FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1886.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of November, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property situate in the parishes of Canwick and Washingborough in the county of Lincoln and now vested in us.

“Whereas under and by virtue of a certain indenture bearing date the twenty-fifth day of May in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and made or expressed to be made between William Newton of Newark-upon-Trent in the county of Nottingham Esquire of the one part and us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part the lands and hereditaments described in the first part of the schedule hereto annexed situate in the parishes of Canwick and Washingborough in county of Lincoln became with their appurtenances and are now vested in us.

“And whereas under and by virtue of a certain other indenture bearing date the tenth day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine and made or expressed to be made between Richard Keyworth and John Collingwood Surveyors of the Highways for the parish of Canwick in the county of Lincoln of the one part and us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part all that plot or piece of land situate in the said parish of Canwick and more particularly described in the second part of the said schedule became with its appurtenances and is now vested in us.

“And whereas under and by virtue of a certain other indenture bearing date the sixth day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five and made or expressed to be made between Robert Cooling of Heighington in the county of Lincoln Yeoman and William Dobson of Waddington in the said county Farmer of the one part and us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the other part a piece of land situate in the said parish of Washingborough and more particularly described in the third part of the said schedule became with its appurtenances and is now vested in us.

“And whereas the said lands and hereditaments are not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant, but are now in our possession, but some portions thereof on account of their character or situation are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

“And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the same or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the said lands and hereditaments or such part or parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of and accordingly that we should be empowered to sell or dispose of our interest in such lands and hereditaments or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

“Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act all or any of the said lands and hereditaments so vested in us as aforesaid with their appurtenances and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and enquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands tithes rent-charges tenements or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary stock, or other public securities in England.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures | in accordance with the provisions of the said Act; relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them | or of any other Act of Parliament.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of November, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Henry Matthews, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in “ England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, “ and to amend the Act concerning the burial “ of the dead in the Metropolis,” made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous consent of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with the following modifications, viz. :—

STAPENHILL.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Stapenhill, in the county of Derby; and also in the churchyard, except as follows :—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

(c.) In such reserved grave spaces in the churchyard (as have never before been buried in, and which, when opened, are free from water) burials may be allowed of so many members of the families to whom they may be allotted, as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

WOLSTON.—Forthwith and entirely in the parish church of Wolston, in the county of Warwick; and also in the churchyard, except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains burials, may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

(c.) In such reserved grave spaces in the churchyard (as have never before been buried in and which when opened are free from water) burials may be allowed of so many members of the families to whom they may be allotted as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

STRETTON SUGWAS: Forthwith and entirely in the old churchyard of the parish of Stretton Sugwas, in the county of Hereford, except for the burial at their decease of Mrs. Elizabeth Yeomans and Mr. William Charles Gibson.

SAINTE PETER'S, WORCESTER: Forthwith and entirely in Whittington church, in the parish of Saint Peter's, Worcester, and also in the part of the churchyard which lies on the south, south-west, west and north-west sides of the church; and in the rest of the churchyard except as follows:—

(a.) In such vaults and wholly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard burials may be allowed on condition that every coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

(b.) In such partly walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, provided that the earth above them can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

(c.) In such earthen graves now existing in the churchyard as can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing coffins or disturbing human remains, burials may be allowed of so many of the relations of those interred therein at the date of the Order as can be buried at or below that depth.

(d.) In such reserved grave spaces in the churchyard (as have never before been buried in, and which, when opened, are free from water) burials may be allowed of so many members of the families to whom they may be allotted as can be buried at or below the depth of five feet.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the twenty-seventh day of December next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said twenty-seventh day of December.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of November, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz.:

In the parish churchyard of Attleborough, in the county of Norfolk, until the thirty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

In the parish churchyard of Stretham, in the county of Cambridge, to the thirtieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

THE ANIMALS (AMENDMENT) ORDER OF 1886.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 16th day of November, 1886.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT :

Lord John Manners.
Sir Francis Sandford.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1886, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :

Norway declared a Free Country.

1.—(1.) The Animals Order of 1886, Kingdom of Norway Amendment, is hereby revoked : Provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to invalidate or made unlawful anything done under the said Order hereby revoked before the commencement of this Order, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, the said Order hereby revoked before the commencement of this Order.

(2.) From and after the commencement of this Order animals brought from the Kingdom of Norway shall be subject to the provisions of Chapter 32 (FOREIGN ANIMALS NOT SUBJECT TO SLAUGHTER OR QUARANTINE) of The Animals Order of 1886, and the Kingdom of Norway shall be deemed to be included in the list of Free Countries named in Part I. of the Fifth Schedule to that Order as if the Order hereby revoked had not been made.

Amendment of Article 151 of The Animals Order of 1886.

2. The following provisions of this Article shall be read in the place of Article 151 of The Animals Order of 1886, and shall be deemed to be Article 151 of that Order (namely) :

Conditions of Landing.

151.—(1.) The landing of foreign animals at a Landing-Place for foreign animals under the provisions of this Chapter is subject to the following conditions :

First. That the vessel in which they are imported has not, within twenty-eight days before taking them on board, had on board any animal exported or carried coastwise from a port or place in any country other than in Her Majesty's Possessions in North America, or in Norway, or in Iceland, or in New Zealand, or in the Channel Islands, or in the Isle of Man, or in the United States of America (provision as to which country is made by the second condition of this Article), or in Denmark or in Sweden (provision as to which two countries is made by the third condition of this Article).

Second. That the vessel in which they are imported has not, within twenty-one days before taking them on board, had on board any animal exported or carried coastwise from a port or place in the United States of America.

Third. That the vessel in which they are imported has not, within twenty-eight days before taking them on board, had on board any swine exported or carried coastwise from a port or place in Denmark or in Sweden.

Fourth. That the vessel has not within twenty-one days before taking them on board or at any time since taking on board the animals imported, entered any port or place in any country other than in Her Majesty's Possessions in North America, or in Norway, or in Iceland, or in New Zealand, or in the Channel Islands, or in the Isle of Man, or in Denmark, or in Sweden, or in the United States of America.

Fifth. That the animals imported have not, while on board the vessel, been in contact with any animal exported or carried coastwise from any port or place in any country other than in Her Majesty's Possessions in North America, or in Norway, or in Iceland, or in New Zealand, or in the Channel Islands, or in the Isle of Man, or (subject to the sixth condition of this Article) in Denmark or in Sweden.

Sixth. That the animals imported have not, while on board the vessel, been in contact with any swine exported or carried coastwise from a port or place in Denmark or in Sweden.

(2.) And the animals imported shall not be landed at a Landing-Place for foreign animals unless and until—

(a.) The owner or charterer of the vessel in which they are imported, or his agent in England or Wales or Scotland, has entered into a bond to Her Majesty the Queen, in a sum not exceeding one thousand pounds, with or without a surety or sureties, to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of Customs, conditioned for the observance of the foregoing conditions; and

(b.) The master of the vessel has on each occasion of importation of foreign animals therein satisfied the Commissioners of Customs, or their proper officer, by declaration made and signed or otherwise, that all the animals then imported therein are properly imported according to the provisions of this Article.

Interpretation.

3. In this Order terms have the same meaning as in The Animals Order of 1886.

Short Title.

4. This Order may be cited as THE ANIMALS (AMENDMENT) ORDER OF 1886.

Commencement.

5. This Order shall commence and take effect from and immediately after the twenty-fourth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

C. I. Peel.

(SWINE-FEVER.)

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 19th day of November, 1886.

By Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords and others of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, 1878 to 1886, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. The following Area (namely),—the Petty

Sessional Division of Miskin Lower, in the county of Glamorgan,—which was declared by Order of Council to be an Area infected with swine-fever, is hereby declared to be free from swine-fever, and that Area shall, as from the commencement of this Order, cease to be an Area infected with swine-fever.

2. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the twentieth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

BY virtue of an Act passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George III, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts made in the tenth and fifteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, as authorizes the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out writs for the election of Members to serve in Parliament, in the manner therein mentioned, and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes;" and of an Act passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to further limit and define the time for proceeding to Election during the Recess:"

I do hereby give notice, that the death of David Smith, Esq., late a Member serving in this present Parliament for the borough of Brighton, hath been certified to me in writing, under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament; and that I shall issue my Warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said borough at the end of six days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my hand this sixteenth day of November, 1886.

ARTHUR WELLESLEY PEEL, Speaker.

THE Secretary of State for the Home Department hereby gives notice, that he has approved the transfer of the Boyn Hill Certified Industrial School for Girls, at Maidenhead, Berks, to new premises at Langley Furze, near Slough, in the same county; and that the said new premises have been certified by him as fit to be an Industrial School for the reception of Girls, not exceeding twenty-five in number, under the provisions of "The Industrial Schools' Act, 1866."

GENERAL ORDER of the Local Government Board: Altering General Consolidated Order. Out-door Labour Test:—

Madeley Union.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Madeley Union, in the county of Salop:—

To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the several parishes and places comprised in the said Union;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WE, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by the Statutes in that behalf, hereby Order, with respect to the relief of the Poor in the said Madeley Union, as follows:—

ARTICLE 1.—Subject to the provisions of the General Order of the Poor Law Commissioners, dated the twenty-first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, in force in the Union, every able-bodied male pauper who receives relief within the Union, and is relieved out of the Workhouse, shall be relieved in the following manner; that is to say:—

Half at least of the relief given to such pauper shall be given in food, clothing, and other articles of necessity.

No such pauper shall receive relief from the Guardians, or any of their officers, or any Overseer of any Parish or Place in the Union, while he is employed for wages or other hire or remuneration by any person; but every such pauper so relieved shall be set to work by the Guardians.

ARTICLE 2.—The Guardians shall, within fourteen days after the day when this Order comes into force, and from time to time afterwards as the Local Government Board may require, report to the Local Government Board the place or places at which able-bodied male paupers shall be so set to work in the Union, the sort or sorts of work in which they or any of them shall be employed, the times and mode of work, and all such other matters relating to the employment of such able-bodied paupers as the said Guardians shall deem material to be communicated to the Local Government Board, or as the Local Government Board shall require.

ARTICLE 3.—If the Guardians shall depart, in any particulars instance, from any of the regulations hereinbefore contained, and shall, within fifteen days after such departure, report the same and the grounds thereof to the Local Government Board, and if the Local Government Board shall approve of such departure, then the relief granted in such particular instance shall, if otherwise lawful, not be deemed to be unlawful, or be subject to be disallowed.

And whereas provision is made in a General Order of the Poor Law Commissioners, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, in force in the said Union, for the appointment of an officer, to be termed a Superintendent of Out-door Labour, and for the continuance in office of such officer, and it is expedient that further provision should be made as hereinafter mentioned;

We therefore further Order, that if at any time the number of able-bodied male paupers requiring relief shall be so small as to render the services of a Superintendent of Out-door Labour unnecessary, the Guardians may dispense with the services of such an officer.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this eighteenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

(No. 263.)—NORTH SEA—NETHERLANDS—
RIVER MAAS.—HARING VLIET.

(1.) Light-Buoy at Bieningen Channel Entrance.

THE Netherlands Government has given notice, dated 23rd October, 1886, that a light-buoy has been placed near Bieningen Channel Entrance, eastern side of Haring Vliet, River Maas:—

The light is a fixed white light.

The buoy (Bieningen No. 1 painted on it in black letters) and lantern are painted red.

Position, lat.  $51^{\circ} 46' 40''$  N., long.  $4^{\circ} 13' 15''$  E.

(2.) Hook of Holland Approach—Position of Fairway Buoy Altered.

Also, dated 23rd October, 1886, that the Fairway Buoy (chequered red and white and carrying a light) in the approach to Hook of Holland Canal, has been altered in position, and now lies with the lighthouse on the north mole bearing S.  $55^{\circ}$  E., distant  $3\frac{1}{2}$  miles.

Position, lat.  $52^{\circ} 0' 15''$  N., long.  $3^{\circ} 59' 55''$  E.

[The bearing is magnetic. Variation  $5\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$  Westerly in 1886.]

