

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 24th day of September, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining) into districts; and to order that the County Court should be holden for the recovery of debts and demands under the said Act in each of such districts; and from time to time to alter such districts as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit; and from time to time, with the advice aforesaid, to declare by what name and in what towns and places the County Court should be holden in each district:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, and the same was put in force accordingly:

And whereas by certain other Acts made and passed in the thirteenth, in the fourteenth, in the sixteenth, in the twentieth, in the twenty-second, in the twenty-ninth, in the thirty-first, and in the thirty-ninth years of the reign of Her Majesty the provisions of the said recited Act have been amended and extended:

And whereas it hath been represented that it would be of advantage to the public if certain alterations were made in some of the districts of the Courts specified and set forth in the aforesaid Order:

Her Majesty, having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the thirty-first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six—

So much of the city of Manchester as is now in the District of the County Court of Lancashire, holden at Salford, shall be in the District of the County Court of Lancashire, holden at Manchester.

The whole of the parish of Saint Leonard, Hythe, in the county of Kent shall be in the District of the County Court of Kent, holden at Hythe.

C. L. Peel.

And whereas certain inhabitants of the towns of Wiveliscombe and Milverton in the county of Somerset and the neighbourhood, and the Local Board of Wiveliscombe, have petitioned Her Majesty, praying that the parishes of Wiveliscombe and Milverton, and certain other parishes may be removed from the Wellington to the Taunton County Court District; and whereas it appears that the prayer of the petitions should be complied with:

Her Majesty, having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the thirty-first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six:

The parishes of Wiveliscombe, Milverton, Chipstable, Fitzhead, Huish-Champflower, and Raddington, now in the district of the County Court of Somersetshire, holden at Wellington, shall be in the district of the County Court of Somersetshire, holden at Taunton.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 24th day of September, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS in pursuance of "The Explosives Act 1875," three Orders of Her Majesty in Council were made bearing date twentieth April one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, by which Orders it is provided that certain explosives shall not be kept in stores or registered premises or for private use except in pursuance of a certificate granted as set forth in the said Orders that the person authorized by such certificate is a fit person to keep such explosives during the continuance of the said certificate.

Now Her Majesty is pleased in pursuance of part two (section forty-three) of the said Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to order and prescribe,—

(a.) That notwithstanding anything contained in the aforesaid Orders in Council, a certificate as set forth therein shall not be required to authorize the keeping in any store, registered premises or for private use of Schultze gunpowder, E. C. sporting powder, E. C. rifle powder or other nitro-compound adapted and intended exclusively
