

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday May 5. to Thursday May 8. 1690.

At the Court at KENSINGTON-HOUSE the Sixth of May, 1690.

By the King's Most Excellent Majesty, and the Lords of His Majesty's moit Honourable Privy-Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, That the late Embargo be, and it is hereby suspended and taken off from all Vessels trading along the Coasts of this Kingdom; and from all Ships with Provisions, bound for such Parts of Ireland as are under Obedience to Their Majesties, the respective Masters and Owners of such Vessels giving Security to the Officers of the Customs in the Ports, from whence they shall set sail, not to Trade under pretence of this Liberty into any Foreign Parts, or into any part of Ireland that is not now under Subjection to Their Majesties.

Cha. Montague.

Rome, April 22. The 16th Instant Don Antonio Ot-toni took a Review of the 2000 Men which the Pope designs for the Assistance of the Venetians. The Duke of Cesubnes had yesterday a long Audience of the Pope about the Differences with France. The Pope's Nephews have bought the Dukedom of Fiano for 180000 Scudi.

Milan, April 26. Our Governor has received a Supply of 100000 Scudi from Naples. Commissions are still given out here for new Levies. They write from Turin of the 22d Instant, that an Accommodation was made with the People of Mondovi, who had laid down their Arms, and the Troops designed against them were thereupon ordered to march towards the Valley of Lucerne.

Cádiz, April 11. The English Convoy is not yet arrived, but daily expected; The Levant Merchant, who lost Company with them on the 24th past, in bad weather, came on the 5th Instant into this Port. The Roter-dam Convoy will sail from hence this week with several Merchant Ships for Lisbon, and thence home. The 7th arrived here two Spanish Men of War from Gibraltar, where our Captain-General the Duke of Ceuta is very sadly expected, as well to visit that place, as to give the necessary Orders for the defence of Ceuta, which its apprehended will be besieged this Summer by the Moors, who daily appear before it. We hear from Madrid, that the King of Spain was gone to meet the Queen at Valle-dolid; and that there had been publick Rejoycings for several days together upon the news of her Majesty's arrival.

Vienna, April 30. There is no doubt made, but that the young Prince of Transylvania will be speedily confirmed by the Emperor in the Succession of that Principality, upon condition, that he hold it as a dependance of the Kingdom of Hungary, and do Homage for it, and contribute a proportion of Soldiers every Campaign. The last Letters from Nissa of the 14th tell us, that the Endeavours for bringing Verdels up the Norona do still succeed.
That Count Alodisi Governor of Craffovitz, and the Russian General Antonio had advised General Veterani, that the Enemy were gathering in great numbers at Mitrovitz, near the Frontiers of Bosnia, and that to oppose them, Signior Antonio was drawing his Troops together, and Alodis was fortifying himself at Craffovitz. That General Veterani had likewise received advice, That the Turks, Tatars, and Amotes, were drawing into Bodies near Scopis, and that they had put a Reinforcement into the Castle of Noribord; but that our Troops continued to never to make Excursions every way, and some of them had gone as far as Romania, where an Enemy has not been seen these 150 years. And that on the 12th, one of our Parties returned with a great Boory of Cattel, which they took near Sophia.

Cologne, May 9. The Troops are on their march that are to form the Army, which the Elector of Brandenburg is to command on this side the Rhine; and this City furnishes 8 Pieces of great Cannon towards the Train of Artillery. At the same time the Imperialists are drawing together on the other side of that River. The Dutch Barration in Garifin here marched out this morning towards Majfricht.

Hamburg, May 9. The Letters from Dresden give an account, That the Elector of Saxony, upon the Assurances of the Emperor, and the College of Electors, that they would support his Rights in the matter of Saxe-Lawem-burg; as well as upon the Proposals of an Expedient made by the Princes of Lunenburg, had resolved to march in Person with all his Forces towards the Rhine, and appointed their General Rendezvous to be on the 18th of this Month near Torgau.

Paris, May 9. The Dauphin's Journey towards Germany remains fixt for the 17th of this Month. We are told, that Matters are adjusted with the Court of Suvoy, and that the Marquis de Provence is coming hither as Ambassador from that Duke. We had advice some days ago, that the French Fleet sailed from Cork on the 18th of the last Month, having on Board 5000 Irish; and this day we have an account of their arrival at Brest, having had a long passage by reason of the contrary Winds. Commissioners have been sent into all the Provinces, in order to seize the Estates of the Protestants that are fled out of this Kingdom.

Hague, May 12. The 10th Instant being the Queen of England's Birth-day, my Lord Darby made a splendid Entertainment at Her Majesty's house in the Wood near this place; It begun with a fine Consort of Musick; and then followed a magnificent Collation and a Ball, at which were present all the Persons of the best Quality in Town, and the Foreign Ministers. The States of Holland are met again, and have under consideration the renewing the Farm of the Customs, which expires in October.
The Troops of this State are marching to their Rendezvous.
The French are drawing theirs together between Louvenay and St. Amant. We have an account from Germany, That the Elector of Saxony has not only resolved to send his Forces to the Rhine, but to Command them in Person.

Lubarn, May 17. On the 22d past, in the night, a Party of between 4 and 500 of the Enemy, having passed the Bogs, which are now in many places dry, got into Charlemont, with some few Horses laden with Provisions.
The Sieur Davejeant Lieutenant-Colonel to the French Regiment of Camden, having notice thereof, and that the Enemy were speedily to return to Castle Blaney, laid part of the said Regiment in Ambush, divided into three Parties, under the command of the Sieur de Evron, who acted as Major, Captain Montant, and Captain la Churroy. The first and second night the Enemy did not appear, but the third they came out, and happened to fall into the least of our Parties, which was but of 40 Men. Captain la Churroy who commanded them perceiving the Enemy, let their Van-Guard pass by, and then ordered his Men to fire upon the main Party, of whom 7 or 8, with an Officer, were killed, and the rest fled in great confusion towards Chan-lemont; leaving behind them 150 Muskets, 6 Halberds, 5 Drums, and 60 Hats. So soon as 'twas day our Men were reinforced by the other Parties, and we found the Enemy (who had rallied) drawn up on a Hill about a mile and an half from the Town; They no sooner saw us, but fled again towards Charlemont, and we pursued them as far as the Countercamp, and took 5 Prisoners and 7 Horses, not having lost one Man on our side. The same