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 264.)—ENGLAND—EAST COAST.
YARMOUTH APPROACH.

(1.) Discontinuance of Kessingland Light, Fixed Red Light at Pakefield, and Alterations in Buoyage.

THE Trinity House, London, has given notice, that on 10th November, 1886, the light shown from Kessingland, to mark Old Pakefield Gatway, will be discontinued; and that in lieu thereof and on the same date, a light will be exhibited from a hut erected on the cliff, about 660 yards in a southerly direction from All Saints Church, Pakefield.

The new light will be a fixed red light, visible between the bearings of W.  $\frac{3}{4}$  N. and N.W.  $\frac{1}{2}$  W., embracing the space between E. Newcome and the (new) Pakefield Gatway Buoys, and marking the channel across Newcome Sand.

Position, lat.  $52^{\circ} 26' 50''$  N., long.  $1^{\circ} 44' 5''$  E.

Also, that coincidently with the exhibition of Pakefield Light, the following alterations will be made in the buoyage of Pakefield Channel:—

N.W. Newcome Buoy will be moved 4 cables S.S.W.  $\frac{3}{4}$  W., and be surmounted with staff and cage.

West Newcome Buoy will be a spherical buoy, painted red and white in horizontal stripes.

A black conical buoy, with staff and globe, will be placed 7 cables N.E. by N. from S.E. Newcome Buoy, and named Pakefield Gatway.

S.E. Newcome Buoy will be moved  $2\frac{1}{2}$  cables S.W. by S. from its present position.

East Barnard Buoy.—The top mark of this buoy will be removed.

South Newcome Buoy will be painted in vertical stripes instead of horizontal stripes, and the top mark will be removed.

Inner Shoal and West Barnard Buoys will be painted in chequers, and S.W. Barnard Buoy in vertical stripes.

NOTE.—West Scroby Buoy, Yarmouth Road, will shortly be moved one cable S.W. by W. from its present position.

Further notice will be given when the above alterations have been effected.

(2.) Flamborough Head to Coquet Island—Adoption of the Uniform System of Buoyage.

Also, with reference to Notice to Mariners, No. 123, of 22nd May, 1886, on the intention to re-arrange the buoyage from Flamborough Head to Coquet Island, in conformity with the Uniform System of Buoyage.

Information has been received, that the under-mentioned buoys are now in accordance with the Uniform System as follows:—

N.E. Coquet Buoy is now spherical, red and white in horizontal stripes, with staff and diamond.

Pan Bush Buoy is now conical, red.

Sand Spit Buoy is now conical, red.

Tees River Fairway Buoy is now spherical, black and white in horizontal stripes, with staff and diamond.

Salt Scar Buoy is now conical, black.

Tees River, Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 7, 8 Buoys are now conical, black.

[The bearings are magnetic, and those concerning the visibility of lights are given from seaward. Variation,  $16\frac{3}{4}^{\circ}$  Westerly in 1886.]

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Charnock Richard, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and fifty-eight pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the sixth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May, and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eleventh day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the consolidated chapelry and benefice (hereinafter called the benefice) of Saint Lleurwg, Hirwain, situate partly in the county of Glamorgan, and partly in the county of Brecon, and wholly in the diocese of Llandaff, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of two hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twentieth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also hereby grant and appropriate out of our said common fund to the said benefice of Saint Lleurwg, Hirwain, one capital sum of one thousand and five hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said benefice, according to plans and a specification approved or to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of two pounds and ten shillings per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said benefice of Saint Lleurwg, Hirwain: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient, in our opinion, to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of two hundred pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eleventh day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinatter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of South Tawton, in the county of Devon, and in the diocese of Exeter, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all those two pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments, together with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and now vested in us: To have and to hold the said two pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments, with their appurtenances, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that the said two pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments expressed to be hereby granted and conveyed shall be, and be taken to be, in lieu of, and in substitution for, a portion amounting to thirteen pounds per annum of the yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and sixty-five pounds, heretofore payable by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of South Tawton, under the authority of an instrument sealed by us on the seventeenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-four, and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-fifth day of the same month: And provided also, that the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said two pieces or parcels of land and hereditaments, for and in respect of the period intervening between the first day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, and the date of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this eleventh day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

Steving Union.—Parish of Hove.

To the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish of Hove, in the County of Sussex;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS the population of the said parish of Hove, according to the last Census, exceeds two thousand persons;

And whereas at a Meeting of the Vestry of the said parish, held, pursuant to public notice in that behalf, on Thursday, the 17th day of June, 1886, it was resolved,—

"That the Local Government Board be requested to issue an Order, directing that the Act passed on the 5th August, 1850 (13 and 14 Vict., c. 37), entitled 'An Act to prevent the holding of Vestry or other Meetings in Churches, and for regulating the Appointment of Vestry Clerks,' shall be applied to and put in force within the Parish of Hove, so far as such Act relates to the appointment of a Vestry Clerk."

"That the duties to be assigned to such Vestry Clerk, be those specified in the 7th Section of the Vestry Act, so far as the same are not performed by the Assistant Overseer under the Order of the Poor Law Commissioners dated the 25th September, 1838. The salary of such Vestry Clerk not to exceed £20 a year."

And whereas the Churchwardens of the said parish have made application in writing to us, the Local Government Board, pursuant to the above Resolution:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the powers given to us by the Statutes in that behalf, we hereby order as follows:—

ARTICLE I.—So much of the Act passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to prevent the holding of Vestry or other Meetings in Churches, and for regulating the Appointment of Vestry Clerks," as relates to the appointment of a Vestry Clerk, shall forthwith be applied to and be put in force within the said parish of Hove, and the provisions contained in Articles II, III, and IV of this Order shall apply to the Vestry Clerk for the time being appointed for that parish.

ARTICLE II.—The duties to be performed by the Vestry Clerk for the time being appointed under the provisions of the above-mentioned Act and of this Order shall be those mentioned in section 7 of that Act, except such of them as are assigned to the Assistant Overseer appointed for the said parish under the authority of the Order of the Poor Law Commissioners dated the twenty-fifth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight.

ARTICLE III.—The Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said parish shall pay to the Vestry Clerk a salary at the rate of twenty pounds per annum, or such other remuneration for the performance of the duties of that office as we may, with the consent of such person, from time to time direct.

ARTICLE IV.—Such remuneration, in the case of an annual salary, shall be considered as accruing from day to day, and be apportionable in respect of time accordingly, in pursuance of the provisions of "The Apportionment Act, 1870," and shall be paid quarterly on the usual quarter days in each year, namely, Michaelmas Day, Christmas Day, Lady Day, and Midsummer Day.

ARTICLE V.—A copy of this Order shall be published in the London Gazette by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the said parish.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this second day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

NOTICE is hereby given that the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Reading in the county of Berks, acting by the Council of the said borough under the Municipal Corporations Acts, the Public Health Act, 1875, and the several other public local and personal Acts relating to the said borough (hereinafter called "the Corporation"), intend to apply to Parliament in the ensuing Session for an Act for all or some of the following purposes, that is to say:—

1. To alter, extend, and enlarge for municipal, sanitary, local government, highway, educational, poor law, and all other purposes (except Parliamentary purposes), the boundaries of the municipal borough of Reading, in the county of Berks, and of the urban sanitary district of the said borough (hereinafter called "the existing borough"), and to include in and incorporate with the borough and urban sanitary district as proposed to be extended (hereinafter called "the extended borough"), in addition to the existing borough, the parishes and places, or parts of parishes and places, hereinafter described, or some of them, or some part or parts thereof respectively, all in the county of Berks, and which parishes and places or parts thereof are hereinafter called "the added area," that is to say:—

The whole of the hamlet of Whitley in the parish of Saint Giles, Reading;

The whole of the tithing of Southcot in the parish of Saint Mary, Reading;

So much of the parish or place called the parish or liberty of Earley as lies within a line drawn from the centre of the River Thames at the north-eastern corner of the boundary of the existing borough, to and along the east side of the towpath and footway on the eastern side of the River Kennet as far as the south-westerly side of the South Eastern Railway, thence along the south-westerly side of the said railway as far as the westerly side of the road in the said parish or liberty of Earley in which Saint Peter's Church is situate, and thence in a southerly direction along that side of the same road to the Wokingham-road, and across that road to and along the westerly side of the approach road leading into Whiteknights Park as far as the south-westerly side of the road which skirts the northern boundary of the said park, thence along the south-westerly side of the last-mentioned road in a westerly direction as far as the boundary between the said parish or liberty of Earley and the said hamlet of Whitley.

So much and such parts of the parish of Shinfield as comprises the lands situate in that parish which belong to the Corporation and are held by them for the purposes of the disposal of sewage and as part of their sewage farm, and including a piece or pieces of land now belonging to Richard Benyon, and bounded on the east by Foudry Brook, and on the north and south by the said lands belonging to the Corporation.

So much and such parts of the parish of Burghfield as are situate on the east side of the Berks and Hants Extension Railway of the Great Western Railway Company, and on the north side of the bridge carrying the road from Small Mead over the said Extension Railway and of the eastern approach to such bridge.

So much of the parish of Tilehurst as is comprised within a line drawn from a point on the southern side of the Great Western Railway where the same crosses the western boundary of the existing borough along the southern side of the said railway to the western side of a road or lane called Scours Lane, thence in a southerly direction to and across Oxford-road and along the south side of the said road in an easterly direction to and in a southerly direction along a ditch or fence which passes through Penhams Shaw to the point where that ditch or fence meets the boundary of the ecclesiastical district of St. George, Tilehurst, thence along such boundary in a south-easterly direction to Grovelands-road, and along the south-westerly side of the same road to and across Tilehurst-road, and in an easterly direction along the southern side of Tilehurst-road to the angle in that road at or near the entrance lodge to Prospect Park, thence in a straight line across that park in a southerly direction to the southern side of the Bath-road at the easternmost point where the boundary of the tithing of Southcot leaves such road.

2. To provide for the merging in the extended borough of the district of the Reading Union Rural Sanitary Authority, and for the dissolution of such district and authority, and for the transfer to the Corporation of all the jurisdiction and powers of that authority, and to detach and sever such portions of the added area as are situate within the respective districts and jurisdictions of the Wokingham Union Rural Sanitary Authority and the Bradfield Union Rural Sanitary Authority, and of any other sanitary, highway, educational, or other authority now exercising any jurisdiction or authority within the added area from the districts and jurisdictions of such authorities respectively, and to provide for the repair and maintenance of the roads, streets, and highways therein, and to make all such further and other provision as may be necessary for carrying into effect the objects and purposes aforesaid.

3. To alter, re-arrange, and define the number and boundaries of the wards in the extended borough, and to provide for the determining of the boundaries of such wards by a commissioner to be appointed for that purpose or otherwise as may be prescribed by the intended Act.

4. To fix and determine the number of the Aldermen and Councillors, and to apportion them among the several wards in the extended borough, and to provide for the election, time of going out of office, and rotation of the aldermen and councillors, or to make provision in the intended Act for the doing and determining of the aforesaid matters, and to make all such other provision with reference thereto as may be necessary or convenient or as the intended Act may contain.

5. To provide for the deposit of a map or maps of the extended borough, and to make copies thereof evidence, and to authorize charges to be made for inspection or copies of or extracts from any such map.

6. To extend and apply to and throughout the extended borough with or without alteration or variation as may be defined or provided by the intended Act, all or some of the powers, rights, privileges, jurisdiction, authorities, and duties of the Corporation acting in execution of the Municipal Corporations Acts, the Public Health Acts, and the Acts for the time being affecting the Corporation as a municipal body and a sanitary authority respectively, and all the special Acts, Orders, and Charters relating to the Corporation, and of their Officers, clerks, and servants, and of the Borough Court of Quarter Sessions, and of the Justices of the Peace, Recorder, Clerk of the Peace, Coroner, and constables of the existing borough, and to make applicable to the extended borough, either with or without alterations or amendments, all charters, grants, enactments, bye-laws, regulations, and orders in force within or applicable to the existing borough.

7. To confer upon the owners and occupiers of property and residents within the extended borough, all such rights of voting and other franchises, rights, and privileges, and exemptions as are now vested in or enjoyed by the owners and occupiers of property and residents of or within the existing borough.

8. To vest in the Corporation, for the benefit of the extended borough, all estates, property, funds, tolls, or other revenues, rights, and privileges, vested in the Corporation for the benefit of the existing borough, but subject to the debts and liabilities affecting the same, and to make provision for the apportionment and discharge of such debts and liabilities.

9. To make provision for the repayment and discharge of all or such part of the moneys borrowed and now owing by the local and other authorities and bodies having any jurisdiction, rights, or powers in or over the added area as the Corporation may be required to repay and discharge either out of the funds, rates, or revenues of the extended borough, or otherwise, as the intended Act may prescribe.

10. To empower the Corporation and any such local or other authority or body as aforesaid to enter into and carry into effect agreements as to the adjustment of liabilities, or otherwise in respect to any of the matters aforesaid, and to confirm and give effect to any such agreement or agreements which may have been or may be made with reference thereto.

11. To exempt lands, houses, hereditaments, and property within the added area from all county, police, sewer, highway, and other rates now leviable therein, and from the jurisdiction of the Justices of the Peace, and of any coroner for the county of Berks, and of any sanitary authority, highway board, or surveyor of highways, school board, or other authority exercising jurisdiction within the added area, and to transfer to the Corporation all property, real and personal, of those bodies or persons respectively within such added area, and, if deemed expedient, to put an end to all or any of the bye-laws and regulations in force within the added area.

12. To detach or sever such part of the said parish or liberty of Earley as is intended to be included in the extended borough from the remainder of the said parish or liberty, and from the parish of Sonning, and also to detach or sever such part of the parish of Shinfield as is intended to be included in the extended borough from the remainder of the same parish, and also to detach or sever such parts respectively from the Wokingham Poor Law Union, and also to detach or sever such part of the parish of Tilehurst as is intended to be included in the extended borough from the remainder of the same parish, and from the Bradfield Poor Law Union, and, if thought fit, to constitute the detached portions separate parishes for all purposes (other than ecclesiastical purposes), or to make the same respectively part of some other parish, and to add such detached portions to the Reading Poor Law Union, and to apply to the Guardians of the Poor of the said Reading Union as proposed to be extended to the exclusion of any other board of guardians all the powers, duties, rights, and jurisdiction exercisable by or attaching to Boards of Guardians, and to alter or re-arrange the districts of the superintendent registrars and the registrars of births, deaths, and marriages, of the said Wokingham Poor Law Union, the said Bradfield Poor Law Union, and the said Reading Poor Law Union respectively. And to provide for the settlement and adjustment of all doubts or differences, and the apportionment of any rights, powers, and liabilities that may arise in relation to the premises.

13. To constitute the extended borough a school district for the purposes of the "Elementary Education Act, 1870," and the Acts amending the same, and to alter or abolish the jurisdiction of any school board under the said Acts within the added area, and if thought fit to dissolve any such board, and to transfer all or any of the lands, buildings, and other property, jurisdiction, rights, powers, liabilities, and obligations of any such school board in respect of the added area to the school board for the extended borough, and to confer on the school board for the extended borough all necessary powers with reference to schools within the extended borough.

14. To provide that all or any bye-laws and regulations made under and by virtue of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, and the Acts amending the same, and in force in the existing borough, shall be in force within the extended borough, and that all or any bye-laws and regulations made by any School Board having jurisdiction outside the existing borough and within the added area, shall cease to be of any effect in the added area.

15. To confer upon the Corporation and the Guardians of the Poor of the Reading Union respectively, such powers (if any), and to impose upon them such duties or responsibilities (if any), as may be necessary or may be deemed expedient with respect to present and future pauper lunatics belonging to or within the added area.

16. To extend the limits within which the Corporation are authorized to supply water, and to include within such limits such parts of the added area as are not already comprised within such limits, and to authorize the Corporation to exercise within such extended limits all such powers with respect to the supply of water, and with respect to rates, rents, and charges, and otherwise in relation thereto, as they are now authorized to exercise within their present water limits, subject to such alterations (if any) as may be prescribed by the intended Act.

17. To provide that after the passing of the intended Act, all such streets or roads in the added area as shall be thereby prescribed, shall become highways repairable by the inhabitants at large, and to make other provisions with respect to streets and roads within the added area.

18. To alter and amend section 31 of the Reading Gas Act, 1880, and to vary the charges prescribed by that section, and to enact that the borough referred to in that section shall mean the extended borough, and if necessary to otherwise alter and amend the said Act, and to alter and amend the Reading Gas Act, 1862, and the Reading Gas Act, 1870.

19. To confer further powers on the Corporation with respect to sewerage and drainage and to prohibit the use, without the consent of the Corporation, of sewers belonging to or under the control of the Corporation by any body, or person, other than the Corporation and owners and occupiers of premises within the existing borough or the extended borough, and to provide against or prohibit interference with sewers and drains belonging to or under the control of the Corporation.

20. To authorize or confirm the purchase by agreement by the Corporation of certain lands situate in the hamlet of Whitley, in the parish of St. Giles, Reading, and in the parish of Burghfield, all in the county of Berks, and lying on the east side of and adjoining the Berks and Hants Extension of the Great Western Railway, and bounded on all other sides by the sewage farm of the Corporation, and of certain other lands in the parish of Shinfield, in the same county, bounded on the east by the Foundry Brook, on the north and south by lands belonging to the Corporation, and on the west by the road which passes along the western side of the said lands belonging to the Corporation and forming part of their sewage farm; and to empower the Corporation to use the said lands for the disposal of sewage or for other purposes connected with their said sewage farm.

21. To empower the Reading Cemetery Company to sell, and the Corporation to purchase, acquire, and hold the undertaking and property of the said Company, and to authorize agreements between the Corporation and the said Company with reference thereto, and to confirm or give effect to any agreement between the Corporation and the said Company which may have been already entered into, or may be entered into prior to the passing of the intended Act, and to make such provision as may be necessary or expedient to constitute the Corporation a Burial Board and the extended borough a Burial Board District, and to enable the Corporation to carry on the business of the said Company, and to use as a cemetery or burial ground the lands recently purchased by the said Company for that purpose, which said lands are situate in the liberty of Earley in the parish of Sonning, in the county of Berks, and are bounded on the north by the high road leading from Reading to London, on the south by the road leading from Reading to Wokingham, known as the Wokingham Road or the Tuns Lane, on the west by the existing cemetery, and on the east by a new road lately formed called Church Road or Vicarage Road, and to provide for the application and distribution of the purchase money, the discharge of the debts and liabilities, the distribution of assets, and the winding up and dissolution of the said Company, and to confer upon the Corporation and the said Company all necessary powers for or in relation to the matters aforesaid, and for the purposes aforesaid to alter, extend, amend, or repeal all or some of the provisions of the Acts (Local and Personal), 5 and 6 Vict. cap. 109, and 14 and 15 Vict. cap. 9, and any other Act relating to the said Company.

22. To empower the Reading Cattle Market Company to sell, and the Corporation to purchase, acquire, and hold the undertaking and property franchises, tolls, stallages, rights, powers, privileges, and authorities of the said Company, and to authorize agreements between the Corporation and the said Company with reference thereto, and to confirm or give effect to any agreement between the Corporation and the said Company, which may have been already entered into, or which may be entered into prior to the passing of the intended Act, and to make such provisions as may be necessary or expedient to enable the Corporation to carry on the business of the said Company, and to provide for the application and distribution of the purchase money, the discharge of the debts and liabilities, the distribution of assets, and the winding up and dissolution of the said Company, and to confer upon the Corporation and the said Company all necessary powers for or in relation to the matters aforesaid, and for the purposes aforesaid to alter, extend, amend, or repeal all or some of the provisions of the "Reading Cattle Market Act, 1850," and any other Act relating to the said Company.

23. To make further provision and confer further powers for the management, protection, and regulation of the said market and all other markets in the borough, and of the said cemetery or any other cemetery or burial ground of the Corporation, and for the punishment of persons committing offences therein or infringing any bye-laws, rules, or regulations relating thereto respectively.

24. To authorize the Corporation to execute and maintain the following works, or some of them, in the parishes and places of St. Giles, Reading, Earley and Sonning, all in the county of Berks, that is to say:

To take down and rebuild, and to widen and improve the bridge over the navigation cut on the River Kennet known as Silly Bridge, and to improve and alter the levels of the approach thereto from King's-road.

To repair and renew the embankment or campsheathing, or to construct a new embankment or river wall or campsheathing along the bank on the south side of the said navigation cut, and of the River Kennet, and to repair and renew the towpath and footway along the same between the western end of the said cut and the mouth of the River Kennet,

And to construct all proper embankments, walls, fences, footways, stairs, roads, approaches, buildings, works, and conveniences connected with or necessary for the use of the aforesaid works, or any of them.

25. To empower the Corporation to purchase or acquire by compulsion or agreement, and to hold lands, houses, buildings, and hereditaments in the said parishes or places of St. Giles, Reading, and Earley, for the purposes of the intended improvements, and for other purposes connected therewith, and to purchase part only of any property which may be required for the purposes of the intended Act, without being subject to the liability imposed by the 92nd section of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and to exempt the Corporation from the provisions of the last-mentioned Act as to the sale of superfluous lands.

26. To stop up, appropriate, alter, or divert, temporarily or permanently, all streets, canals, bridges, sewers, mains, and pipes within the borough, which it may be necessary or convenient to stop up, alter, or divert in the execution of the said works.

27. To empower the Corporation and the Conservators of the River Thames to enter into and carry into effect agreements with reference to the execution and maintenance of all or any of the said works, and to make provision for the transfer to the Corporation of any existing powers, rights, duties, liabilities, and obligations of the said Conservators which it may be necessary or desirable to transfer to the Corporation in order to enable them to execute and maintain the said works, and to provide for the contribution by the said Conservators towards the expenses of such works, and to confer other powers on the Corporation and the said Conservators in respect of the matters aforesaid, and to confirm or give effect to any agreement which may have been or may be entered into between the Corporation and the said Conservators with respect to such matters.

28. To provide that for any purpose connected with the conservancy of rivers and the prevention of floods, no part of the River Kennet or of the River Kennet Navigation shall at any time be deemed to be part of the River Thames, or of the Rivers Thames and Isis.

29. To amend the provisions of the Reading Corporation Act, 1881 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1881"), relating to buildings, and to exempt certain buildings and erections from some of such provisions.

30. To confer further powers on the Corporation for the making and enforcing of bye-laws, rules, and regulations, and to enable the Corporation from time to time to make, enforce, vary, or rescind bye-laws, rules, and regulations for all or any of the purposes mentioned in this notice, and to provide for the imposition and recovery of penalties for breach or non-observance of any of the provisions of the intended Act, or of any existing Act in force within the borough, or of any bye-laws, rules, and regulations which may be made thereunder or now existing within the borough.

31. To make further provision and confer further powers on the Corporation with reference to the recovery of private improvement expenses, and for that purpose to alter and amend or repeal some of the provisions of the Act of 1881, and of the Public Health Act, 1875, with reference thereto.

32. To enable the Corporation to provide, pay for, or contribute towards the payment of bands of music, free concerts, lectures, entertainments, exhibitions, performances, and amusements for the recreation of the inhabitants of the extended borough in the town halls and other public buildings or public walks or pleasure grounds or recreation grounds or elsewhere in the said borough, and to provide all proper and necessary apparatus for those purposes.

33. To make further provision and to confer further powers upon the Corporation for or with respect to the regulation or obstruction of traffic in streets or footways; street musicians and bands and processions in streets; and the application to omnibuses and other vehicles of the provisions of the "Towns Police Clauses Act, 1847," with respect to hackney carriages; and to empower the Corporation to make and enforce bye-laws as to carts standing or plying for hire, and of cattle drovers, and as to the regulation of, and prevention of overcrowding in omnibuses and similar carriages, and to render applicable to tricycles and other velocipedes the provisions of section 72 of the Act of 1881.

34. To empower the Council to appoint out of their own number such and so many committees as they think fit for the execution of any of the purposes of the intended Act or any Act or Provisional Order relating to and in force within the borough, and to delegate to any such Committee any of the powers of the Corporation which may be deemed advisable for such purposes, and to enable such committees to appoint sub-committees of their members to execute and discharge any of their duties.

35. To alter and enlarge the present borrowing powers of the Corporation, and to enable them for all or any of the purposes of the intended Act, to borrow or raise further moneys by the creation of capital stock, or otherwise, on the security of the borough fund, borough rate, district fund, general district rate, and other rates, tolls, revenues, estates, lands, undertakings, and properties of the Corporation, and if thought fit, to empower the Corporation to make, levy, and recover rates and assessments for the purposes of the intended Act, and to alter existing rates and assessments, and to grant exemptions from the payment of rates and assessments.

36. To confer certain powers upon the Trustees and Managers of the Reading Savings Bank and the depositors in that Bank with reference to the investment of moneys in Reading Corporation Stock, and to make other provision with reference thereto.

37. To empower the Corporation to advance and lend moneys from time to time to the Reading School Board and the Guardians of the Poor of the Reading Union, and to such other authorities and bodies as may be prescribed or authorized by the intended Act.

38. To vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would, or might in any way prevent, or interfere with, or delay the accomplishment of any of the objects of the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

39. To alter, amend, extend, enlarge, or repeal, so far as may be necessary, the powers and provisions, or some of them, of the Acts hereinbefore mentioned, and also of the Acts, local and personal, 7 Geo. IV. caps. 33 and 56; 5 and 6 Will., IV. cap. 99; 2 and 3 Vic., cap. 40, and any other Act or Order affecting the Corporation or the Conservators of the River Thames, or the Reading Cemetery Company, or the Reading Cattle Market Company.

40. And notice is hereby given, that on or before the 30th day of November instant, a map in duplicate, showing as well the present boundaries of the said municipal borough and urban sanitary district, as the boundaries of the proposed extension, will be deposited with the Town Clerk of the borough, as such Town Clerk and as Clerk of such urban sanitary district, at his office, situate in the Municipal Buildings, Friar-street, Reading, and also that plans and sections of the proposed works, and plans showing the lands and property proposed to be taken by compulsion under the authority of the intended Act, and a book of reference to such plans, and a copy of this Notice, as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the same day be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Berks, at his office at Abingdon, in the said county, and that on or before the same day copies of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference, as relates to the several parishes hereinbefore mentioned, and a copy of this Notice will also be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish at his residence.

47. And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 21st day of December next, printed copies of the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 12th day of November, 1886.

In Parliament.—Session 1887.

Croydon Corporation.

(Power to Corporation of Croydon to purchase the undertaking of The Croydon Commercial Gas and Coke Company; Dissolution of the Company; to confirm an agreement to supply gas in the Borough of Croydon and neighbourhood; Power to supply gas in bulk; By-laws and incidental provisions; To grant annuities; To raise money; To issue stock; To levy gas rates or charges; Classification of Securities; Incorporation and amendment of Acts and other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Croydon, in the county of Surrey, acting as the Urban Sanitary Authority of the said borough (hereinafter called "the Corporation"), for leave to bring in a Bill, and to pass an Act for the following, or some of the following, among other purposes (that is to say):—

To authorize and empower the Corporation to purchase by agreement, and to provide for the transfer to and vesting in the Corporation of all or any part of the undertaking, works, lands, and property (real and personal) of the Croydon Commercial Gas and Coke Company (hereinafter called "the Company"), now belonging or which at the date of the transfer may belong to the Company, and also all property, powers, rights, and privileges, and authorities which now belong, or at the time of the said transfer, may belong to the Company, in connection with or in relation to their undertaking, or any part or parts of such undertaking, works, lands, or property, powers, rights, privileges, and authorities, for the price or consideration, and upon such terms and conditions as have been or may be agreed upon between the Company and the Corporation, or as may be expressed and provided for by the Bill, and to authorize the Company to sell and transfer their undertaking, works, lands, property, powers, and rights, or such part or parts thereof accordingly, and, if need be, to dissolve the Company and make provisions for winding up the affairs of the Company, and the distribution of their funds and effects as may be agreed upon or defined by the Bill.

To empower the Corporation to carry on the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, and to sell and supply gas within the limits hereinafter defined, and to have and exercise all or any of the powers, rights, authorities, and privileges of the Company in relation to their undertaking, in as full and ample a manner as the Company may or can lawfully exercise the same, and also to have, exercise, and enjoy all powers and rights usually conferred upon gas companies or sanitary and other authorities supplying gas, and particularly power to maintain, improve, alter, and enlarge the gas works of the Company, to be acquired under the intended Act; to empower the Corporation to manufacture, sell, and supply gas within the limits hereinafter defined; to break up sewers, drains, mains, pipes, streets, roads, and places, and temporarily or permanently to stop up or interfere with streets, roads, paths, highways and passages within the limits of supply; to lay, repair, and maintain mains, pipes, and other works: to manufacture, sell, let, hire, or otherwise deal with meters, fittings, stoves, and other apparatus, articles, and things, and to exempt all such fittings and things from distress, or from execution under any legal process, to prevent the same being disposed of without the consent of the Corporation, and for their remaining the property of the Corporation until paid for, and to authorize the Corporation to enter upon any premises and to remove any such fittings or things, and discontinue the supply of gas to the premises until such fittings and things are paid for; to acquire, hold, and use patent rights and licenses; to sell, supply, and distribute gas at such price or prices, and upon such terms, and subject to any conditions which may be defined by the Bill; and upon the lands and property of the said Company intended to be acquired as aforesaid to manufacture, sell, store, and dispose of gas, coal, coke, tar, and the residual products arising in the manufacture of gas; to supply gas for public and private purposes, and for lighting the public and other streets, thoroughfares, passages, and places within the limits to be prescribed in and by the Bill. The limits within which it is intended to authorize the Corporation to supply gas will or may comprise the whole or any part of the borough of Croydon, and the parishes of Addington and Sanderstead, and parts of the parishes of Beddington and Coulsdon, all within the said county of Surrey.

To make special provision for the protection of the works, property, and gas supply of the Corporation, and for defining and regulating such supply, and for preventing frauds and abuses thereof, and for imposing penalties in respect of all or any such matters.

To prohibit the fixing of tubes or pipes to any of the mains or pipes of the Corporation for certain purposes, except with the consent of the Corporation.

To enable the Corporation from time to time to supply gas to any urban or rural sanitary authority, or other public body, or any person or persons, in bulk or otherwise, beyond the limits of the gas supply of the Corporation, upon terms to be agreed or prescribed or authorized by the Bill, and to enable such authority, body, or person or persons to enter into agreements with the Corporation.

To require notice to be given to the Corporation by consumers before quitting any premises supplied with gas, and in the case of bankruptcy of consumers.

To exempt the Corporation from obligation to supply gas to part only of a dwelling-house, and to require separate pipes to be laid in each house supplied by them with gas.

To enable the Corporation to sell, let on lease, or otherwise dispose of any lands which may be acquired by them under the powers of the intended Act, and any of the lands or property or any portion of the undertaking of the Company when acquired by the Corporation which it may be deemed to be expedient to sell, let on lease, or otherwise dispose of.

To enable the Corporation to levy, and to demand, take, and recover rates, rents, and charges in respect of the supply of gas and of meters, fittings, stoves, and other articles, and to alter from time to time any rates, rents, and charges, and to apply such or any rates, rents, and charges, and any money belonging to, or under the control of the Corporation, to all or any of the objects or purposes of the intended Act, and for the general purposes of the Corporation.

To make better provision for the recovery of rates and rents due to or recoverable by the Corporation.

To empower the Corporation for any purposes of the Bill to apply their corporate funds and revenues, and to authorize the Corporation to issue annuities, terminable or perpetual, to raise money by mortgage, bond, debentures, debenture stock, or otherwise for any of the purposes of the intended Act, upon the security of the undertaking, rates, revenues, and property which they may acquire under the intended Act, and of the Borough Rate and Borough Fund of the said borough, and of the District Rate and District Fund of the said borough, and any other rate or rates levied within the said borough, and of the estates, rates, and revenues, and property of the Corporation or any of them, or any part or parts thereof respectively, and to make such other provisions with regard to the issue and conversion of any of the before-mentioned securities, and for the classification of the same, or any other securities, as may be deemed expedient.

To authorize, confirm, and give effect to any agreement made between the Corporation and the Company, in relation to the matters aforesaid.

To enable the Corporation, if they think fit, to provide a reserve fund in connection with their gas undertaking.

To provide for and define the application of profits arising from the gas undertaking in the hands of the Corporation.

To empower the Corporation to make and enforce bye-laws, rules, and regulations in relation to all or any purposes of the Bill, and to exempt all or any such bye-laws and regulations of the Corporation from the provisions of "The Public Health Act, 1875," or any other Act, with respect to the confirmation, allowance, or approval of bye-laws or regulations.

To attach penalties, and, if thought fit, continuing penalties, to all acts and things done, omitted, or suffered in contravention to the provisions of the Bill or any bye-law of the Corporation.

To vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which might in any way impede or interfere with any of the objects of the Bill, and to confer upon the Corporation and others all such other rights, powers, and privileges, and make all such other provisions as may be necessary or expedient for carrying out such several objects.

To enable the Corporation to enter into and carry into effect contracts or agreements with any sanitary or other authority, body, or person within the limits of supply of the said intended Act for the supply of gas or residual products, and to enable such authority, body, or person to contract and agree with the Corporation for any of the objects and purposes of the Bill.

The Bill will or may incorporate with itself all or some of the powers and provisions of "The Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847," and "The Gasworks Clauses Act, 1871," "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Companies Clauses Acts, 1863 and 1869," and alter and amend, and if necessary, repeal, either wholly or in part, or re-enact and incorporate with the Bill in extenso or by reference and with such variations, modifications, and exceptions as may be deemed expedient, and to make applicable to the Borough, all or some of the provisions of the Acts following, or any other Acts relating to the Company, viz., "The Croydon Gas Act, 1866," and "The Croydon Gas Act, 1877," the "Croydon Corporation Act, 1884," "The Municipal Corporation Acts," "The Public Health Acts," "The Local Loans Act, 1875, and all other Acts amending or extending those Acts, or any of the provisions thereof, and any other Act which it may be necessary to repeal, alter, or amend.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 10th day of November, 1886.

Weymouth and Melcombe Regis Corporation. (New Pier at Weymouth; Street Improvements; Providing for transfer to Corporation as part of their Corporate Property maintainable out of the Rates of the Pile Pier, Markets, and Harbour; Widening and extension of Pile Pier, if and when so acquired; Improvement of Harbour; Transfer to Corporation by Agreement of Undertakings of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis Gas Company, and the Company of Proprietors of the Weymouth Waterworks; Parks and Public Gardens; Public Band; Infectious Diseases; Fishing; Bathing; Licensing; Matters of Police; Purchase of Lands compulsorily and by Agreement; Sale of Lands; Levying of Tolls, Rates, and Charges; Alteration of Pile Pier, Tolls, Rates, and Charges; Consolidation of Debts; Borrowing Money; Corporation Stock; Alteration of Sinking Funds; Bye-laws; Incorporation of Acts; Repeal and Amendment of Acts.)

A PPLICATION is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session thereof by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, in the county of Dorset (hereinafter referred to as the Corporation), for leave to bring in a Bill for the following, or some of the following, among other purposes, namely:—

1. To enable the Corporation to make and maintain in the parish of Melcombe Regis, in the county of Dorset, and in the bed of the sea, a Pier, Jetty, or Landing place, commencing at the wall on the east side of the Esplanade opposite to and about the centre of the Imperial Burdon Hotel and extending 534 yards or thereabouts in an east south-east direction into the sea. Together with all such walls, piles, groynes, pier-head, floating barges or dummies, approaches, landing stages and places, moorings, buoys, toll houses and gates, roads, buildings, erections, cranes, lifts, sewers, drains, and other appliances as may be deemed necessary or expedient.

2. To enable the Corporation to erect, construct, and maintain, on or near to the said pier, pavilions, or assembly rooms, concert, lecture, reading, refreshment, and retiring rooms, lavatories, water closets, baths, and other buildings and conveniences.

3. To enable the Corporation to make, alter, and enforce bye-laws and regulations for the management, use, and protection of the said pier and works, and the property connected therewith, and to define the limits within which the powers of the pier master, and other officers of the Corporation, may be exercised, and to constitute those limits for all police, licensing, and other magisterial purposes, a part of the borough.

4. To empower the Corporation to levy and take tolls, rates, rents, and charges, for, or in respect of the said pier buildings and works, from, or in respect of all persons and vessels using the same, and all persons, goods, and luggage, embarked or disembarked thereat, and to set apart and appropriate for any purpose, and subject to special rates, rents, and charges, any part or parts of the pier buildings and works.

5. To empower the Corporation to let from year to year, or demise for any term, the said pier buildings, works, and property, or any part or parts thereof, or the tolls, rates, charges, or rents derivable therefrom respectively.

6. To enable the Corporation to make and maintain wholly within the county of Dorset, and the borough of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, the following works, that is to say:—

No. 1. The extension wholly in the parish of Radipole of "The Esplanade" commencing at the north end of Brunswick-terrace, and terminating at the north-east boundary stone of the borough.

No. 2. The widening of Trinity-road and North Quay-road, on the north side commencing in Trinity-road, at a point westward of and about 155 feet distant from the centre line of the Weymouth Bridge, and terminating in North Quay-road, at a point about 130 feet from the said point of commencement.

No. 3. The widening of North Quay-road on the south side, commencing at the north-west corner of New-road, and terminating in the road called West Plain at a point about 233 feet from the said point of commencement, and about 120 feet from the retaining wall of High West-street.

No. 4. The widening of Boot-lane on the east side, for a distance of about 190 feet, commencing at the junction thereof with High West-street, and terminating at the southern side of Pastoral-place.

No. 5. A retaining wall to north side of Chapelhay-street, commencing about 90 feet westward of West-row, and terminating about 74 feet westward of Havelock-place.

No. 6. The widening and improving of Cove-row on the north side thereof by the erection of a wall, to be built in the bed of the harbour, for a distance of about 105 feet, commencing at a point about 50 feet east of the landing steps at the east end of Trinity-road, and terminating about 20 feet west of the north-west corner of "The New Rooms" Inn, and

No. 7. Also on the south side for a distance of about 70 feet, commencing at the north-east corner of Trinity-street, and terminating in Cove-row, about 55 feet from the north corner of "The Old Rooms" Inn.

No. 8. The widening and improving of Cove-street, at the south-east corner for a distance of about 50 feet by the removal of premises at the corner of Cove-street and Hope-square at the east side thereof.

No. 9. The widening and improving of Hills-lane, on the south side thereof, commencing at the north end of Horsford-street, and terminating at the junction of Horsford-street with Barrack-road.

The foregoing works, No. 2 to No. 9, both inclusive, will be wholly in the parish of Weymouth.

No. 10. The widening of the West-parade in the parish of Melcombe Regis, on the west side thereof, commencing at the junction of Gloucester-street with Park-street, and terminating at the junction of West-parade with Little George-street. All such cuttings, embankments, walls, piles, arches, drains, sewers, roadways, footways, approaches and conveniences, as may be deemed requisite or expedient in connection with the said respective works or any of them.

7. To enable the Corporation to provide and place on and near to "The Esplanade" covered shelters for the protection of the public against wind and rain.

8. To enable the Corporation to lay out, and plant, drain, and fence the north bank of "The Nothe" and to provide thereon such shelters as aforesaid.

9. To empower the Corporation if they think fit to constitute the existing pier in the borough, known as the Pile Pier and the markets of the Corporation, and the harbour of the borough, and town of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, or any one or more of those undertakings, part of the property of the Corporation (in their capacity as either the Municipal or Urban Sanitary Authority) chargeable to and maintainable by and out of the borough fund and borough rate or district fund and general district rate of the borough, and to constitute, if they think fit, the revenues derivable from those several undertakings a part of the said borough fund and district fund, or either of them, and to confer on the Corporation further powers for and in relation to their use and management.

10. To authorize the Corporation if they exercise the powers of the last paragraph as to the said pier:—

(1.) To widen the approach to the same on the north side, commencing in the Esplanade at the north corner of the Alexandra Gardens, and terminating at the entrance to the said pier as proposed to be widened.

(2.) To widen the said pier on the north side thereof, for the whole length thereof.

The said two works will be wholly in the said parish of Melcombe Regis.

(3.) To extend the said pier into the sea for a distance of 600 feet or thereabouts in a north-east direction, commencing in the bed of the sea at the present termination of the said pier.

- (4.) All such walls, piers, groynes, pierheads, dummies, approaches, landing stages and places, mooring buoys, toll houses and gates, roads, buildings, erections, cranes, lifts, sewers, drains and other appliances, as may be deemed necessary or expedient for the foregoing works or any of them.

And the Bill will or may enable the Corporation to exercise with respect to the said pier, when so acquired, and to the widening and extension thereof, the powers stated in the foregoing paragraphs of this notice, numbered respectively 2, 3, and 4, and will or may alter the existing tolls, rates, and charges leviable at the said pier.

11. To define the limits of the said harbour as extending from the south-east boundary of the borough near Binleaves Rocks, in the parish of Wyke Regis, to the north end of the Portland outer breakwater, and from thence to the north-east boundary stone of the borough near the sluice on the Preston-road, in the parish of Radipole; and to empower the Corporation to dredge, deepen, and improve the same or any part or parts thereof within those limits, and to underpin, pile, or otherwise strengthen and improve the walls and foundations of the quays and harbours and of the bridge thereover.

12. To transfer to and vest in, or provide for the transfer to and the vesting in, the Corporation of the undertaking, lands, works, and easements of the Weymouth and Melcombe Regis Gas Company, and the undertaking, lands, works, easements and waters of the Company of Proprietors of the Weymouth Waterworks, and of all the real and personal property, rights, powers, privileges, and authorities of those two Companies, upon such terms and conditions, and at such period or periods as may be agreed on between the Corporation and the two Companies respectively, and to provide for the discharge of the debts and liabilities, the distribution of the assets and the winding up and dissolution of those two Companies respectively, and to confer on them and on the Corporation all powers (including powers to make and alter contracts and agreements) which may be deemed expedient for or in relation to the matters aforesaid.

13. To enable the Corporation to carry on the said undertakings or either of them if and when so respectively acquired, and to supply gas and water, or either, as the case may be, within the limits of the Acts of the respective Companies, and to exercise within those limits respectively, all the rights, powers, privileges, and authorities of the respective Companies, subject to such alterations, if any, as the Bill may define or Parliament may prescribe, and all such further powers, rights, privileges, and authorities as may be deemed expedient for or in relation to the foregoing matters, and to make, levy, and recover rates, rents, and charges for and in relation to such supply, and to alter existing rates, rents, and charges.

14. To enable the Corporation on the one hand, and any Company, Local Authority, or person within or beyond the limits of the said Acts of the said Companies, respectively on the other hand to enter into and fulfil contracts and agreements for the supply by the Corporation of water and gas, or either of them, in bulk or otherwise, to such Local Authorities, Company, or person respectively, and to confer upon them respectively all necessary powers for the purposes aforesaid, and to enable such Local Authorities to borrow money and to levy rates for those purposes, and to defray the expenses to be incurred by them in respect of such supply, out of any rates which they may from time to time be authorized respectively to levy.

15. To empower the Corporation on certain occasions to close the whole or any part or parts of any parks, public gardens, or open spaces belonging to the Corporation, and to make charges for admission thereto, and to make and enforce bye-laws and regulations with respect to the times, modes and conditions of, and the payment for the user of the same, and the behaviour of persons frequenting the same, and for securing the preservation thereof, and of the property of the Corporation therein.

16. To empower the Corporation to make grants, annual or otherwise, for or towards the support of a public band for the borough, and to make and enforce regulations in reference to the performances of such band and the admission of the public thereto.

17. To make further provisions with respect to the prevention of infectious diseases, the removal of infected persons, and the supplying, inspecting and destroying of unwholesome or unsound articles of food or drink, the disinfection of premises and articles, the procuring of accommodation for the persons occupying the said premises, the providing of nurses, and the retention, removal, and burial of corpses.

18. To make further provision for the good government and improvement of the borough, the prevention of nuisances, obstructions, and offences therein, and especially with respect to the following matters, that is to say:—

The controul and regulation of fishing in the tidal waters of "The Backwater."

The licensing and regulating of bands of music, bathing machines, and boats and their proprietors attendants and crews, boatmen, porters, cabdrivers, omnibus drivers and conductors, hawkers, news-vendors, shoeblocks, messengers, and Commissioners.

The controlling and regulating the use of bicycles, tricycles, and other like mechanical contrivances.

The controul and regulation of the use of the sands, and of bathing in and adjacent to the borough.

The maintenance and improvement of "The Swannery."

The removal and prohibition of projections in streets.

19. To provide that the sands and foreshore in the borough, and for 500 yards beyond the boundaries thereof on either side, shall for police and magisterial purposes and for bye-laws of the Corporation be deemed a street.

20. To enable the Corporation to deviate vertically and horizontally from the lines and levels of the works shown on the deposited plans to the extent to be defined in the Bill or prescribed by Parliament.

21. To enable the Corporation to purchase or otherwise acquire compulsorily or by agreement and to take leases of lands, foreshore, buildings, easements, and other property for all or any of the purposes of the Bill.

22. To exempt the Corporation from the provisions of the 92nd section of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, in respect of all or some of the properties to be acquired for the purposes of the intended Act.

23. To enable the Corporation to enter into and fulfil any agreements, and to confirm, and if need be, to vary any agreements which may have been or which during the progress of the Bill may be entered into by the Corporation for or relating to any of the purposes of the intended Act.

24. To break up, and also to stop up, alter, divert, and interfere with, either temporarily or permanently, and, if permanently, to appropriate the site of and extinguish all rights of way over, and to cross over, under, or upon all such streets, roads, highways, foreshore, bridges, thoroughfares, railways, tramways, rivers, streams, brooks, watercourses, sewers, drains, gas and water pipes, and telegraph and other electric apparatus as it may be necessary or convenient to break up, stop up, alter, divert, interfere with, or cross for any of the purposes of the Bill, and to extinguish all rights of way and other rights in, over, or upon any lands to be acquired under the powers of the Bill.

25. To authorize the Corporation to sell for a gross sum or sums, or annual rent charges, or to exchange or otherwise dispose of, grant building and other leases of, and let for building purposes all or any lands, buildings, and hereditaments acquired under the powers of the intended Act and not required for the purposes thereof, and to sell or dispose of all such annual rent charges, and the reversion in any such land or buildings, and to extend the powers of the Corporation with respect to the holding, retaining, and disposing of such lands.

26. To enable the Corporation to make and levy tolls, rates and charges, general and special, for all or any the purposes of the Bill; to extend the powers for the recovery of rates, and to alter existing tolls, rates and charges, and especially to increase the tolls, rates and charges leviable for the use of the Pile Pier, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from existing or future tolls, rates and charges.

27. To alter and enlarge the present borrowing powers of the Corporation, and to enable them to apply their corporate funds and any moneys which they are already authorized to borrow to the purposes of the Bill, and to consolidate their present mortgage and bond debts (for whatever purpose or in whatever capacity contracted, including their debts for or in relation to the Pile Pier, the Markets, and the Harbour), to provide for the repayment, exchange, or conversion into Stock by agreement of such mortgage and bond debts, loans, and monetary obligations, and to borrow further moneys by mortgage, annuities, debentures and consolidated or debenture stock, or by any one or more of those modes, and to charge the moneys already or so to be borrowed or raised by the Corporation, or owing by them, upon the following or any one or more of the following securities, that is to say:—

The borough fund, borough rate, district fund, general district rate, pier, harbour, markets, (when so acquired), tolls, rates and charges, lands, tenements, hereditaments, gas and water (when so acquired) and other undertakings and property, and the rates, rents, tolls and revenue of the Corporation for the time being in whatever capacity acting, and to alter the present mode of charging moneys borrowed, and to alter the provisions now in force as to the sinking funds to be set apart for paying off moneys now owing or to be borrowed by the Corporation.

