

parochial chapelry of Church within the original limits of the parish of Whalley in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul situate in the township of Oswaldtwistle as aforesaid.

"Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parochial chapelry of Church which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Paul situate in the township of Oswaldtwistle as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Paul Oswaldtwistle.'

"And with the like consent of the said James Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Paul, situate in the township of Oswaldtwistle as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal consideration and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Paul Oswaldtwistle being:—

"All that part of the parochial chapelry of Church within the original limits of the parish of Whalley in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester which is bounded upon the west partly by the new parish of Saint Peter and Saint Paul Rishton, partly by the consolidated chapelry of Saint Oswald Knuzden and partly by the new parish of Oswaldtwistle all in the county and diocese aforesaid upon the south-west by the last-named new parish upon the east by the new parish of Saint James Accrington both which two last-named cures are within the original limits of the parish of Whalley aforesaid and upon the remaining side that is to say upon the north by an imaginary line commencing at the point at or near to the reservoir at Alletroyds where the line of the East Lancashire Railway crosses the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint James Accrington from the parochial chapelry of Church aforesaid and extending thence westward along the middle of the same line of railway for a distance of thirteen chains or thereabouts (thereby passing through the Church Railway (passenger) Station) to the centre of the bridge which carries the same line of railway over the stream called or known as Foxhill Bank Brook and extending thence generally north-westward along the middle of the said stream for a distance of forty-nine chains or thereabouts thereby passing under the Leeds and Liverpool Canal to the boundary at the junction of the same stream with the stream called or known as White Ash Brook which boundary divides the said parochial chapelry of Church from the new parish of Saint Peter and Saint Paul Rishton aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

C. L. Peel.

At the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that for the protection of the public health the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered:

And whereas by another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for
