AT the Court at Windsor, the 24th day of June, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the sixteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Your Majesty chapter fifty and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of a certain benefice namely the cure (being a vicarage) of Alrewas with the chapel of Fradley in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield for the patronage of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Whittington in the same county and diocese.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage and presentation of and to the said benefice of Alrewas with the chapel of Fradley, is vested in the Right Reverend William Dalrymple Lord Bishop of the diocese of Lichfield in fee simple in right of his See.

"And whereas under or by virtue of the will dated the twenty-third day of February 1853 of John Levett late of Wychnor Lodge in the county of Stafford deceased (which will was proved in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury on the sixteenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four) and an indenture bearing date the second day of November one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three and made between Theophilus Basil Percy Levett of Wychnor Park aforesaid Esq. of the first part Theophilus John Levett of Wychnor Park aforesaid Esq. a Member of the Commons House of Parliament of the second part and Robert Thomas Kennedy Levett of Packington Hall near Lichfield in the county of Stafford Esq. of the third part the advowson or perpetual right of patronage and presentation of and to the said benefice of Whittington now stands limited to the use of the said Theophilus John Levett for life with remainder to the use of the said Theophilus Basil Percy Levett his heirs and assigns for ever.

"And whereas it has been proposed to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners that the patronage of the said benefice of Alrewas with Fradley and the patronage of the said benefice of Whittington should be exchanged in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas we have made due enquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative values of the said benefices of Alrewas with Fradley and of Whittington and of the patronage thereof respectively and we do hereby certify to Your Majesty that such circumstances and values respectively are as set forth in the schedule hereto annexed.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said William Dalrymple Lord Bishop of Lichfield (in testimony whereof he has to this scheme set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal) and with the consents of the said Theophilus John Levett and Theophilus Basil Percy Levett (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that from and after the publication in the London Gazette of this scheme and any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and without any transfer conveyance or assurance in the law other than the said scheme and Order so published in the London Gazette as aforesaid the advowson or perpetual right of patronage and presentation of and to the said benefice of Alrewas with Fradley shall be assigned and transferred from the said William Dalrymple Lord Bishop of Lichfield in whom as aforesaid it is now vested and from his successors and shall become and be and remain thereby duly and absolutely limited to the uses following that is to say to the use of the said Theophilus John Levett and his assigns for and during his life and after his decease to the use of the said Theophilus Basil Percy Levett his heirs and assigns for ever: And that, in exchange for the same, the advowson or perpetual right of patronage and presentation of and to the said benefice of Whittington shall as from the same day, and without any transfer conveyance or assurance in the law other than as aforesaid, be assigned and transferred from the said Theophilus John Levett and Theophilus Basil Percy Levett and each of them and from the heirs and assigns of the said Theophilus Basil Percy Levett, to the use of the said William Dalrymple Lord Bishop of Lichfield and his successors for ever as aforesaid to the end and intent that the said last-mentioned advowson or perpetual right of patronage and presentation may from time to time and at
