

the necessary consent thereto of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John Bishop of London, made out of the fund created by the twenty-second section of the Union of Benefices Act 1860, a grant of six thousand pounds, towards the cost of the church to be erected upon the said site as aforesaid.

“Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the district of Saint Barnabas, Kentish Town (now exercised and subject as aforesaid) and so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of such new parish, and the whole right of nomination and presentation of the minister of the same district or (as the case may be) of the vicar or incumbent of the same new parish, shall without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said John Bishop of London, and his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 30th day of December, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis,” made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications, viz.:—

LITTLE STUKELEY.—Forthwith wholly in the parish church of Little Stukeley, in the county of Huntingdon; and that in the churchyard the following regulations be observed:—

i. No body shall be buried in any vault or walled grave unless the coffin be separately entombed in an air-tight manner, that is by properly cemented stonework or brickwork which shall never be disturbed.

ii. No unvalled grave shall be reopened within fourteen years after the burial of a person above twelve years of age, or within eight years after the burial of a child under twelve years of age, unless to bury another member of the same family in which case a layer of earth of not less than one foot thick shall be left undisturbed above the previously buried coffin: but if on re-opening any grave the soil be found to be offensive such soil shall not be disturbed, and in no case shall human remains be removed from the grave.

iii. No coffin shall be buried in any unvalled grave within four feet of the ordinary level of the ground unless it contains the body of a child under twelve years of age when it shall not be less than three feet below the level.

iv. That no earthen grave shall be dug within eighteen inches of any other grave.

BLACKBURN.—Forthwith wholly in the Great Harwood Church in the parish of Blackburn in the county of Lancaster: and also in the churchyard after the thirty-first May one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six except as follows:

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

(c.) In such reserved grave spaces (as have never before been buried in and when opened are free from water) burials may be allowed of so many members of the families to whom they may be allotted as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the fourteenth day of February next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said fourteenth day of February.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 30th day of December, 1884.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled
