"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Oxford.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of November, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the incumbent and vestry clerk of the parish hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation, stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials in the undermentioned parish should be discontinued, with the following modifications:—

FULHAM, MIDDLESEX.—Forthwith and entirely in Saint Mary's Church, Fulham, in the county of Middlesex; and also in the churchyard, except for the burial of Mrs. Harriet Roy and Miss Maria Willson at their decease.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the fifteenth day of January next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of the said parish, or on some conspicuous places within the part or parts of the Metropolis affected by such representation, one calendar month at the least before the said fifteenth day of January.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 29th day of November, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intitled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications, viz.:—

ALFORD.—Forthwith entirely in the detached portion (opened in one thousand eight hundred and fifty) of the parish churchyard of Alford, in the county of Lincoln, except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the detached portion burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the detached portion, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the following relatives of those interred therein at the date of the Order: viz., widows, widowers, parents and children as can be buried at or below that depth.

(c.) In such earthen graves now existing in the detached portion as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the following relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order: viz., widows, widowers, parents and children as can be buried at or below that depth.

(d.) In such reserved graves spaces in the detached portion (as have never before been buried in and when opened are free from water) burials may be allowed of so many members of the families to whom they may be allotted as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

BROSELEY.—Forthwith wholly in Broseley Church, in the county of Salop; and also in the churchyard after the first January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

JACKFIELD.—Forthwith wholly in Jackfield Church, in the parish of Broseley, in the county of Salop; and also in the churchyard after the first January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins
