Polehampton Estate.

(Power to devote Crown Property, formerly of Edward Polehampton, or accruing from or representing his Property to Public or Charitable purposes; Power to the High Court of Justice to make a Scheme in relation to such Property.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for leave to bring in a Bill for effecting all or some of the objects and purposes following, that is to say:—

1. To authorize and empower the property devised by the will, dated the 27th day of July, 1721, of Edward Polehampton, late of the parish of St. Sepulchre, London, remaining after satisfying the charitable devises, bequests, and purposes of his will, and the property accruing from or representing the same (including all estates and interests of the Crown in such property), to be devoted under the direction of the High Court of Justice to public or charitable purposes.

2. To authorize and empower the said Court to settle a scheme or schemes for the application to the purposes aforesaid of the said property, either separately or together with the property comprised in or applicable to the charitable devises, bequests, and purposes of the said will, and for the regulation and management of the Charity intended to be established, either separately or together with the Charity established by the said will, and generally to empower the said Court to carry into effect the provisions of any such scheme.

3. To enable the said Court to appoint Trustees for the purposes of the said scheme or schemes.

4. To empower the said Court to make orders varying the scheme or schemes.

5. To provide for the payment in whole or in part of the costs, charges, and expenses incidental to the preparing, applying for, and obtaining of the intended Act.

Dated this 27th day of October, 1884.
