INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of Saint Helen within the Parish of Alveston for the Old Church thereof, in the County of Gloucester, and Diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

To all to whom these presents shall come, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting:

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the parish of Alveston, in the county of Gloucester, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and has been consecrated and dedicated to Saint Helen.

And whereas the Right Reverend Charles John, Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and the Very Reverend Gilbert Elliot, Dean of the Cathedral Church of Bristol, on behalf of the Dean and Chapter of the same church, who are the patrons of the said parish of Alveston, and the Reverend John Rawes, Clerk in Holy Orders, who is the Incumbent of the same parish, have, by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the twenty-fourth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of Alveston, that the said new church of Saint Helen, situate within such parish, should be substituted for the old parish church (also dedicated to Saint Helen) of the same parish.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument under our common seal, with the consents (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said Charles John, Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and of the said Gilbert Elliot, the Dean of the said Cathedral Church of Bristol, and of the Chapter of the same church, and of the said John Rawes, hereby declare that the said new church of Saint Helen, situate within the said parish of Alveston, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be, and the same is hereby, substituted for the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint Helen as aforesaid) of the same parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the parish church of the said parish of Alveston, in lieu of the said old parish church of Saint Helen as fully in all respects as if the said new church of Saint Helen, so hereby substituted, had been originally the parish church of the same parish.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old parish church (dedicated to Saint Helen as aforesaid) of the said parish of Alveston, or of or belonging to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof, to the said new church of Saint Helen (now being by virtue of these presents the parish church of the said parish of Alveston) and to the Vicar or Incumbent thereof and to his successors for ever.

In witness whereof to these presents we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have set our common seal, and the said Charles John, Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal, and the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Bristol have set their common or corporate seal, and the said John Rawes has set his hand and affixed his seal, this fifth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.

SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

IN pursuance of the "Regimental Debts Act, 1863," notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has available, for distribution amongst the Next of Kin or others entitled, the sum of money set opposite to the name of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list which is published with this notice in the London Gazette, and the "Army List," and is also to be seen at the Regimental Districts and at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as Next of Kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the date and place of the soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should these particulars furnished by the applicant not agree with the facts recorded on the War Office documents relating to the deceased soldier, the applicant will be so informed; but should they agree therewith, then within three calendar months the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the churchwardens of the parish, or a Justice of the Peace; the applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further lists will from time to time be published, and therefore it will facilitate the applicant's inquiries to give the number and date of the notice in which the deceased soldier's name appeared.

By order of the said Principal Secretary,
RALPH THOMPSON.

NOTE.—A copy of this Notice is to be seen at the Regimental Districts and at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.
