PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, in the words following, that is to say:—

“ We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Your Majesty chapter seventy, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for apportioning the income of the benefice (being a rectory) of Houghton-le-Spring in the county of Durham and in the diocese of Durham between that benefice and a certain other benefice namely the benefice (being a district chapelry) of Herrington which said last-named benefice is situate in the county of Durham and in the said diocese of Durham and was formerly a part of the new parish of Saint Matthew Newbottle, which new parish was sometime part of the parish of Houghton-le-Spring.

“ Whereas the Bishop of the said diocese of Durham is the patron in right of his See of the said benefice of Houghton-le-Spring, and also of the said benefice of Herrington.

“ And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said benefice of Herrington is at present insufficiently endowed and that the said benefice of Houghton-le-Spring has endowments of such an amount as that after the charge hereinafter recommended and proposed to be made shall have been placed upon the same endowments, the said benefice of Houghton-le-Spring will still be sufficiently endowed.

“ And whereas the Right Reverend Joseph Barber Bishop of the said diocese of Durham is willing and we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners are of opinion that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the district chapelry of Herrington aforesaid by means of that apportionment of the income of the said benefice of Houghton-le-Spring, which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“ And whereas the said benefice of Houghton-le-Spring is now full.

“ Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Archbishop of York, acting as Archbishop of the province within which each of the said two benefices is situate and with the consent of the said Joseph Barber Bishop of the said diocese of Durham acting as such Bishop and also as the patron in right of his See of each of the said two benefices as aforesaid (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed this scheme and sealed the same with their several episcopal seals), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly Gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and as from the day of the date at which the said benefice of Houghton-le-Spring shall from whatsoever cause be next avoided all the tithe rent-charges glebe land and all (if any) other the endowments which shall at the date of the next avoidance of the said benefice of Houghton-le-Spring belong or which may thereafter belong to the same benefice shall be charged and be for ever thereafter chargeable in favour of the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Herrington with the annual sum or yearly charge hereinafter mentioned that is to say a clear annual sum or yearly charge of one hundred pounds the same annual sum or yearly charge of one hundred pounds to be as from the day aforesaid due and payable to the incumbent of the said benefice of Herrington and the same annual sum or yearly charge to be apportionable between any outgoing incumbent of the benefice of Herrington or his representatives on the one hand and his successors in the same incumbency on the other hand and to be receivable by the incumbent in whose favour it is charged as aforesaid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of February and the first day of August in every year.

“ And we further recommend and propose that the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Herrington shall have the following powers for recovering the said rent-charge of one hundred pounds per annum hereby proposed to be created in favour of the benefice of which he is the incumbent as aforesaid (that is to say) power, if and whenever any part of the said rent-charge shall at any time be unpaid for twenty-one days after any of the times appointed for the payment thereof (although there shall not have been any legal demand made thereof) to
