C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 29th day of December, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that for the protection of the public health the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered:

And whereas by another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has made a representation stating that he is of opinion that the Order of Her Majesty in Council of the fourth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in so far as it affects burials in the churchyard of Saint Michael, Saint Albans, in the county of Hertford, should be varied, and that the following directions should be substituted for those contained in the said Order with respect to burials in the church and churchyard of Saint Michael, viz. :—

That burials be discontinued entirely in the Parish Church of Saint Michael, Saint Albans, in the county of Hertford, and in the churchyard within five feet of the Infant School; and also in the rest of the churchyard, except as follows :—

(a.) In such walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

(c.) In such reserved grave spaces in the churchyard (as have never before been buried in, and, when opened, are free from water) burials may be allowed of so many members of the families to whom they may be allotted as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the tenth day of February next:

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation one month before the said tenth day of February next.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 236.)—AUSTRALIA—NORTH-EAST COAST.
ALBANY PASS APPROACH.

Non-existence of England Shoal, Extension of Harrington Shoal.

THE following information has been received from Commander Hoskyn, H.M. Surveying-vessel, "Myrmidon," relative to an unsuccessful search for England Shoal, and to the extension of Harrington Shoal, approach to Albany Pass from the south-eastward:—

The reported position of England Shoal was crossed by the "Myrmidon" several times, the lead giving 10 to 12 fathoms, and no indications of shallow water were seen from the deck or aloft, although shoals in the neighbourhood were distinctly visible.

Harrington Shoal was found to extend in a north-westerly direction, for a distance of nearly 2 miles from the black beacon on Z reef; the depths near the edge being estimated as $1\frac{1}{2}$ to 2 fathoms at low water. From this position, North Brother (37 feet high) shows against Mt. Adolphus Island and is not easily discerned, but Morilug Island (102 feet high), somewhat resembling it in appearance, is clearly seen.

From the foregoing, it is considered that the ship "England," in April, 1874, struck on this extension of Harrington Shoal; on which there is also little doubt that the S.S. "Bonnington" grounded in August, 1884.—England Shoal has therefore been expunged from the Admiralty Charts.

NOTE.—The "course recommended" on the charts to Albany Pass from the southward, should be altered 4 cables to the westward, near Harrington Shoal, so as to lead about midway between the extension of that shoal as reported above and the 4-fathoms patches.

[The bearings are magnetic. Variation $4\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$ Easterly in 1885.]

Light-Vessels below Cuxhaven—Alterations in Fog Signals.

THE German Government has given notice, that on 3rd December, 1885, the following alterations would be made in the fog signals on board Elbe Light-vessels, Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4, stationed below Cuxhaven:—

Outer Elbe Light-vessel No. 1 (Gustav Heinrich).—A bell will give four long sounds (signifying the word Elbe) at short intervals every three minutes; and when this signal has been repeated twice, a gun will be fired, that is:—every seven minutes.

These signals are given during foggy weather, as soon as the black beacon buoy Elbe and the red telegraph beacon buoy Scharhörn, distant about 2 miles from the light-vessel, can no longer be seen from her. At night, this distance is estimated from the apparent range of the flashing light shown from the light-vessel.

Elbe Light-vessel No. 2 (Caspar).—A bell will be sounded continuously for two minutes, at intervals of two minutes.

Elbe Light-vessel No. 3 (Jacob Hinrich).—A bell will give three long sounds at short intervals for two minutes, at intervals of three minutes.

Elbe Light-vessel No. 4 (Neptun).—A bell will be sounded continuously for two minutes, followed by four long sounds, and an interval of three minutes.

NOTE.—When signals are heard from vessels, or should a vessel be seen steering into danger, guns are fired from the light-vessels.

L. S.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.
Mr. Justice Kay.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 and 1867, and in the Matter of the Rosherville Hotel Company Limited.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Honourable Mr. Justice Kay has fixed Tuesday, the 12th day of January, 1886, at twelve o'clock at noon, at his chambers, the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, in the county of Middlesex, as the time and place for the appointment of an Official Liquidator of the above-named Company.—Dated this 16th December, 1885.

SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

IN pursuance of the "Regimental Debts Act, 1863," notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has available, for distribution amongst the Next of Kin or others entitled, the sum of money set opposite to the name of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list which is published with this notice in the London Gazette, and the "Army List," and is also to be seen at the Regimental Districts and at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as Next of Kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the date and place of the soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should these particulars furnished by the applicant not agree with the facts recorded on the War Office documents relating to the deceased soldier, the applicant will be so informed; but should they agree therewith, then within three calendar months the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the churchwardens of the parish, or a Justice of the Peace; the applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further lists will from time to time be published, and therefore it will facilitate the applicant's inquiries to give the number and date of the notice in which the deceased soldier's name appeared.

By order of the said Principal Secretary,
RALPH THOMPSON.

NOTE.—A copy of this Notice is to be seen at the Regimental Districts and at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Bounty Office,
Westminster, January 1, 1886.

NOTICE is hereby given, pursuant to Rule 5 of the Second Charter of 12 Anne, that on the 24th day of March next, the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty will make their annual distribution of grants to duly qualified benefices, in accordance with the Rules and Regulations prescribed by the said Charter and by Royal Sign Manuals, &c., now in force.

The following observations apply to the distribution:—

1. The grants are usually of the capital sum of £200.

2. No grant is given except to meet a benefaction of the value of £200 or more in money, land, houses, rent-charge, or stipend. A rent-charge, &c., of £15 per annum is considered equal to £200.

3. No grant can be made to any benefice—
(a.) Whose net income from all sources exceeds £200 per annum.
(b.) Which has not a duly consecrated church.

4. The Governors have power to make as many as three grants in one year to the same benefice to meet three separate benefactions.

Further information and forms of application may be obtained from the Secretary. The last day for receiving applications is the 1st day of March next.

By order,
Joseph K. Aston, Secretary and Treasurer.
