AT the Court at Balmoral, the 17th day of October, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty chapter eighty-four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventh day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for apportioning the income of the benefice (being a rectory) of Ashby and Oby-with-Thirne, in the county of Norfolk and in the diocese of Norwich between that benefice and a certain other benefice namely the benefice (being a perpetual curacy or a vicarage) of Tunstall which said last-named benefice is also situate in the said county of Norfolk and in the said diocese of Norwich.

“Whereas the Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich is the patron in right of his See of the said benefice of Ashby and Oby-with-Thirne and also of the said benefice of Tunstall.

“And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said benefice of Tunstall is at present insufficiently endowed and that the said benefice of Ashby and Oby-with-Thirne has endowments of such an amount as that after the charge herein-after recommended and proposed to be made shall have been placed upon the same endowments the said benefice of Ashby and Oby-with-Thirne will still be sufficiently endowed.

“And whereas the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich has represented to us and we are of opinion that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the parish of Tunstall aforesaid by means of that apportionment of the income of the said benefice of Ashby and Oby-with-Thirne which is herein-after recommended and proposed.

“And whereas each of the said two benefices of Ashby and Oby-with-Thirne and Tunstall is now full.

“Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White Archbishop of Canterbury acting as Archbishop of the Province within which each of the said two benefices is situate and with the consent of the said John Thomas Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich acting as such Bishop and also as the patron in right of his See of each of the said two benefices as aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed this scheme and sealed the same with their several episcopal seals) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and as from the day of the date at which the said benefice of Ashby and Oby-with-Thirne shall from whatsoever cause be next avoided all the tithe rent-charges glebe lands and all (if any) other the endowments which shall at the date of the next avoidance of the said benefice of Ashby and Oby-with-Thirne belong or which may thereafter belong to the same benefice, shall be charged and for ever thereafter be chargeable in favour of the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Tunstall with the annual sum or yearly charge hereinafter mentioned that is to say a clear annual sum or yearly charge of fifty pounds: the same annual sum or yearly charge of fifty pounds to be as from the day aforesaid due and payable to the incumbent of the said benefice of Tunstall, and the same annual sum or yearly charge to be apportionable between any outgoing incumbent of the benefice of Tunstall or his representatives on the one hand and his successor in the same incumbency on the other hand; and to be receivable by the incumbent in whose favour it is charged as aforesaid by equal half yearly payments on the first day of January and the first day of July in every year.

“And we further recommend and propose that the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Tunstall shall have the following powers for recovering the said rent-charge of fifty pounds per annum hereby proposed to be created in favour of the benefice of which he is incumbent as aforesaid (that is to say) power if and whenever any part of the said rent-charge shall at any time be unpaid for twenty-one days after any of the times appointed for the payment thereof (although there shall not have been any legal demand made thereof) to enter into the receipt of the endowments charged therewith or any part thereof and to receive and take the same until he shall thereby or otherwise be paid and satisfied the same rent-charge and the arrears thereof due at the time of such entry or afterwards to become due during his being in possession of the same premises together with all costs and expenses occasioned by the repayment thereof and for the purpose of collecting receiving and recovering such endowments or any of them to use exercise and enjoy all such powers and remedies for collecting recovering and enforcing payment thereof and of the annual sums payable for or towards the raising or making up the same as may be statutablely exercised or exercisable by him under the law then in force.

“Provided always that if at any time the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Ashby and Oby-with-Thirne shall by any deed duly executed by him under his hand and seal in accordance with the provisions of any statute in that behalf enabling him grant convey and annex to the said benefice of Tunstall any part or parts of the rectorial endowments belonging to the said benefice of Ashby and Oby-with-Thirne which shall in the opinion of the Bishop of Norwich for the time being be a just and fair equivalent or not less than equivalent for the said yearly charge of fifty pounds hereby proposed to be created as aforesaid then the same annual sum or yearly charge of fifty pounds shall thereupon and thenceforth cease and determine, and be no longer payable as hereinbefore recommended and proposed.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures
