INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of Saint Mary, within the Parish of Whitchurch, for the Old Church thereof, in the County of Glamorgan, and Diocese of Llandaff.

To all to whom these presents shall come the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting:

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the parish of Whitchurch, in the county of Glamorgan, and in the diocese of Llandaff, and has been consecrated and dedicated to Saint Mary.

And whereas the Right Reverend Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff, and as such Bishop patron of the vicarage and parish church of the said parish of Whitchurch, and the Reverend John Thomas Clarke, Clerk in Holy Orders, Incumbent of the same vicarage and parish church, have, by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the sixth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of Whitchurch that the said new church of Saint Mary, situate within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church of the same parish.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument under our common seal, with the consents (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff, and patron as aforesaid of the vicarage and parish church of the said parish of Whitchurch, and of the said John Thomas Clarke, Incumbent of the same vicarage and parish church, hereby declare that the said new church of Saint Mary, situate within the said parish of Whitchurch, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be, and the same is hereby, substituted for the said old parish church (of which the dedication is unknown) of the same parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said parish of Whitchurch, in lieu of the said old parish church of the same parish, as fully in all respects as if the said new church of Saint Mary so hereby substituted had been originally the parish church of the same parish.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church of the said parish of Whitchurch, or of or belonging to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof to the said new church of Saint Mary (now being by virtue of these presents, the parish church of the said parish of Whitchurch), and to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Llandaff, has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, and the said John Thomas Clarke has set his hand and affixed his seal this eighteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

Seal of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners. (L.S.)

INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS by the Taxes Management Act, 1880 (43 and 44 Vict., ch. 19), power is given for increasing in certain cases the number of persons appointed, under the provisions made by the Income Tax Act of 1842, Commissioners for the general purposes of the Income Tax, and persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners in each district or division in Great Britain; and it appearing to the Board of Inland Revenue that the number of persons so appointed for the division of Kettering, in the county of Northampton, is insufficient for the proper discharge of the business therein arising under the Tax Acts, the said Board hereby authorize the increase in the number of the Commissioners for the said division to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen: and we, the undersigned, two members of the said Board, do hereby convene a meeting of the persons appointed for putting in execution within the said county, an Act passed in the 38th year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for granting an aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain for the service of the year 1798," being respectively qualified to act as Commissioners in the execution of the last-mentioned Act, to be holden at the offices of Messrs. W. Garrard and Allen, in Market-street, Kettering, on Tuesday, the 14th day of July, 1885, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of choosing and appointing, according to the regulations of the said Income Tax Act of 1842, such number of fit and proper persons to be Commissioners for general purposes for the said division of Kettering, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners, as may be sufficient to increase the number of such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen.
