WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of one hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage or benefice of Eskdale, in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the said vicarage or benefice of Eskdale, to meet such benefaction, one other capital sum of one hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a new parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage or benefice, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage or benefice of Eskdale.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of King's Kerswell, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all and singular the yearly rectorial tithe commutation rent-charges, which are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and are now vested in us: To have and to hold the said yearly rectorial tithe commutation rent-charges to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the profits and proceeds of the said yearly rectorial tithe commutation rent-charges, for and in respect of the period intervening between the first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

Schedule.

All and singular the yearly rectorial tithe commutation rent-charges, amounting to two hundred and ten pounds and one shilling, arising in the parish of King's Kerswell, in the county of Devon, being the whole of the appropriate tithe commutation rent-charges described in the tithe apportionment of the said parish as payable to the Dean and Chapter of Exeter and their lessee.
