*Board of Trade (Harbour Department),
London, March 23, 1886.*

THE Board of Trade have received through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Copenhagen, enclosing the following translation of a notice issued by the Danish Government, viz. :—

The Proclamations issued on the 11th November, 1885, and on the 3rd of February last, whereby quarantine was ordered with respect to ships coming from Tunis and from Venice, respectively, are hereby revoked.

Whereas the provisions contained in clause II, section I, of the Act of the 2nd of July, 1880, for preventing the introduction of contagious diseases into Denmark, shall, until further notice, be put in force with respect to ships coming from or that have been in communication on the voyage with ships from one of the said places.

Quarantine, in accordance with the above, is ordered with respect to the following places :

French ports between Nantes and Cherbourg.

All Spanish ports and Gibraltar.

The provisions contained in clause II, section I, of the Act of the 2nd of July, 1880, for preventing the introduction of contagious diseases into Denmark, are in force with respect to the following places :

French ports between Cherbourg and the Belgian frontier.

All French Mediterranean ports.

Italian Continental ports on the Gulf of Genoa, and the Sea of Tuscany.

All ports in Sicily.

Venice.

Tunis.

All ports in Egypt, harbours in the Red Sea, Fez, Mequinez, and Dar el Beida, in Morocco.

Rio de Janeiro.

Havana and all ports in Japan.

Prohibition against the importation into the Kingdom of used linen, used wearing apparel, used bed clothes (provided the said articles do not belong to a passenger's private effects), rags, used wadding, carding wool, paper refuse, hair, and skins is in force with respect to the following places :

All French ports.

Italian Continental ports on the Gulf of Genoa and the Sea of Tuscany, as well as Spanish Mediterranean ports.

Prohibition against the importation into Denmark of used linen, used wearing apparel, used bed clothes (provided the said articles do not belong to a person's private effects) is in force with respect to Rio de Janeiro and Havana.

With regard to the above it is specially commanded that linen, clothes, and bedding, which are brought by travellers from either of those two places, should be purified.

This Proclamation shall take effect immediately. To all whom it shall or may concern.

Ministry of Justice, the 6th of March, 1886.
