

Saint Peter, Leighton-with-Minshull-Vernon in the same county and diocese and partly by the parish of Coppenhall aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chester.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 29th day of December, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir Richard Assheton Cross, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parish without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein, with the following modifications, viz. :—

KIRTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Kirton, near Boston, in the county of Lincoln; and also in the churchyard after the thirty-first of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, except as follows :—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented :—

(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth :—

(c.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the tenth day of February next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parish affected by such representation, one month before the said tenth day of February.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 29th day of December, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit :

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz. :

In the parish churchyard of Cavendish, in the county of Suffolk, to the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

In the parish churchyard of Barking, in the county of Essex, to the first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

In the parish churchyard of Stanwix, in the county of Cumberland, to the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased by Her Order in Council of the twelfth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, to direct the discontinuance of burials, with certain exceptions, in the church and churchyard of New Shoreham, in the county of Sussex, and whereas it seems fit that the operation of such Order should be suspended until the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and that the provisions of the Order in Council of the twenty-eighth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, as affecting burials in the said church and churchyard should again be in force until the thirtieth June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the operation of the said Order in Council of the twelfth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-
