THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs the following translation of a Quarantine Decree issued by the Austro-Hungarian Government, viz. :—

Decree of the Imperial-Royal Ministry of the Interior to all the Country Officials, with the exception of those at Zara:

In recognition of the fact that the cholera has almost disappeared from France, existing medical examination of travellers arriving from France with luggage at the frontier railway stations is hereby removed. This is also to extend to the luggage (ordinary train and express) which, in consequence of the sanitary examination insisted upon, has remained shut up in the inclosures of the Custom-houses of the interior after arriving from France by route of Switzerland. The prohibition of the importation of rags, &c., from France, Italy, and Spain, as well as all the existing Decrees regarding communication from Italy, remain still in force.
