THE FOREIGN ANIMALS AMENDMENT No. 2 ORDER OF 1886.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 21st day of July, 1886.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT :

Lord President.

Sir Ughtred Kay-Shuttleworth.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 and 1884, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :

1. The Foreign Animals Amendment Order of 1886, dated the sixteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, is hereby, from and after the commencement of this Order, revoked.

2. The following provisions of this Article shall be read in the place of Article 28 of The Foreign Animals Order of 1885, and shall be deemed to be Article 28 of that Order (namely) :

Conditions of Landing.

28.—(1.) The landing of foreign animals at a Landing-Place under the provisions of this Chapter is subject to the following conditions :

First. That the vessel in which they are imported has not, within twenty-eight days before taking them on board, had on board any animal exported or carried coastwise from a port or place in any country other than in Her Majesty's Possessions in North America, or in Norway, or in Iceland, or in the Channel Islands, or in the Isle of Man, or (subject to the second condition of this Article) in Denmark or in Sweden.

Second. That the vessel in which they are imported has not, within twenty-eight days before taking them on board, had on board any swine exported or carried coastwise from a port or place in Denmark or in Sweden.

Third. That the vessel has not within twenty-one days before taking them on board or at any time since taking on board the animals imported, entered any port or place in any country other than in Her Majesty's Possessions in North America, or in Norway, or in Iceland, or in the Channel Islands, or in the Isle of Man, or in Denmark, or in Sweden, or in the United States of America.

Fourth. That the animals imported have not, while on board the vessel, been in contact with any animal exported or carried coastwise from any port or place in any country other than in Her Majesty's Possessions in North America, or in Norway, or in Iceland, or in the Channel Islands, or in the Isle of Man, or (subject to the fifth condition of this Article) in Denmark or in Sweden.

Fifth. That the animals imported have not, while on board the vessel been in contact with any swine exported or carried coastwise from a port or place in Denmark or in Sweden.

(2.) And the animals imported shall not be landed at a Landing-Place unless and until—

(a.) The owner or charterer of the vessel in which they are imported, or his agent in England or Wales or Scotland, has entered into a bond to Her Majesty the Queen, in a sum not exceeding one thousand pounds, with or without a surety or sureties, to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of Customs, conditioned for the observance of the foregoing conditions ; and

(b.) The master of the vessel has on each occasion of importation of foreign animals therein satisfied the Commissioners of Customs, or their proper officer, by declaration made and signed or otherwise, that all the animals then imported therein are properly imported according to the provisions of this Article.

3. Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to invalidate or make unlawful anything done under The Foreign Animals Amendment Order of 1886 hereby revoked before the commencement of this Order or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, The Foreign Animals Amendment Order of 1886 hereby revoked.

4. In this Order terms have the same meaning as in The Foreign Animals Order of 1885.

5. This Order may be cited as THE FOREIGN ANIMALS AMENDMENT No. 2 ORDER OF 1886.

6. This Order shall commence and take effect from and immediately after the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.
