

Trustees to the said Board of Charity Commissioners.

5. The persons whose names shall be on the Burgesses' Roll hereinafter mentioned shall, from time to time as may become requisite, appoint one of their number to represent them for the purpose of receiving and giving notices, and to call meetings of them as an electing body.

ARTICLE III.—From and after the commencement of this Scheme all the property mentioned in the Schedule to this Order, together with any other property, real and personal, possessed by or vested in the Corporation or any person or body in trust for it, or any of its members as such, or applicable for the benefit or under the direction of the Corporation, or any of its members as such, shall be vested in the Trustees, and any fines, fees, or sums of money payable under Section 10, Sub-section 1, Sub-clause (d.) of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1883, shall be paid to the Trustees.

ARTICLE IV.—The Trustees shall stand possessed of the interest of the Corporation in Kenfig Common, referred to in the Schedule to this Scheme, Upon Trust as follows; that is to say,—

1. To permit the persons whose names shall be on the Burgesses' Roll as Burgesses or Burgesses' Widows who now have, or as Burgesses' Sons or Widows who hereafter acquire, rights of pasture and of cutting fern on the said Common, to exercise and enjoy the rights aforesaid as fully and effectually, and for such time and in such manner as he or she, by any statute, charter, byelaw, or custom of the Corporation in force at the time of passing the Municipal Corporations Act, 1883, might or could have had, acquired, or enjoyed such rights, in case that Act had not been passed.
2. Upon the extinction of the aforesaid rights of all of the said Burgesses and Burgesses' Sons and Widows to allow all the inhabitant householders of the said place of Kenfig to exercise such rights.
3. If at any time previous to the extinction of all the said rights as aforesaid, the number of persons entitled as aforesaid to exercise and enjoy the said rights shall fall below the number of persons so entitled on the formation of the Burgesses' Roll, to let a right or so many rights of pasture, and of cutting fern from year to year at the best rent that they can obtain for the same, so that the number of persons entitled to exercise and enjoy the said rights may, until such extinction as aforesaid, remain as near as may be the same.

ARTICLE V.—The Trustees shall stand possessed of the income derived from the property vested in them under this Scheme, including the rents received in respect of the letting of rights on Kenfig Common, and any fines, fees, or sums of money paid to them as aforesaid, but subject to the payment of any manorial or other rent in respect of Kenfig Common or any other of the property of the Corporation, Upon Trust to pay and apply the said income in the following manner; that is to say,—

1. In payment of any interest, salaries, or other lawful expenses, payable under Section 10 (1.) [a.] of the Municipal Corporations

Act, 1883, and of the proper costs, charges, and expenses of and incidental to the administration of this Scheme.

2. In payment to existing Officers of the Corporation who may by reason of the dissolution of the Corporation be deprived of any emolument or pecuniary profit, or any other profit of a pecuniary value, of such compensation for the same as the Trustees and such Officers may mutually agree upon, or, in case of difference, as may be determined by Us.
3. In payment annually of a sum of Eleven Shillings to each of the Burgesses or Burgesses' Sons or Widows who are entered on the Burgesses' Roll hereinafter mentioned as representing the Burgesses who were the original holders of parcels of the Common called Gwauncymla or Le Rugge.
4. As regards the residue, to divide the same equally between the Burgesses and Burgesses' Sons and Widows entered on the Burgesses' Roll hereinafter mentioned as the persons entitled to a share in the surplus income of the Corporation.
5. Provided that if at any time the number of persons entitled as aforesaid to share in the said residue shall be less than the number who were so entitled on the formation of the Burgesses' Roll, the said residue shall be divided into so many shares as there were persons entitled on the formation of the said Roll, and one share shall be paid to each of the said Burgesses and Burgesses' Sons and Widows, and the other shares shall be paid to a separate Account to be called the "Surplus Fund Account," and shall from time to time, unless applied as hereinafter mentioned, be invested, and the resulting income shall be carried to the same Account and invested in like manner.

ARTICLE VI.—The Surplus Fund may from time to time be applied by the Trustees in such manner for the sooner extinction of the interests of the Burgesses and Burgesses' Sons and Widows in the property vested in the Trustees by this Scheme, or in such other manner for the advantage of the said Place of Kenfig as We may, by Order, Direct or Approve.

ARTICLE VII.—Upon the extinction of the interest of all the said Burgesses and Burgesses' Sons and Widows in the property vested in the Trustees by this Scheme, the Trustees shall apply the said property and income arising therefrom, together with any accumulations of income or other property which may then be in their possession, in such manner for the advantage of the said Place of Kenfig as We may, by Order, Direct or Approve, subject to the provisions of Article IV. 3. of this Scheme.

ARTICLE VIII.—Every person claiming to be entitled as a Burgess, or Son or Widow of a Burgess, in accordance with the provisions of Section 10, Sub-section 1, of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1883, shall, on or before the expiration of two calendar months from the commencement of this Scheme, send to the Trustees his or her claim in writing, and future claims of Widows and Sons of Burgesses shall be similarly sent in on or before the First day of September in every year. The Trustees shall, within two calendar months after the expiration of the time for sending in claims, make out a Roll (to be called "the Bur-
