And whereas the special exception is by the Act declared to apply to the factories and workshops referred to in the said section:

And whereas Part Two of the same Act, Section 63, provides as follows:

Where it appears to a Secretary of State that the adoption of any special means or provision for the cleanliness or ventilation of a factory or workshop is required for the protection of the health of any child, young person, or woman employed, in pursuance of an exception under this part of this Act, either for a longer period than is otherwise allowed by this Act, or at night, he may by order made under this part of this Act direct that the adoption of such means or provision shall be a condition of such employment:

And whereas it has been proved to my satisfaction that in the parts of the non-textile factories of the classes mentioned in the Schedule hereunder, it is necessary, by reason of press of work arising at certain recurring seasons of the year, and of the liability of the business to a sudden press of orders arising from unforeseen events, to employ young persons and women in manner authorised by this exception, and that such employment will not injure the health of the young persons and women affected thereby, provided that it be subject to the condition herein-after appearing.

Now I, the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by this Order, made under Part 2 of the said Act, extend this exception accordingly: Provided that it shall be a condition of the employment of any young person or woman under this extended exception that there shall be a cubic space of at least four hundred feet for every young person and woman so employed.

This Order shall come into effect on 2nd September, 1884, and shall continue in force until revoked.

FACTORY AND WORKSHOP ACT, 1878. 41 Vict., c. 16, s. 42.

PERIOD OF EMPLOYMENT.—8 A.M.—8 P.M.

Order of Secretary of State extending Special Exception.

WHEREAS the Factory and Workshop Act, 1878, section 42, contains a special exception to the effect that, in the factories and workshops or parts thereof to which the exception applies, the period of employment for young persons and women, if so fixed by the occupier and specified in the notice, may, except on Saturday, begin at 8 A.M. and end at 8 P.M., and on Saturday may begin at 8 A.M. and end at 4 P.M., or where it begins at 7 A.M. may end at 3 P.M., and the period of employment for a child in a morning set may begin at the same hour, and the period of employment for a child in the afternoon set may end at the same hour:

And whereas this special exception is by the Act declared to apply to the factories and workshops referred to in the said section:

And whereas the said Factory and Workshop Act, 1878, section 65, contains a provision (2) that any order extending an exception may be temporary or permanent, conditional or unconditional:

And whereas it has been proved to my satisfaction that the non-textile factories of the classes mentioned in the Schedule hereunder, by reason of the customs and exigencies of the trades carried on therein, require the extension thereto of this exception: Provided that the period of employment on Saturdays shall end as follows:

If not less than one hour is allowed for meals shall end at one o'clock in the afternoon as regards employment in any manufacturing process, and at half-past one o'clock in the afternoon as regards employment for any purpose whatever; and if less than one hour is allowed for meals shall end at half an hour after noon as regards employment in any manufacturing process, and at one o'clock in the afternoon as regards employment for any purpose whatever.

Now I, the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by this Order, made under Part 2 of the said Act, extend the said exception to factories and workshops of such classes.

This Order shall come into effect on 2nd September, 1884, and shall continue in force until revoked. W. V. Harcourt.
