the said Thomas Lee and at the request and by the direction of the Board of Finance of the diocese of Manchester aforesaid and in consideration of the payment to him the said Robert Clay of certain monies amounting in the whole to the sum of two thousand five hundred and fifty-eight pounds and ten shillings grant convey and confirm unto the minister (so soon as a minister shall have been appointed and licensed in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act) of the said proposed district and to his successors and to the incumbent of the new parish (when such district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the same Act) and to his successors for the time being three clear yearly rent-charges or annual sums of forty pounds and five pence halfpenny, twenty-eight pounds and four shillings, and twenty-eight pounds eight shillings and sixpence, respectively, issuing and payable out of the three several plots of land at Chorlton-upon-Medlock in the parish of Manchester, in the said county of Lancaster which are more particularly described in the said deed or indenture as an endowment for the said proposed district or new parish.

“ And whereas the said Thomas Lee has also contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England a capital sum of one hundred and one pounds in further aid of the endowment of the said proposed district or new parish and we have in respect of such capital sum agreed and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year to the minister or incumbent of the said proposed district or new parish the sum of three pounds seven shillings and four pence per annum so long as the said sum of one hundred and one pounds shall remain in our hands.

“ And whereas the said yearly rent-charges or annual sums have been so granted as aforesaid and the said sum of one hundred and one pounds has been so contributed and paid as aforesaid upon the understanding that we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England should out of the common fund created by the hereinbefore firstly-mentioned Act pay to the minister or incumbent of the said proposed district or new parish when duly licensed as aforesaid a grant of fifty pounds per annum and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district or new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto should be assigned to the Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester for the time being.

And we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district and when the same shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and become absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said James Bishop of Bishop of the diocese of Manchester aforesaid and by his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or to any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

“ The District of Saint Anne Hindsford being:—

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of June, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of another Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the nineteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, in the words following that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, and of another Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, and twenty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Bishoprick of Bangor and now vested in us.

“Whereas the Right Reverend James Colquhoun Bishop of Bangor succeeded to the See of Bangor on an avoidance which happened before the passing of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty, and upon the next avoidance of the said See all the lands hereditaments and emoluments of or belonging to the same except rights of patronage or presentation and the residence of the Bishop and such lands necessary for the enjoyment of such residence as shall be attached thereto by any scheme sanctioned by Order of Your Majesty in Council will under and by virtue of the provisions of the said last mentioned Act become absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

“And whereas under and by virtue of an indenture bearing date the thirtieth day of April now last past and made or expressed to be made between the said James Colquhoun Bishop of Bangor of the one part and us the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part all the interest of him the said Bishop in the lands hereditaments and emoluments of the said See except any right of patronage and the episcopal house of residence situate at Bangor with the demesne and grounds thereunto belonging (such residence demesne and grounds comprising in the whole sixteen acres and three perches) became transferred to and vested in us.

“And whereas the lands hereditaments and emoluments aforesaid consist to a considerable extent of reversions expectant upon grants and leases for lives and years and produce during the subsistence of such grants and leases only small annual revenues and on that account and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property are unsuitable or inconvenient to be assigned as an endowment for the said bishoprick or to be held or applied for the other purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

“And whereas by the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty power is given to lessees holding under us in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or for the purchase of the leasehold interests to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

“And whereas it is expedient that such of the aforesaid lands hereditaments and emoluments (either with or without other property vested in us, as the case may require) as in the judgment of our Estates' Committee, and subject to the approbation of the Bishop for the time being shall be deemed convenient to be held as an endowment for the said See and as will secure a net annual income of four thousand and two hundred pounds being the income named for the Bishop of Bangor and his successors, by the Order made by Your Majesty in Council, on the twenty-fifth day of August one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, which Order was duly published in the London Gazette on the nineteenth day of September following should be assigned as the endowment of the said See, and that for that purpose as well as with a view to the more advantageous appropriation of the remainder of the said lands hereditaments and emoluments or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein or in any part or parts thereof and in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

“Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign with the consent of the respective holders (if any) to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments all or any of the said lands hereditaments and emoluments so transferred to and vested in or to be vested in us as aforesaid with their appurtenances and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his her or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he she or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds thereof from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands tithes rent-charges tenements or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be assigned as the endowment for the said See or to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Bangor.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,
Lord President.
Mr. Mundella.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, chapter seventy-eight, it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, to make such Order as they shall see necessary and expedient upon any unforeseen emergency, or in any particular case or cases, with respect to any vessel arriving and having any infectious disease or distemper on board, or on board of which any infectious disease or distemper may have appeared in the course of the voyage, or arriving under any other alarming or suspicious circumstances as to infection, although such vessel shall not have come from any place from which His Majesty, his heirs and successors, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, may have adjudged and declared it probable that the Plague, or any such disease or distemper may be brought, and also with respect to the persons, goods, wares, and merchandize, and other articles, as aforesaid, on board the same; and in case of any infectious disease or distemper appearing or breaking out in the United Kingdom or the islands aforesaid, to make such Orders and give such direction, in order to cut off all communication between any persons infected with any such disease or distemper, and the rest of His Majesty's subjects, as shall appear to the Lords or others of His Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, to be necessary and expedient for that purpose, and likewise to make such Orders as they shall see fit, for shortening the time of quarantine to be performed by particular vessels or particular persons, goods, wares, merchandize, or any other articles, or for absolutely or conditionally releasing them, or any of them, from quarantine: and all such Orders so made by the Lords or others of the Privy Council, or any two or more of them, as aforesaid, shall be as good, valid, and effectual, to all intents and purposes, as well with respect to the Commander, Master, or other person, having the charge of any vessel, and all other persons on board the same, as with respect to any other persons having any intercourse or communication with them, and to the penalties, forfeitures, and punishments to which they may respectively become liable, as any Order or Orders made by His Majesty, His heirs, and successors, by and with the advice of His or their Privy Council concerning quarantine, notified by Proclamation or published in the London Gazette :

And whereas the Island of Jersey is included in the said Act of Parliament which has been duly registered and has force of law in the said island.

And whereas Cholera is now prevailing in certain parts of Continental Europe, with which the said Island of Jersey has communication, and it is requisite to take precaution, as far as practicable, against the introduction of that disease into that island.

Now, therefore, the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue of the powers in this behalf by the recited enactment or otherwise in them vested, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

1. In this Order—

3. The master of every ship having on board any person affected with Cholera or any thing infected with or that has been exposed to the infection of Cholera, shall, as long as the ship is at or near the said island, moor, anchor, or place her in such position as from time to time the Local Authority directs.

4. No person shall land from any such ship until the examination hereinafter mentioned has been made.

5. The Local Authority shall immediately on the arrival of such a ship cause all persons on board of the same to be examined by a legally qualified medical practitioner, and shall permit all persons who shall not be certified by him to be suffering from Cholera to land immediately.

6. All persons certified by the examiner to be suffering from Cholera shall be dealt with under any rules that may have been made by the States of the said island, or where no such rules shall have been made, shall be removed, if their condition admits of it, to some hospital or place to be designated for such purpose by the Local Authority ; and no person so removed shall quit such hospital or place until some physician or surgeon shall have certified that such person is free from said disease.

7. In the event of any death from Cholera taking place on board of such vessel, the body shall be taken out to sea and committed to the deep, properly loaded, to prevent its rising.

8. The clothing and bedding of all persons who shall have died or had an attack of Cholera on board such vessel shall be disinfected, or (if necessary) destroyed under the direction of the Local Authority.

11. No person shall, after any such detention, and whilst such ship shall be so detained, land from any such ship.

12. Any Custom-house officer or other person detaining any ship as aforesaid shall forthwith give notice thereof, and of the cause of such detention to the Local Authority.

13. Such detention shall cease as soon as the Local Authority shall visit and examine the said ship mentioned in the Clause No. 2 of the present Order, or at the expiration of twelve hours after notice shall have been given to such Local Authority as aforesaid.

14. No master of any ship in which, during the voyage and before the arrival thereof at any port of the said island, any person has been attacked with or died of Cholera, shall bring his ship into any such port until he has destroyed the clothing and bedding of all persons who shall so have died, or had an attack of Cholera, on board such vessel during such voyage.
