Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
February 6, 1885.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales will, by command of The Queen, hold Levees at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Monday, the 2nd of March, and on Saturday, the 14th of March next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at the Levees shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command,

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulations that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case he names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at half-past one o'clock.
KENMARE,
Lord Chamberlain.

Whitehall, February 10, 1885.

THE following Addresses and Resolutions of Congratulation, on the occasion of the Coming of Age of His Royal Highness Prince Albert Victor of Wales, K.G., have been transmitted to the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, for presentation to the Queen, and have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To Her Most Excellent Majesty The QUEEN.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the city of Bristol in Council assembled, humbly present to Your Majesty our sincere and hearty congratulations upon the most auspicious and happy occasion of the coming of age of Your Grandson, Prince Albert Victor Christian Edward, the eldest son of their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales.

The event is especially memorable and awakens feelings of the deepest interest when we consider that, as prospective heir to an ancient throne, he is in all human probability destined to reign over a vast Empire, and to wear a Crown which has been borne by a long line of illustrious ancestors.

We earnestly hope that His Royal Highness's future career may fulfil the promise of his early years, and that he may long live to be an honour and ornament to his country, and a cause of joy and thankfulness to Your Majesty and to his illustrious parents.

We desire in conclusion to assure Your Majesty of our unabated attachment to Your Royal Person and Throne, and of the deep and respectful interest with which we regard every event which conduces to the happiness and welfare of Your Majesty's family.

In witness whereof we the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the city of Bristol, have caused our Common Seal to be hereunto set and affixed this 14th day of January, 1885. (L.S.)

Gloucester County Magistrates.
Newport, Isle of Wight, Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses.
