WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the rectory of Saint Peter, Walworth, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Rochester, one capital sum of one thousand pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a new parsonage or house of residence for the said rectory, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said rectory of Saint Peter, Walworth.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the district chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Micklefield, within the original limits of the parish of Sherburn, in the West Riding of the county of York, and in the diocese of York, and to his successors, Incumbents of the said benefice of Micklefield, one yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the sixteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that the said yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds, herein expressed to be granted to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Micklefield, shall be, and be taken to be, in lieu of and in full substitution for the yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds, heretofore payable by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England under the authority of another instrument, dated the twentieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-eighth day of the same month and year to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Sherburn (to which the chapelry of Micklefield was at that time annexed), subject, inter alia, to the employment within the said parish of Sherburn of two Assistant-Curates: And provided also, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of sixty pounds, hereby granted to the said benefice of Micklefield, or any part of such yearly sum or stipend, shall be annexed by us to the same benefice in substitution for such lastly-mentioned yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of the same yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of one thousand and one hundred pounds five pounds per centum perpetual debenture stock of the Great Western Railway Company, which has been transferred into our own name for the benefit of the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Christ Church, Dukinfield, situate partly in the county of Chester and partly in the county of Lancaster, and wholly in the diocese of Chester, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said benefice of Christ Church, Dukinfield, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of forty-five pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of one thousand pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the district chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of the Holy Apostles, Charlton Kings, in the county of Gloucester, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same benefice, and to his successors, a yearly sum of
