

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday March 17. to Thursday March 20. 1689.

Venice, March 10.

There are Letters from Napoli di Romania of the 23d of the last Month, which inform us, That the Captain-General Cornaro had taken a Review of the Troops quartered thereabouts: And that upon Advice, that the Turks were fitting out several Vessels at Scio and Canea to carry Succors to Napoli di Malvasia, he had sent Captain Nicolo Pisani with three Frigates, to reinforce the Squadron that was appointed to cruise on that Coast. The Troops of Wirttemberg and Welfenbuttel, that returned lately from the Levant, are now Quartered about Verona, and will, so soon as the weather is a little more favourable, begin their march towards Germany; From whence we are expecting 2000 Men, which the Duke of Mecklenburg Gustraw is, according to the Treaty made with him, to send to the Alliance of this Republick.

Marsaw, Feb. 17. The Dyet of this Kingdom is still Assembled, but without coming as yet to any Resolution about the Matters the King proposed to them at their first Meeting, their Debates thereupon having been often interrupted by other Affairs, though of much lesser Importance. On the 11th Instant, one of the Deputies pretending to be dissatisfied with the Matter then in debate, protested, according to the Liberty which the Laws of the Kingdom give to all the Members of the Dyet, against all the Resolutions that should be taken, and so left the Assembly, which must thereupon have broke up, had he not been prevailed with by some Persons of the chiefest Quality, who went to him for that purpose, to return to his Place in the Dyet. The French Minister is ordered immediately to depart this Kingdom, upon the discovery of his Cabals to embroil the Publick Affairs, and to hinder the good conclusion of the Dyet. It is continued, that the Tartars have lately put a Convoy of Provisions into Cumniee, which began to be very much streightened for want thereof.

Vienna, March 12. The last Advices from Bulgaria tell us, That the Imperialists continue to work with an extraordinary diligence on the Fortifications of Nissa, Widin, and their other Frontier Places, which they have already put into a very good Posture of Defence: And that several Officers and Soldiers, who were taken Prisoners in the Fight of Kazanecke, and had afterwards made their Escape, arrived daily at Nissa, and gave an account of the terrible Ravage the Tartars had made in the County of Cassova, &c. and of the great numbers of People they had carried away with them. The Imperial Forces that block up Canisa, have taken a Turkish Officer, who was going from that Garrison to the Grand Visier and the Basha of Bosnia, to acquaint them with the Condition they were reduced to, and that they should be forced, if not speedily relieved, to surrender the place. The Turkish Envoy is still at Coverra, and it's said, they will be permitted to stay there, till they have sent to the Port for farther Instructions. This week arrived here the Lord Pagge Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Great Britain, having on the 28th of the last Month waited upon the Elector Palatine at Nembourg, to deliver a Letter from His Majesty; where his Lordship was received with all imaginable Honor and Respect.

Frankfort, March 20. Several Regiments of the Forces of Hesse Cassel marched through this place on the 14th Instant, being ordered, in pursuance of the Measures taken among the Allies, to enter into the Bergstraset, and to post themselves between the Main and the Neckar; and the Count de Lippe, who Commands them, is expected here in two or three days. They write from Basle of the 12th Instant, That the Imperialists do assemble some Troops near Rhinfeldt, and that they are fortifying a very advantageous Post on the Rhine near Augst, the Frontier of Suisseerland.

Cologne, March 17. The Electoral Prince Palatine has named the Baron de Wanghe to go in the Quality of his Envoy Extraordinary to the Court of Portugal, whither he will very speedily begin his Journey. The Baron de Spizen returned hither the 15th, and had the next day a Conference with the other Generals at present here.

Paris, March 21. The King has declared, that the Dauphin shall Command his Forces this Summer in Germany; and his Equipage is accordingly preparing, which is to be ready by the 10th of the next Month; but he will not part from hence himself till about the 20th, intending, as 'tis said, to be at Strasbourg on the first of May. Monsieur de Carinat is to Command a Body of 10 or 12000 Men towards Italy. The King has named the Archbishop of Paris to be a Cardinal, at the first Promotion that shall be made in favour of the Crowns. The Bishops that have not yet their Bulls, are to meet here, in order to write a Submissive Letter to the Pope, upon which they hope to obtain them. We hear, that the King of Poland is entered into new Engagements with the Emperor. The Dauphiness continues extremely ill.

Hague, March 24. The Plenipotentiaries of the Allies had a second Conference yesterday, and have resolved to meet constantly on Mondays and Thursdays. The Baron de Goers the elder is arrived here, with the Character of Plenipotentiary from the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel, and will assist at the next Meeting. Prince Waldack will part from hence the next week to visit the Frontier Garrisons, and to give Orders about the opening of the Campaign. The Count de Salmes arrived here yesterday from Germany.

Lisburne, March 9. Colonel Wolfeley has, by his Letters of the 4th Instant from Belturbat, given his Grace the Duke of Schomberg an account; That he sent out the night before a Party, under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Echlin and Major Billing, to beat up the Enemies Quarters at Cavan; and at the same time gave Orders for the attacking of Butlers-bridge the next morning by break of day, which was accordingly done by a Party of Horse and 50 Foot of Colonel Earle's Detachment, who behaved themselves extremely well, and beat the Rebels from their Brest-work, and getting over the River, pursued them, who were about 60, killed 20, and took 16 Prisoners, among whom was the Captain that Commanded them, and an Ensign; without the loss of a Man on our side, only a Cornet wounded. From thence our Horse marched to Cavan, and joyned our other Party. The Enemy had notice of their coming, and had posted themselves behind the Walls of the Houses that were burnt the last time, but our Men advancing under their Shot, beat them from thence, killed between 60 and 80 of them, and burnt the remaining Houses, Colonel Wauchope, who Commands in the Fort, not daring to stir out. We lost in this Action 8 Men, and an Ensign of Major-General Kirk's Regiment. Colonel Wolfeley adds, that he had