

Vienna, May 7. The Council of War meets here very frequently to direct the Preparations for the Campaign, as well in Germany as in Hungary; and Orders have been sent to the Imperial Troops to be in a readiness by the middle of this Month, to march to the places appointed for their Rendezvous. The Letters from Nizza of the 21st past tell us, that the Fortifications of that place were almost brought to perfection; That all the Neighbouring Garrisons were likewise in a very good condition; and that the People inhabiting about Sophia had sent to the Governor of Piros, to demand the Emperor's Protection. We hear from Rome, that the Pope has named Signior Cosfin to be his Nuncio at this Court, but that the Cardinal de Gorké had declared, that the Emperor will neither receive him, nor any other Nuncio, unless his Approbation of the Person to be sent be first demanded, as is practised with France. The States of Transylvania are now assembled, and have resolved, that the Government of that Country shall, during their young Prince's Minority, be put into the hands of the Sieur Teleky, chief Minister to their deceased Prince; who is coming hither to know the Emperor's Pleasure about this matter. The Letters from Upper Hungary give us great hopes of the speedy Surrender of Great Waradin, the Garrison whereof had, upon the news of the Surrender of Canisa, again pressed the Bassa to enter upon a Treaty with the Imperialists, threatening otherwise to provide for their own safety.

Liuburne, May 12. Yesterday the Governor of Charlemont began to Capitulate, and this day the Articles were agreed on for the Surrender of that place on Wednesday next, being the 14th Instant, in case a Supply of one Month's Provisions for 800 Men be not brought into the Garrison for their Relief, between the signing of the said Articles and the time agreed on for its Surrender.

Falmouth, May 12. On the 9th Instant Their Majesties Ships the Foresight, and the Garland, came into this Port from cruising, and brought in a Portuguese laden with Salt from Rocheville. The same day were seen off of this Harbor about 100 Sail of Ships bound for Ireland. Two Dutch Capers are come in here with two Prizes, being Vestis bound from Ireland to France; and the Jane in 7 weeks from Virginia, whence she came in company of 9 Sail more, but they were separated in foul weather. This day the Spanish Packet-boat bound for the Groyne put to Sea. The Revelation is arrived here from the Barradois.

Plimouth, May 13. This day arrived here the Join of Jersey from St. Malo, with about 40 Seamen that have been exchanged, who say, The French have called in all their Privateers, except six that are sailed to the Southward, but that they are notwithstanding in so great a want of Seamen, that they press all sorts of Trades-people to man their Fleet that's sitting out at B. off. This Evening sailed from hence the Employment of London for Scilly, to fetch some French Prisoners from thence. Here is arrived the Sarah of Middleburg, bound home from Persegal.

Gosport, May 14. The Recruits, Wagons, Horses, &c. that went last from hence to Higglelake, were shipped yesterday, and went it's believed to Sea with this morning Tide, the Wind being fair.

Portsmouth, May 15. On Tuesday was launched at Their Majesties Dock-Yard here a new Fifth-Rate Ship, called, The Portsmouth. The same day came to St. Helens two Dutch Men of War, one of them a Vice-Admiral, from the Eastward. And yesterday a Dutch Rear-Admiral, that had retired here, sailed out of this Harbor to Spithhead.

Deale, May 14. There are now in the Downs the Berwick, Suffolk, and Arch-Angle, and about 30 Sail of hired Vessels, bound for Ireland, with two Merchant Men bound to New-York. The Pembroke and Play Prize, sailed the 11th Instant to the westward.

Whitehall, May 18. On the 16th Instant Don Pedro de Romero, Ambassador Extraordinary from Spain, had Audience of the Queen-Dowager to notify the Marriage of the King of Spain, being concluded by Sir Charles Correll Master of the Ceremonies.

On the 27th Instant will be exposed to Sale by Inch of Candle at Topsham in the Port of Exton, by Mr. Cha. Orchar Agent for Prizes, 30 m³ of Spanish Hides, 83 whit-cam'd Hides, 22 Sticks of Logwood containing 1200 Pound weight, a Pack of Horn-hair, 3 Bags of Cotton-yarn containing 100 Pound weight, 2 of Pack-wool, 2 Hagheads, a Barrel and a Box of Combs Wool, and 35 Quarters of Spanish Sals.
