INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of Saint Andrew, within the Parish of Holcombe, for the Old Church thereof, in the County of Somerset, and Diocese of Bath and Wells.

To all to whom these presents shall come the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting:

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the parish of Holcombe, in the county of Somerset, and in the diocese of Bath and Wells, and has been consecrated and dedicated to Saint Andrew.

And whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Arthur Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Bath and Wells, as such Bishop, the Right Honourable Hedworth Hylton, Baron Hylton, the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Holcombe, and the Reverend Walter Eugene Whitaker, Clerk in Holy Orders, the Rector or Incumbent of the same rectory, have, by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the fourth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of Holcombe that the said new church of Saint Andrew, situate within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church (also dedicated to Saint Andrew) of the same parish.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument under our common seal, with the consents (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said Arthur Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Bath and Wells, of the said Hedworth Hylton, Baron Hylton, and of the said Walter Eugene Whitaker, hereby declare that the said new church of Saint Andrew, situate within the said parish of Holcombe, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be and the same is hereby substituted for the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint Andrew as aforesaid) of the same parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said parish of Holcombe in lieu of the said old parish church of Saint Andrew as fully in all respects as if the said new church of Saint Andrew so hereby substituted had been originally the parish church of the same parish.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint Andrew as aforesaid) of the said parish of Holcombe, or of or belonging to the Rector or Incumbent thereof, to the said new church of Saint Andrew (now being by virtue of these presents the parish church of the said parish of Holcombe) and to the Rector or Incumbent thereof, and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said Arthur Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Bath and Wells, has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, and the said Hedworth Hylton, Baron Hylton, and the said Walter Eugene Whitaker have respectively set their hands and affixed their seals this sixth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

Seal of Ecclesiastical Commissioners.
