Mersey Conservancy,
8, Richmond-terrace, Whitehall,
15th August, 1884.

THE Commissioners for the Conservancy of the River Mersey hereby give notice, pursuant to the 9th section of the Act 5 and 6 Victoria, cap. 110, intituled "An Act for the better Navigation of the River Mersey," that they have received from Messrs. Price's Patent Candle Company Limited, a notice, given pursuant to the provisions of the above-mentioned Act, of their intention of erecting five cylinders in front of their property on the banks of the stream known as Bromboro' Pool, Cheshire, communicating with the Estuary of the River Mersey, a copy of which notice is subjoined:—

T. SPRATT,
Vice-Admiral and Acting Conservator of the River Mersey.

"IN terms of 5 and 6 Vic., cap. 110, we hereby give notice, that we intend to sink brick or concrete cylinders, adjoining our works, on the banks of the stream known as Bromboro' Pool, which communicates with the River Mersey.

"The position of the first five is shown on the tracings herewith enclosed, which, as far as we believe, are correct, and any others we may sink will not be beyond the line of those five.

"We propose to commence the work within three months of date unless any of our neighbours have a reasonable objection.

"Our principal and present object in sinking these cylinders is to prevent the continual subsidence of our ground into the Pool, and thence into the Mersey, which causes us to be continually making up the surface.

"From borings, &c., we believe that the depth of the mud is about thirty-six feet, and sand on the top of the rock five feet thick."

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the consolidated chapelry and benefice, hereinafter called the benefice of Christ Church, Purley, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Rochester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of two hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also hereby grant and appropriate out of our said common fund to the said benefice of Christ Church, Purley, one capital sum of one thousand
