

sent to the said benefices shall be as follows, that is to say, that in case the said union shall take effect by the presentation, institution, and induction to the vicarage of Broxted aforesaid of the rector, for the time being, of Chickney aforesaid, the first and every alternate turn of presentation to the said united benefice shall belong to, and be vested in, the said Richard Benyon, the present patron of the said vicarage of Broxted, his heirs and assigns, and the second and every alternate turn shall belong to, and be vested in, the said Alfred Molyneux Cranmer-Byng, his heirs and assigns: but that in case the said union shall take effect by the presentation, institution and induction to the rectory of Chickney aforesaid, of the vicar, for the time being, of Broxted aforesaid, then the first and every alternate turn of presentation to the said united benefice, shall belong to, and be vested in, the said Alfred Molyneux Cranmer-Byng, his heirs and assigns, and the second, and every alternate turn thereof shall belong to, and be vested in, the said Richard Benyon, his heirs and assigns. C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight the 6th day of February, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the seventeenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Chillington in the county of Somerset and in the diocese of Bath and Wells.

“Whereas it is intended that steps shall be taken under the Act of the first and second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and six for uniting the said benefice of Chillington with a certain other benefice: to wit, the benefice of Cudworth, in the county and diocese aforesaid.

“And whereas, we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners have agreed to make a certain augmentation of the benefices of Cudworth and Chillington aforesaid if and when the same shall have been united into one benefice as aforesaid.

Bishop of Bath and Wells in right of his See and in his successors Bishops of the same diocese.

“And whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Chillington is vested in the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Bristol and their successors.

“And whereas under the circumstances aforesaid, both of the said two benefices are in public patronage and therefore are already eligible to receive (on the terms aforesaid) the said proposed augmentation, but the said Arthur Charles Bishop of Bath and Wells has made it a condition precedent of his necessary consent to the said proposed union, that the advowson of the said benefice of Chillington shall be transferred as hereinafter is mentioned.

“And whereas the Very Reverend Gilbert Elliot, Dean of the said Cathedral Church of Bristol and the Chapter of the same church are willing that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Chillington now vested in them as aforesaid shall in furtherance of and with a view to the effecting of the said union be so transferred to and vested in the said Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Bath and Wells.

“And whereas in token that the said transfer has that consent of the Bishop which by the Acts in the hereinbefore firstly mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said Arthur Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Bath and Wells has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas under the circumstances hereinbefore set forth it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Chillington which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises and exists, that is to say, in the parish of Chillington aforesaid.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Gilbert Elliot, the Dean of the said Cathedral Church of Bristol and of the Chapter of the same church (in testimony whereof they the said Dean and Chapter have to this scheme affixed their common or capitular seal) and with the consent of the said Arthur Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Bath and Wells (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that when and if the benefices of Chillington and Cudworth aforesaid shall have been legally and permanently united under the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council and for so long after the publication of the last mentioned Order in the London Gazette as the same benefices shall continue to be so united, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Chillington now vested in the said Dean and Chapter of the said Cathedral Church of Bristol as aforesaid shall be transferred from them the said Dean and Chapter and from their successors, to the said Arthur Charles, Bishop of the said diocese of Bath and Wells, and his successors Bishops of the same diocese, and shall thereupon become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Arthur Charles Bishop of the said diocese of Bath and Wells and by his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.
