AT the Court at Windsor, the 5th day of March, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit :

And whereas Orders in Council were made on the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and the eleventh day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, directing the discontinuance of burials in (amongst other places) the parish church and the churchyard of Saint John, Sheffield, in the county of York :

And whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the said Order of the eleventh day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, should be varied as regards burials in the said churchyard, by substituting for the directions therein contained with respect to the said churchyard, the directions hereinafter set forth :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

That burials be discontinued entirely in Saint John's Church, Sheffield, in the county of York ; and also in the churchyard, except as follows :—

In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented ; provided that forty-eight hours notice of any proposed interment be given to the Medical Officer of Health of the borough of Sheffield.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit :

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders ; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz. :

In the parish churchyard of Barking, in the county of Essex, to the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

In the parish churchyard of Cobham, in the county of Surrey, to the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.
