16 and 17 Vict., cap. 134, s. 7.

IN exercise of the powers vested in me by section 44 of the Burial Act, 1852, as extended and applied by section 7 of the Burial Act, 1853, I, the Right Honourable Sir William Vernon Harcourt, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby make the following regulations with respect to interments in the burial ground adjoining the parish churchyard of Llandaff, and now held by the Burial Board as a burial ground for the parish of Llandaff under the Burial Acts:—

1. No body shall be buried in any vault or walled grave unless the coffin be separately entombed in an airtight manner, that is by properly cemented stone or brickwork which shall never be disturbed.

2. No unwallied grave shall be re-opened within fourteen years after the burial of a person above twelve years of age, or within eight years after the burial of a child under twelve years of age unless to bury another member of the same family, in which case a layer of earth, not less than one foot thick, shall be left undisturbed above the previously buried coffin; but if, on re-opening any grave, the soil be found to be offensive such soil shall not be disturbed, and in no case shall human remains be removed from the grave.

3. No coffin shall be buried in any unwallied grave within four feet of the ordinary level of the ground, unless it contains the body of a child under twelve years of age, when it shall not be less than three feet below that level.

4. No earthen grave shall be dug within eighteen inches of any other grave.

And the Burial Board of Llandaff is hereby required to conform to and obey the said regulations as provided by the Act.

Given under my hand this 12th day of February, 1885.
