

which shall on the day aforesaid belong or which may thereafter belong to the said benefice of Saint Peter at Gowts in the city and diocese of Lincoln shall be charged and for ever thereafter chargeable in favour of the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint Andrew in the same city and diocese of Lincoln, with the annual sum or yearly charge hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, a clear annual sum or yearly charge of one hundred and seventy-five pounds, the same annual sum or yearly charge of one hundred and seventy-five pounds to be as from the day aforesaid due and payable to the incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Andrew in the city and diocese of Lincoln and the same annual sum or yearly charge to be apportionable between any outgoing incumbent of that benefice or his representative on the one hand and his successors in the same incumbency on the other hand and to be receivable by the incumbent in whose favour it is charged as aforesaid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year.

“And we further recommend and propose that the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint Andrew in the city and diocese of Lincoln shall have the powers hereinafter specified for recovering the said rent-charge of one hundred and seventy-five pounds per annum hereby proposed to be created in favour of the benefice of which he is incumbent as aforesaid, that is to say; power, if and whenever any part of the said rent-charge shall at any time be unpaid for twenty-one days after any of the times appointed for the payment thereof (although there shall not have been any legal demand made thereof) to enter into the receipt of the endowments charged therewith or any part thereof and to receive and take the same until he shall thereby or otherwise be paid and satisfied the same rent-charge and the arrears thereof due at the time of such entry or afterwards to become due during his being in possession of the same premises together with all costs and expenses occasioned by the non-payment thereof and for the purpose of collecting receiving and recovering such endowments or any of them to use exercise and enjoy all such powers and remedies for collecting recovering and enforcing payment thereof and of the annual sums payable for or towards the raising or making up the same as may be statutablely exercised or exercisable by him under the law then in force: Provided always that if at any time the incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint Peter at Gowts in the city and diocese of Lincoln shall by any deed duly executed by him under his hand and seal in accordance with the provisions of any statute in that behalf enabling him grant convey and annex to the said benefice of Saint Andrew in the same city and diocese any part or parts of the endowments belonging to the said benefice of Saint Peter at Gowts which shall in the opinion of the Bishop of Lincoln for the time being be a good and fair equivalent or not less than an equivalent for the said yearly charge of one hundred and seventy-five pounds hereby proposed to be created as aforesaid then the same annual sum or yearly charge of one hundred and seventy-five pounds shall thereupon and thenceforth cease and determine and be no longer payable as hereinbefore recommended and proposed.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July, 1885.

PRESENT,
The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme or representation, bearing date the eighteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish (sometime particular district) of Saint Ann, Hanger-lane, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, by adding to that cure certain portions of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Thomas Stamford Hill and of the parish of Saint Mary Stoke Newington both in the county and diocese aforesaid.

“Whereas by the authority of an instrument bearing date the eighth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one and being under the common seal of us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England and also under the hand and seal of the then Bishop of London a certain part of the new parish of the Holy Trinity Tottenham in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London aforesaid was assigned as a particular district to the church of Saint Ann situate at Hanger-lane in the said new parish and was called ‘The Particular District of Saint Ann, Hanger-lane’ and the same particular district has under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four, since become a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act, and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven, and by the said above-mentioned Act of the thirty second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four.

“And whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the
