PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven sections six and eight duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the thirtieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Bishopric of Gloucester and Bristol and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said Bishopric which occurred on or about the sixth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one by the translation of the Right Reverend Charles Bishop of the said See to the See of Durham the message or tenement and other hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereto annexed situate in the parish of Saint Mary-de-Lode in the city of Gloucester became by virtue of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the said message or tenement and other hereditaments are subject to the beneficial lease for lives mentioned in the said schedule and produce during the subsistence of the said lease only a small annual revenue and partly on that account and partly on account of the character and situation of the property the said message or tenement and other hereditaments are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty power is given to lessees holding under us in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said message or tenement and other hereditaments or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the same or such parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to
