"All which said hereinbefore described portion of the parish of Kingsbury aforesaid is bounded upon the remaining sides, other than upon the north as aforesaid, that is to say, on the west, the south, the south-east, and the north-east, as follows, on the west and on the south by the new parish of Saint John Wembly aforesaid on the south-east by the parish of Willesden and on the north-east by the parish of Hendon aforesaid.

"II. And also all that contiguous portion of the said parish of Willesden wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls which is bounded on the south-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the hereinbefore described portion of the parish of Kingsbury from the parish of Willesden aforesaid at the centre of the bridge which carries the line of the Metropolitan Railway over the River Brent and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of the said line of railway for a distance of rather more than a mile thereby crossing under the line of the Midland and South-Western Junction Railway to the boundary at the centre of the bridge which carries Dudden Hill-lane over the line of the Metropolitan Railway aforesaid which boundary divides the said parish of Willesden from the district of Saint Andrew Willesden in the county and diocese aforesaid.

"All which said hereinbefore described portion of the parish of Willesden aforesaid is bounded upon the remaining sides other than upon the south-west as aforesaid, that is to say, upon the south-east and north-east and the north-west, as follows, upon the south-east by the district of Saint Andrew Willesden aforesaid upon the north-east partly by the new parish of All Saints Childs Hill Hendon in the county and diocese aforesaid and partly by the said parish of Hendon and upon the north-west partly by the said parish of Hendon and partly by the hereinbefore described portion of the parish of Kingsbury aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London. C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Your Majesty chapter eighty-four have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for apportioning the income of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Saint Peter at Gowts in the city of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln between that benefice and a certain other benefice namely the benefice (being a perpetual curacy or a vicarage) of Saint Andrew which said last named benefice is also situate in the same city and diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas the Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln is the patron in right of his See both of the said benefice of Saint Peter at Gowts and also of the said benefice of Saint Andrew.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said benefice of Saint Andrew is at present insufficiently endowed and that the said benefice of Saint Peter at Gowts has endowments of such an amount as that after the charge hereinafter recommended and proposed to be made shall have been placed upon the same endowments, the said benefice of Saint Peter at Gowts will still be sufficiently endowed.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Edward Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln is of opinion, and we are of opinion, that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the parish of Saint Andrew in the city of Lincoln aforesaid, by means of that apportionment of the income of the said benefice of Saint Peter at Gowts in the same city which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the said benefice of Saint Peter at Gowts is now full; the Reverend James Weston Townroe, Clerk in Holy Orders, being the present incumbent thereof.

"And whereas the said James Weston Townroe, has, as hereinafter appears consented that the apportionment hereinafter recommended and proposed of the income of the said benefice of Saint Peter at Gowts shall be an immediate apportionment.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White Archbishop of Canterbury acting as Archbishop of the Province within which each of the said two benefices is situate and with the consent of the said Edward Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln acting as such Bishop and also as the patron in right of his See of each of the said two benefices as aforesaid (in testimony whereof the said Archbishop has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his archiepiscopal seal, and the said Bishop has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) and with the consent of the said James Weston Townroe, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and as from the day on which such Order shall be so published in the London Gazette all the tithe rent-charges glebe lands and all (if any) other the endowments
