

Corporation.' The corporation of the municipal borough created by the charter above-mentioned is herein referred to as the 'New Corporation.' The Local Board of the said Local Government District of Wokingham is herein referred to as the "Local Board."

"4. The municipal borough created by the charter above referred to shall be and is hereby placed immediately on, from, and after the day of the first meeting of the Council of the municipal borough aforesaid within the jurisdiction of the Council of the said municipal borough as the Sanitary Authority.

"5. Immediately from and after the commencement of this Scheme, the Old Corporation shall be and the same is hereby abolished, and shall thenceforth be dissolved and cease to exist, together with all the franchises, rights, privileges, powers, jurisdiction, authority, and exemptions of the said Old Corporation, and its members and officers as such of what kind soever they may be which have no pecuniary value.

"6. Immediately from and after the commencement of this Scheme the Local Board shall be and the same is hereby abolished, and shall thenceforth be dissolved and cease to exist, together with all its jurisdiction, powers, and authority whatsoever.

"7. All property of any kind whatsoever possessed by or vested in the Old Corporation, or any person or body in trust for it, or any of its members as such, or applicable for the benefit or under the direction of the Old Corporation, or any of its members as such, which property is within the meaning of the second sub-section of section 4 of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1883, applicable to charity or applicable to defined charitable purposes at the passing of that Act, shall immediately from and after the commencement of this Scheme vest in persons to be designated the Trustees of Municipal Charities in the Borough of Wokingham, the first of whom shall be William Goodchild of Waterloo, Wokingham, Gentleman; Thomas Manley Wescott, of East Heath, Wokingham, Gentleman; Tyndale William Heelas, of Wokingham, Draper; William Moorcock, of Wokingham, Gentleman, and Henry Kemp, of Wokingham, Gentleman, jointly to be by them applied in the manner in which and for the purposes for which such property, or the income thereof, was before and at the passing of that Act applicable.

"8. All property other than that in paragraph 7 hereof referred to, possessed by, or vested in the Old Corporation, or any person or body in trust for it, or any of its members as such, or applicable for the benefit or under the direction of the Old Corporation, or any of its members as such, shall vest in the New Corporation, and (save as is hereinafter expressly directed) shall by the New Corporation be held and applied exclusively for the municipal purposes of the municipal borough created as aforesaid, and the public benefit of the inhabitants of the said borough.

"9. All market property possessed by or vested in the Old Corporation, and all liabilities attaching to the Old Corporation in respect of the same shall immediately from and after the commencement of this Scheme, vest in and attach to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the said Municipal Borough acting by the Council as the Sanitary Authority.

"10. All liabilities which immediately before the commencement of this Scheme attached to and were enforceable against the Old Corporation, or the property thereof, shall attach to and be enforceable against the New Corporation so far only as the property vested in it under paragraph 8 may extend to satisfy such liabilities, and no further.

"11. Any investigation, legal proceeding, or remedy in respect of any debt, liability, penalty, or forfeiture due to or incurred by or on behalf of the Old Corporation before the commencement of this Scheme may be continued, prosecuted, or enforced by the New Corporation or against the New Corporation so far only as the property vested in it under paragraph 8 may extend to satisfy such liabilities, and no further.

"12. All debts, arrears of rates, or other sums, which immediately before the commencement of this Scheme were due or owing to or by the Local Board, may be recovered, levied, and enforced, by or against the New Corporation, as nearly as may be as they could have been recovered, levied, or enforced by or against the Local Board.

"13. The term property in this Scheme means and includes all property, real and personal, and all things in action, and all rights of common or commonable rights, and rights to toll, and all franchises, privileges, and rights which have any pecuniary value, and all charters, records, deeds, books, and documents, all rights, all claims to relief, and all rights to avoid contracts or otherwise, and includes any estate or interest, legal or equitable, in or in respect of any property so defined.

"14. The term market property in this Scheme means and includes rights to market tolls and all franchises, privileges, and rights relating to markets, and all lands and premises used for the purpose of markets."

Privy Council Office, April 20, 1885.

THE MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS ACT, 1882.

THE following Scheme for the adjustment of the property, rights, liabilities, &c., of the existing Corporation of Aldeburgh, and for other purposes, as settled by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Council, is published in pursuance of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882.

"WHEREAS by the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, it is enacted that where a petition for a charter of corporation is referred to the Committee of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council and it is proposed by the charter to extend the Municipal Corporations Acts to the municipal borough to be created by the charter, the said Committee of Council may settle a Scheme for the purposes in the said Act named, and containing such provisions as are in the said Act particularised:

"And whereas certain inhabitant householders of the parish of Aldeburgh have petitioned Her Majesty the Queen praying for the grant of a charter extending the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, to the said parish:

"And whereas the said petition for a charter has been referred to the Committee of Council, and it is proposed to create the said district a municipal borough and to incorporate the inhabitants thereof, and by the charter to extend the Municipal Corporations Acts to the municipal borough to be created by the charter:

"And whereas Aldeburgh is a place named in the schedule to the Municipal Corporations Act, 1883, and the area of the said place is co-extensive with the area of the municipal borough proposed to be created by the said charter:

"And whereas by the Municipal Corporations Act, 1883, it is enacted that nothing in that Act