28. To authorize the Corporation to enter into and fulfil contracts with the Bank of England or any other bank companies or persons for and in relation to the issue and transfer of, and the payment of interest upon, the said stock or any of it, and for the keeping at such bank or elsewhere of the registers, books of account and other documents relating thereto.

29. The Bill will or may enable the Corporation to carry the provisions thereof into effect as the Municipal, Urban Sanitary, and Harbour Authority of and for the borough, under and according to the provisions of the Acts relating to Municipal Corporations and the Public Health Acts, but with such modifications as the Bill may contain, and will or may alter and enlarge the powers of Committees of the Council, and will enable the Corporation to enforce observance of the provisions of their Local Acts, and of the Bill, by the infliction of penalties, and for all or any of the purposes of the Bill from time to time to make and enforce bye-laws and regulations, and to enter into and fulfil contracts and agreements, and will or may confirm, with or without alteration, any such contract or agreement which may have been, or which, during the progress of the Bill, may be entered into.

30. The Bill will, or may so far as is necessary or expedient, repeal, alter, amend, extend, and consolidate the provisions of, among other Local and Personal Acts, the following, that is to say:—

1. Geo. IV., cap 40; 6 Geo. IV., cap. 116; "The Weymouth and Melcombe Regis Markets and Pier Act, 1854." "The Weymouth and Melcombe Regis Pier Amendment Act, 1859." "The Weymouth and Melcombe Regis Bridge Act, 1879," and "The Weymouth Pier Order, 1882," and any other Order or Act relating directly or indirectly to the Corporation. "The Weymouth Waterworks Act, 1855," and any other Act relating directly or indirectly to the Company of Proprietors of the Weymouth Waterworks." "The Weymouth Gas Act, 1856," and any other Act relating directly or indirectly to the Weymouth and Melcombe Regis Gas Company, and the Bill will or may incorporate with itself in extenso or by reference, with or without alteration, the provisions, or some of the provisions, of the foregoing Acts and Order, and such of the provisions as may be thought necessary of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869." "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845." "The Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847." "The Waterworks Clauses Act, 1863." "The Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847." "The Gas Works Clauses Act, 1871." "The Public Health Act, 1875." "The Local Loans Act, 1875." "The Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847." "The Town Police Clauses Act, 1847." "The Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847." "The Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847," and "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847," and the Bill will vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with any of its objects, and confer other rights and privileges.

Duplicate plans and sections describing the lines, situation, and levels of the proposed works, and the lands and other property in or through which they will be made, and plans showing the lands and other property which may be taken under the powers of the Bill, together with a book of reference to the plans containing the names of the owners and lessees, or reputed owners and lessees, and of the occupiers of such lands, and other property, and a copy of this Notice will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for Dorset at his office at Sherborne, and on or before the same day a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference as relates to each parish in or through which the intended works will be made, or in which any lands or other property are intended to be taken, and a copy of this notice will be deposited with the Parish Clerk of each such parish at his residence.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 10th day of November, 1886.

Isle of Wight Railways.

(Amalgamation of Isle of Wight, Isle of Wight (Newport Junction), Ryde and Newport, and Cowes and Newport Railway Companies and the Railway belonging to the Brading Harbour Improvement and Railway Company; Working Arrangements between the Companies; Dissolution of the Companies; Powers to London and South-Western, London, Brighton, and South Coast, Midland, and Great Western Railway Companies, or any of them, to lease, purchase, or work the said Isle of Wight Railways, or any of them; Levying of Tolls, Rates, and Duties; Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for an Act (hereinafter called "the intended Act") for all or some of the purposes following (that is to say):—

To unite and consolidate into one undertaking, from and after such period or periods and upon such terms and conditions as may have been or may be agreed on or as may be fixed or determined by or under the provisions of the intended Act, the undertakings of the Isle of Wight Railway Company, Isle of Wight (Newport Junction) Railway Company, Ryde and Newport Railway Company, and the Cowes and Newport Railway Company and the railway belonging to the Brading Harbour Improvement and Railway Company, or any two or more of them (hereinafter referred to as "the Amalgamating Companies"), so that the said undertakings, including, among others, railways, piers, land, property, estate, and effects, rights, powers, and privileges, liabilities, and obligations, of what nature or kind soever, and whether with reference to the separate undertakings, works, or property of the Amalgamating Companies respectively, or the undertaking, works, or property of any other company, body, or persons in which the Amalgamating Companies, or any of them, have any interest, and whether, with reference to the purchase of lands and houses, construction and maintenance of works, levying of tolls, rates, and duties, or otherwise, vested in and belonging to, or exercised or enjoyed by, or attaching to, the Amalgamating Companies, jointly or severally, or jointly with any other company or companies at the time of the said amalgamation may (except where otherwise provided in, by, or under the provisions of the intended Act) be vested in and belong to and be exercised, enjoyed, and fulfilled by the Amalgamating Companies as one united and consolidated Company, and, with or without the reservation to each or any class of proprietors in the respective undertakings or Companies, when amalgamated, of any exclusive rights or privileges.

To provide, upon such amalgamation, for the dissolution of the Amalgamating Companies as separate and independent Companies, and for the incorporation of the proprietors therein into one Company, and for the appointment, resignation, and retirement of, and other arrangements with respect to, directors, officers, and servants, and for regulating, fixing, enlarging, consolidating, converting, and determining the capital and borrowing powers of the Amalgamating Companies, and the rights, privileges, preferences, and priorities of the proprietors therein, and of the different classes of such proprietors as amongst themselves in the capital and debenture stock of the Amalgamating Companies, and for the fulfilment and discharge by the Amalgamating Companies of all or some of the contracts, agreements, or arrangements entered into, and liabilities incurred by, the Amalgamating Companies, jointly or severally, and either alone or jointly with any other company or companies, or otherwise howsoever, and capable of taking effect or being enforced at the period of such union or amalgamation.

To make provision, if deemed expedient, for the capitals of the Amalgamating Companies being kept separate and distinct.

To provide for the mortgage, debenture, and other debts of the Amalgamating Companies respectively, and the security of the respective creditors.

To empower the Amalgamating Companies, or any two or more of them, to make and carry into effect arrangement and agreements for working the said undertakings, or any of them, and to confirm or provide for the confirmation of any agreement or agreements, made between or on behalf of the Amalgamating Companies, or any of them, and of any acts done by them, or any of them, in contemplation or anticipation of, or in any way relating to, any of the objects of the intended Act.

To empower the Amalgamating Companies, or any of them, on the one hand, and the London and South Western, London, Brighton, and South Coast, Midland, and Great Western Railway Companies, jointly or severally (hereinafter called "the Purchasing Companies"), on the other hand, to enter into and carry into effect contracts, agreements, and arrangements with respect to the lease, purchase, sale, transfer, and vesting of the undertakings of the Amalgamating Companies, or any of them, and all the works, powers, rights, and interests of every description connected therewith, by, to, or in the Purchasing Companies, and to provide for the ownership, use, enjoyment, or management by the Purchasing Companies of the undertaking so leased, purchased, sold, or transferred, and vested by, to, or in the Purchasing Companies, subject to such terms and conditions as have been or may be agreed upon between the Amalgamating Companies, or any of them, and the Purchasing Companies, or any of them, or as may be prescribed by the intended Act, and to confirm any contracts, agreements, and arrangements already made or to be made, between the Amalgamating Companies, or any of them, and the Purchasing Companies, or any of them, for effecting the purposes aforesaid, or any of them.

To empower the Amalgamating Companies, or any of them, and the Purchasing Companies, or any of them, to make and carry into effect agreements for the maintenance, working, using, and management by the Purchasing Companies, or any of them, of the railways of the Amalgamating Companies, or any of them, the supply of rolling-stock or plant, and all incidental matters.

To levy tolls, rates, and charges for, and in respect of, the use of the amalgamated undertaking, to alter existing tolls, rates, or duties.

To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which may interfere with the objects of the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

To alter, amend, and enlarge or repeal so far as may be necessary, all, or some of the powers and provisions of the several local and personal Acts following (that is to say): The Cowes and Newport Railway Act, 1859, and any other Acts relating to or affecting the Cowes and Newport Railway Company, the Ryde and Newport Railway Act, 1872, and any other Acts relating to or affecting the Ryde and Newport Railway Company, the Isle of Wight (Newport Junction) Railway Act, 1868, and all other Acts relating to or affecting the Isle of Wight (Newport Junction) Railway Company, the Isle of Wight, Eastern Section, Railway Act, 1860, and any other Acts relating to or affecting the Isle of Wight Railway Company, the Brading Harbour Improvement Railway and Works Act, 1874, and all other Acts relating to or affecting the Brading Harbour Improvement and Railway Company, and all Acts relating to or affecting the London and South Western, London, Brighton, and South Coast, Midland, and Great Western Railway Companies, respectively, and also any schemes of arrangement sanctioned by the High Court of Justice, in relation to the said Companies, or any of them.

Printed copies of the Bill for the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 8th day of November, 1886.

Furness Railway.

(Extension of Time for and further Provisions with respect to Sale and Disposition of superfluous Lands and Provisions as to Application of Moneys arising from Sale, &c. of certain Lands; Quorum for General Meetings; Varying or Annuling Agreement between the Company and the Local Board of Ulverston, Scheduled to and Confirmed by the Furness Railway Act, 1881, and other Provisions in lieu thereof; and Powers to the Company, and the Local Board, and the North Lonsdale Iron and Steel Company, Limited, to enter into new Agreements with reference to the Supply by the Company to the North Lonsdale Iron and Steel Company, Limited, of Water from the Ulverston Canal; Powers to Company and London and North-Western Railway Company to Construct New Road at Cleator Moor and apply Funds; Stopping up of Portion of existing Road; other Powers; Amendment or Repeal of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session by the Furness Railway Company (hereinafter called "the Company") for leave to bring in a Bill for all or some of the following, among other purposes, that is to say:—

1. To extend the respective periods limited by the Furness Railway Act, 1869, section 21; the Furness Railway Act, 1879, section 25; the Furness Railway Act, 1872, section 26; and the

Furness Railway Act, 1881, section 32, for the sale and disposition of certain lands and hereditaments respectively situate in the township of Hawcoat, in the parish of Dalton-in-Furness, in the county of Lancaster, and in the township or division of Seascale, in the parish of Gosforth, in the county of Cumberland, and mentioned or referred to in the said section 21 of the said Act of 1869, and the said section 26 of the said Act of 1872; and to authorise the Company during such extended periods as shall be prescribed by the Bill to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by the said sections and by section 27 of the said Act of 1879 respectively, with reference to the said respective lands and hereditaments, or any part thereof, which from time to time have not been sold or disposed of by the Company; and to make new and further provisions with reference to the application of the moneys arising from the sale or disposition of such lands and hereditaments: and so far as necessary for the purposes aforesaid to amend or repeal the said sections of the said Acts, or any or either of them.

2. To extend the time for the sale by the Company of all or any other lands acquired or held by them which are not or eventually may not be required for the purposes of their undertaking, and to confer further powers on the Company in relation to the said lands; to enable the Company to sell or dispose of the lands which have been acquired by them, or some part or parts thereof, for building or other purposes, or to grant building or other leases of the said lands, or any part or parts thereof, or to dispose, lease, or let the said lands, or any part or parts thereof, on ground rents, chief rents, or otherwise, and at such rent and upon such terms and conditions as the Company may think proper; and so far as necessary to alter, amend, and extend the provisions of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with reference to the sale of superfluous land.

3. To prescribe the quorum for general meetings of the Company (whether ordinary or extraordinary), and to amend or repeal section 20 of the Furness Railway Act, 1855, and the provisions of any other Act relating thereto.

4. To alter, amend, and, so far as necessary, repeal section 34 of the Furness Railway Act, 1881, and to rescind, vary, and to declare null and void, either wholly or in part, the agreement confirmed by such section and set forth in the schedule to the said Act, made the 25th day of June, 1881, between the Local Board for the district of the town and hamlet of Ulverston, in the county of Lancaster (hereinafter called "the Local Board") and the Company; and to authorise the Company to supply water from their Ulverston Canal to the North Lonsdale Iron and Steel Company Limited (hereinafter called the "Steel Company"), in bulk, and in consideration of an annual or other periodical payment in gross, in lieu of supplying such water by measure, and at the rate specified in the said agreement; and to make provision for the payment by the Company to the Local Board of a proportion of the sum received by the Company from the Steel Company for such supply.

5. To authorise the Company, the Local Board, and the Steel Company, or any two of them, from time to time to enter into, and carry into effect, new and further agreements and arrangements for or with reference to the supply by the Company to the Steel Company of water from the Ulverston Canal, in bulk or otherwise, in consideration of an annual or other periodical payment in gross, and the division between the Company and the Local Board of the sums paid by the Steel Company to the Company for such supply, and all incidental matters, and to sanction and confirm any such agreement or arrangement already, or which prior to the passing of the Bill, may be made or entered into.

6. To authorise the Company and the London and North-Western Railway Company, or either of them, with the consent of the other, to make and maintain at Cleator Moor, in the parish of Cleator, in the county of Cumberland, a new road, by way of diversion of the roads or streets called or known as Leconfield Street and High Street respectively, together with all necessary works and conveniences connected therewith, such new road to commence at a point in the said Leconfield Street thirteen and a-half chains, or thereabouts, measured along that street in a southeasterly direction from the centre of the bridge carrying that street over the main line of the Whitehaven, Cleator, and Egremont Railway, at the Cleator Moor Passenger Station on that railway, and to terminate at a point in the said High Street thirty-six and a-half chains, or thereabouts, measured as aforesaid from the centre of the said bridge.

7. To stop up and discontinue as a public highway, and to extinguish or provide for the extinguishment of all rights over so much of the said Leconfield Street and High Street respectively as is situate and lies between the commencement and termination of the proposed new road, and to vest, or provide for vesting, the site and soil thereof in the Company and the London and North-Western Railway Company, or either of them.

8. To authorise deviations laterally and vertically from the lines and levels of the intended works, as shown on the plans and sections to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned.

9. To authorise the crossing, stopping up, altering, or diverting, whether temporarily or permanently, of all roads, highways, railways, streams, drains, sewers, pipes, telegraphic and telephonic wires and apparatus which it may be necessary or convenient to cross, stop up, alter, or divert for the purposes of the Bill.

10. To authorise the Company and the London and North-Western Railway Company, or either of them, to purchase and take by compulsion or agreement lands, houses, easements, rights, and other property required for the purposes of the intended works, or any part thereof, and to vary and extinguish all rights and privileges connected therewith.

11. To make provision for the repair of the new or diverted road to be constructed under the powers of the Bill by the same persons, and by the same means, as other roads in the parish, township, or place within which the new or altered road will be situate, are for the time being legally repairable, or in such other manner as may be prescribed by the Bill.

12. To authorise the Company and the London and North-Western Railway Company respectively to apply to the purposes of the Bill their respective corporate funds.

13. To vary and extinguish all rights and privileges, which would in any manner impede or interfere with the objects and purposes of the Bill, and to confer other rights and privileges.

14. To alter, amend, extend, enlarge, or to repeal, so far as may be necessary, for the purposes of the Bill the provisions or some of the provisions of the several local and personal Acts following (that is to say): 33 Geo. 3rd, cap. 105; 18 and 19 Vic., cap. 173; 21 and 22 Vic., cap. 98; 25 and 26 Vic., caps. 89 and 133; 26 and 27 Vic., caps. 82 and 89; 28 and 29 Vic., cap. 179; 29 and 30 Vic., caps. 132, 176, and 236; 30 and 31 Vic.,

cap. 104; 32 and 33 Vic., cap. 154; 35 and 36 Vic., caps. 83 and 99; 38 and 39 Vic., cap. 191; 39 and 40 Vic., cap. 47; 41 and 42 Vic., cap. 95; 42 and 43 Vic., cap. 146; 44 and 45 Vic., cap. 188; and all other Acts relating to or affecting the Company, 9 and 10 Vic., cap. 204, and all other Acts relating to or affecting the London and North-Western Railway Company; and all other Acts (if any) which may relate to or be affected by any of the objects and purposes of the Bill,

And notice is hereby further given, that

On or before the 30th day of November instant, plans and sections of the intended works, together with books of reference to such plans, and a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Cumberland, at his office at Carlisle, and with the parish clerk of the said parish of Cleator at his residence, and

On or before the 21st day of December next, printed copies of the Bill for effecting the objects aforesaid will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Board of Trade.—Session 1887.

Colne Valley Water.

(Provisional Order.)

(Application under "The Gas and Waterworks Facilities Act, 1870," and "The Gas and Waterworks Facilities Act, 1870, Amendment Act, 1873," to the Board of Trade for Provisional Order; extending Powers of Colne Valley Water Company so as to include the District named in Alperton and Sudbury Water Order, 1884; Transfer of Powers; Amalgamation.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Colne Valley Water Company (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") are about to apply to the Board of Trade under "The Gas and Waterworks Facilities Act, 1870," and "The Gas and Waterworks Facilities Act, 1870, Amendment Act, 1873," for a Provisional Order, to be confirmed by Parliament in the ensuing session, and that by such Order the Company will seek for powers for the following purposes, that is to say:—

1. To empower the Company to supply water within the district, or part of the district, within which the undertakers empowered by "The Alperton and Sudbury Water Order, 1884" (confirmed by "The Water Orders Confirmation (No. 2) Act, 1884") have power to supply water, and to revoke, amend, extend, or vary the said Order.

To empower the Company to acquire and to maintain and continue the mains or pipes of the said undertakers, and to construct such other works and lay such other mains or pipes within the said district as they may think necessary.

2. To provide for the transfer of the undertaking authorized by the said Order, or part or parts thereof, to the Company, and for the amalgamation thereof with the undertaking of the Company, and to confer on the Company all such powers as may be needful in order to enable the said transfer to take effect.

3. To authorize the Company, subject to such provisions as may be contained in the Order, to hold, work, use and carry on the said undertaking, or part or parts thereof, and to have, exercise and enjoy all or any of the rights, powers, privileges and authorities of the persons empowered by the said Order with reference thereto.

The district referred to in the said Order in which or in part of which it is proposed to enable the Company to supply water instead of the undertakers therein named, includes parts of the hamlets of Alperton, Sudbury and Wembley in the parish of Harrow in the county of Middlesex, and also the parishes, or parts of the parishes, of Twyford, Perivale, Greenford and Northolt in the same county.

4. To enable the Company, for the purposes above mentioned, either to apply any moneys belonging to them, or which they have still power to raise, or to raise other money by shares, stock, or borrowing.

The Order will vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would interfere with any of its objects, and will confer upon the Company all such other rights and privileges as may be necessary for any of the purposes of the Order, and will amend, enlarge, and repeal the necessary powers and provisions of "The Colne Valley Water Acts, 1873 and 1885," and of every other Act relating directly or indirectly to the Company or their undertaking, and will incorporate with itself, with or without variation, the necessary provisions of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863," "The Companies Clauses Act, 1869," and the "Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863."

And notice is hereby further given, that printed copies of the draft Provisional Order will be deposited on or before the 23rd day of December next, and can on and after that date be obtained at the offices of Messrs. Murray, Hutchins and Stirling, 11, Birch-lane, E.C., or of Messrs. Dyson and Co., 24, Parliament-street, Westminster, on payment of one shilling for each copy.

Every Company, corporation, or person desirous of making to the Board of Trade any representation, or of bringing before that Board any objection respecting the said application, may do so by letter addressed to the Assistant Secretary of the Railway Department of the said Board on or before the 15th day of January next; and copies of such objections must at the same time be also sent to the Solicitors or Parliamentary Agents of the Company, and in forwarding to the Board of Trade such objections, the objectors, or their agents, must state that a copy of their said objections has been sent as aforesaid to the Solicitors or Parliamentary Agents of the Company. And notice is hereby also given, that after the Board of Trade have settled the said Provisional Order, printed copies thereof can be obtained at the before mentioned offices at a charge of one shilling for each copy, or such other sum as the Board of Trade may direct.

Dated this 19th day of November, 1886.

tion of Width of Highways and Line of Frontage to Streets; Infectious Diseases; Power to Sublet Portion of Present or Future Offices for Parochial or other Purposes; To cause Supply of Water to be Renewed where Discontinued by Water Company; To Confer Powers upon Justices of Middlesex to Constitute District a New Division for Holding Special or Petty Sessions or other Meetings of Justices; Bye-laws; Amendment and Incorporation of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for leave to bring in a Bill for the following, or some of the following purposes, that is to say:—

1. To authorize and enable the Local Board for the district of Willesden, in the county of Middlesex (hereinafter called "the Local Board") for the purpose of enforcing the powers at any time vested in them in relation to drainage, new streets, and buildings, to appoint, subject to the control from time to time of the Local Government Board, one or more building inspectors as salaried officers of the Local Board, and to charge fees in respect of the duties or services performed by such building inspectors in inspecting and supervising the construction or alteration of drains, new streets, or buildings, within their district, and to provide for the application of such fees and to enable the Local Government Board to review the same, and to provide for the payment of such salaries, and for the payment by and recovery from the builder, owner, or occupier of such drains, new streets, and buildings of such fees.

2. To enable the said Local Board to exercise certain powers in respect of the sewerage, drainage, levelling, paving, flagging, or channelling, making good, or lighting and improvement of the said district, and of the mode of raising or defraying the expenses thereof similar to powers which by the Metropolis Management Act, 1855; the Metropolis Management Amendment Act, 1856; the Metropolis Management Amendment Act, 1858; the Metropolis Management Amendment Act, 1862; or some or one of such Acts, are conferred on the vestries or District Boards of metropolitan parishes or districts.

3. To confer upon the Local Board further powers, that is to say:—

Power to prevent the erection of new buildings or of their external fence or boundary within a certain distance of a road, passage, way, or highway, and to enforce such regulations in a summary way.

To require the sanction of the Local Board to the plans of all new sewers and of proposed abandonment or alterations of authorized sewers and for limiting the period for the execution of such works when authorized without renewed sanction.

Power to require new sewers to be made sufficient for the drainage of contiguous property, and to charge any excess of the cost of making such sewer upon the owners or occupiers of such contiguous property.

Power to the Board to order any group or block of contiguous houses to be drained specially in combination with, and in addition to, the main drainage system of the district, and to apportion and recover the costs of the necessary works between and from the owners and occupiers of such houses.

To enable the Local Board to make Bye-laws for providing for the construction of sewers in new streets; regulating the communication between new and existing streets; for laying down kerbs and constructing crossings; for regulating the mode of construction of new streets, as to the materials to be employed; the construction of sewers, manholes, and similar works; effecting kerbing and channelling, and laying down gas and water mains, and other pipes or wires; for regulating the levels of ground floors in new buildings, and the heights of rooms and prescribing forms of notices.

The removal and prohibition of wooden buildings.

To enable the Local Board to define and regulate the building lines of existing streets and rows of houses, and of new streets.

4. To provide for notification to the Local Board of the existence within the district of infectious or other diseases, and for certificates and declarations by medical practitioners attending persons suffering therewith, and to empower the Local Board to remunerate any such medical practitioner for the same, and to make persons offending wilfully against the proposed enactment liable to a penalty.

5. To empower the Local Board either to require any owner or occupier to cleanse and disinfect any house, or part of a house, or any articles therein, or themselves to cleanse and disinfect such house, part of a house, and articles, and for that purpose to remove any such articles, and to recover the expenses attending such cleansing, disinfecting, and removal from the owner or occupier, and to make other provision for defraying the expenses thereof.

6. To prohibit under a penalty the retention of bodies of persons dying of infectious diseases elsewhere than in a mortuary.

7. To prohibit, if thought so expedient, the removal of the body of any person dying from infectious disease from any hospital or place of temporary accommodation as aforesaid, except for the purpose of immediate burial, and to provide for the immediate burial of the body of any person dying from an infectious disease, and for the recovery of the expenses thereof.

8. Power to justices to regulate the removal and the mode of conveyance for the purpose of interment, and the interment of the body of any person who has died of an infectious disease, or for the proper officer to carry out the same, and for the recovery of the expenses thereof.

9. To prevent the use of public conveyances for the removal of the bodies of persons who may have died from infectious disease.

10. To empower the Local Board to let for any period, and upon such terms as they may think proper, any portion of their present or future office or offices, building or buildings for parochial or other purposes.

11. To make provision for enabling the Local Board to cause the supply of water to be renewed to any house from which it may have been disconnected, the payment of rates and expenses of such renewal, and the recovery of the same in a summary way.

12. To enable and authorize the Justices of the Peace for the county of Middlesex, having a separate Commission of the Peace, notwithstanding anything in the 5th section of the Act 9 Geo. IV, cap. 43, or in any other Acts amending the same, to constitute and define a portion of the district of the Local Board, or with the consent of Her Majesty in Privy Council, or of the Secretary of State for the Home Department, as the case may be, the whole thereof into a new division, within which special sessions shall thenceforward be holden within the purposes of the Acts 9 Geo. IV, cap. 43, and 14 and 15 Vic., cap. 55.

13. To empower the Local Board to make Bye-laws with reference to all or any of the foregoing matters, and to enforce the same by penalties or otherwise, and to extend the time for taking legal proceedings in relation to offences against the provisions of the intended Act, or such Bye-laws, or some of them.

14. To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which might in any way impede or interfere with any of the objects of the Bill, and to confer other rights and privileges.

15. To incorporate, with or without alterations, or to apply, amend, or alter all or some of the provisions of the Act 9 Geo. IV, cap. 43, and the Public Health Act, 1875, and any Act amending the same, or either of them.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 11th day of November, 1886.

Clerical, Medical, and General Life Assurance Society.

(Providing for cancelling Deed of Settlement; New By-laws and Regulations; Repeal of Parts of Clerical, Medical, and General Life Assurance Act, 1850, as to Bonuses; Explaining Section 24 of that Act; Altering Denomination of Shares; Service of Notices by and on the Society; Amendment of Act.)

A PPLICATION is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session thereof by the Clerical, Medical, and General Life Assurance Society (hereinafter called "the Society") for leave to bring in a Bill for the following, or some of the following among other purposes, that is to say:—

1. To enable the Society to annul the whole or any part of their deed of settlement, dated the 14th day of February, 1827, and every other deed, instrument, by-law, regulation, and resolution, under which they now carry on or are empowered to carry on business, and to make new by-laws, rules, orders, and regulations for the carrying on of their business, the division and application of the profits of the Society, and the declaration of dividends.

2. To repeal sections 31 to 34 (both inclusive) of the Clerical, Medical, and General Life Assurance Act, 1850, relating to the declaration of bonuses.

3. To vary the denomination of the shares of the Society, and to make other provisions as to their capital, and the shares into which it is divided, and the calls thereon.

4. To provide for the service of legal process and notices on the Society, and for the service of notices on members of the Society.

5. To explain or amend section 24 of the said Act, so as to make the provisions thereof clearly applicable to personal as well as to real property.

6. The Bill will vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with any of its objects, but will preserve the rights of the holders of existing policies of the Society, and will confer other rights and privileges, and will repeal, alter, amend, annul, consolidate, or re-enact, with or without modification, such of the provisions of the Clerical, Medical, and General Life Assurance

Act, 1850, and of the said deed of settlement and any other Act, deed, instrument, by-law, regulation, or resolution relating directly or indirectly to the Society as may be deemed expedient.

Printed copies of the intended Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 19th day of November, 1886.

National Provident Institution.

(Altering, Amending, and Enlarging Powers of the Institution; Powers to Sue and be Sued; Provisions as to Criminal Proceedings; Preparation, Verification and Enrolment of Memorials of Names and Addresses of Directors and other Officers; Delegation of Powers; Provision as to vesting Property, &c., in Trustees; Rules and Regulations; Duties of Officers; Sale, Exchange, Demise, Management, &c., of Lands and other Property; Investment of Funds; Accountability of, and Summary Remedies against, Officers, &c.; Incorporation and Amendment of Acts; and other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by the National Provident Institution (hereinafter called "the Institution") for leave to bring in a Bill and to pass an Act for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

1. To confer on the Institution power to sue and be sued in their own name or in the name of public officers to be appointed by or under the provisions of the Bill, and to confer on the Institution all such new and further powers, rights, and privileges, as may be necessary or expedient for facilitating legal and other proceedings by and against them, and in respect of the property and effects of the Institution.

2. To make and enact such provisions as shall or may in the Bill be expressed or contained in relation to the commencement and prosecution of actions and proceedings of whatsoever nature or character by or against the Institution, whether at law or in equity, bankruptcy, or lunacy, or under any insolvency or sequestration or otherwise howsoever as well in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as elsewhere, and in the case of proceedings against the Institution as well by members of the Institution as by other persons; and to declare that such provisions shall have a retrospective as well as a present and future operation and effect.

3. To make and enact such provisions as shall or may in the Bill be expressed or contained in relation to the commencement and prosecution of any criminal proceedings by or on behalf of the Institution, and as well in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland as elsewhere, and as well against a member of the Institution as against any other person, and to declare that such provisions shall have a retrospective as well as a present and future operation and effect.

4. To make and enact such provisions as shall or may in the Bill be expressed or contained for enabling the Institution to delegate to their secretary, or to some other person or persons, rights, powers, and authorities touching the interests of the Institution, and for enabling such secretary or other person or persons to represent the Institution, and act for and in the name of the Institution.

5. To provide for the enrolment from time to time in the Supreme Court of Judicature in England, in the Books of Council and Session in Scotland, and in the Supreme Court of Judicature in Ireland respectively, or in such other courts, offices, or other places as shall or may be defined by the Bill, of memorials or other documents stating the names of the directors, trustees, and secretary, or other officers of the Institution, and to provide for vesting in the trustees or other persons from time to time named in such memorials or other documents, all the real and personal property and securities, goods, chattels, and effects at any time, and from time to time held upon trust for the Institution, without any deed, conveyance, transfer, or other assurance, and to make such other provisions in relation to such enrolment and vesting as may be found necessary or expedient.

6. To confer upon the Institution, or upon the directors thereof, for the time being, or upon other officers or persons, powers and authorities in relation to the rules and regulations of the Institution.

7. To alter, extend, and enlarge the powers of the Institution, and of the directors thereof, in respect of the laying out and investing the capital, moneys, funds, and property of the Institution, and to repeal or modify all or any restrictions upon the investment of such capital, moneys, funds, and property now existing according to the present constitution of the Institution, and to enable the Institution and the directors thereof, amongst other things, in addition to the powers they now possess, to lay out and invest the moneys and funds of the Institution in the purchase of, or in loans or advances upon, the security of the stocks, shares, bonds, mortgages, debentures, and other securities of public companies; or the mortgages, debentures, and other securities of any municipal or local authorities, trusts or bodies in the United Kingdom, India, or any colony or dependency of the United Kingdom, the Government stocks, bonds, or other securities of India, or of any colony or dependency of the United Kingdom, or of any other country; policies of assurance of other companies, Government and other annuities, permanent and terminable, contingent and deferred, reversionary and contingent estates, and interests charged upon or arising from any security or property, and to lend and advance the funds of the Institution upon the security of lands of any tenure in Australia, New Zealand, or Canada, or on debenture or deposit to any Company within Great Britain or Ireland, the Empire of India, or the British Colonies authorised to take money on debenture or deposit, and to acquire and hold lands in the United Kingdom, the Colonies, and elsewhere, for the purpose of carrying on the business of the Institution, and to make all deposits and investments necessary by the laws, customs or practice of any colony or other country or state where the Institution may carry on or desire to carry on business; and also to lay out, invest and lend the capital, moneys, property and funds of the Institution in such other manner as the Bill may define, or Parliament may sanction, and to make all provisions for carrying those several objects into effect.

8. To confirm, make valid and render binding and effectual, to all intents and for all purposes, as well against as in favour of the Institution, its directors, officers, agents and servants, and any Corporation, Company, body or person interested in or affected thereby, every sale, lease, mortgage, exchange and other disposition of, and dealing with lands and other property, real or personal, and every assurance, deed, contract, agreement and other act and thing relating thereto, now or at any time before the passing of the Bill, made, entered into, executed or done.

9. To make and enact provisions in respect of all or some of the following among other objects and purposes, that is to say:—

- (a.) The sale, exchange, management, farming, demising, letting or otherwise disposing of lands already acquired and held, or hereafter to be from time to time acquired and held by or on behalf of the Institution.
- (b.) The making of such special or other conditions of sale, or other conditions or stipulations in relation to such lands as the Institution or the Directors thereof may think fit.
- (c.) The amounts to be advanced on mortgage and the value of the security to be taken for the repayment of such advances.
- (c.) The investigation of the title to lands and hereditaments, and the acceptance of or rejection of the title disclosed upon any such investigation.
- (e.) Indemnifying the directors.
- (f.) The employment and payment of solicitors, surveyors and other persons, and the delegation to them of such powers and authorities as may be expressed in the Bill, including the receipt and payment of money.
- (g.) The receipts or other discharges to be required and taken for sums of money payable in respect of policies, proof of death, and evidence of title, &c.
- (h.) The granting, execution, and revocation by the directors of powers of attorney and other documents of a like nature.

10. To make more effectual provision with respect to the accountability of officers, servants, and agents of the Institution, and for summary or other remedies against any such officer, servant, or agent failing to account to the Institution, or to deliver up papers, writings, property, effects, matters or things of or belonging to the Institution, and for that purpose to incorporate with the Bill, or to apply to the Institution, and its officers, servants, and agents, all or some of the provisions (with or without modifications) of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845."

11. To alter, amend, and extend, and, so far as may be necessary or expedient for any of the purposes of the Bill, to cancel, annul, or repeal all Acts of Parliament, deeds, laws, regulations, rules, and other documents binding upon or affecting the Institution, and to confer all powers, and to vary and extinguish any rights or privileges which it may be expedient to confer, vary, or extinguish for the purposes aforesaid.

Printed copies of the Bill will, on or before the 21st day of December, 1886, be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 15th day of November, 1886.

(Dissolution of the Basingstoke Gas and Coke Company; Incorporation of New Company; Arrangement of Capital; Conversion of Existing Share Capital into Stock; Additional Capital; Borrowing Powers; Powers to Maintain, Renew, and Enlarge Existing Works for Manufacture and Storage of Gas, the Manufacture and Conversion of Residual Products, and for Supplying Gas in the following Parishes, Townships, and other places, viz., Basingstoke, Eastrop, Basing, Winslade, Herriard, Cliddesden, Worting, Monk Sherborne, and Sherborne Saint John, all in the County of Southampton; Power to Construct New Works, and to Manufacture and Store Gas, and Manufacture and Convert Residual Products on Lands described; Powers to Acquire by Agreement and, if necessary, by Compulsion other Lands for such Purposes; Power to Sell, Lease, Exchange, or otherwise Dispose of Lands; to Acquire and Hold Patent Rights; to Manufacture, Purchase, and Hire, and to Sell, and Let, Gas Meters and Fittings; to Sell Gas in Bulk; Agreements with and Powers to Local or other Authorities, Public Bodies, Companies, or Persons; Power to Levy Rates and Charges, and to Alter Existing Rates and Charges, and to Confer other Rights and Privileges; Incorporation of Acts, &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Basingstoke Gas and Coke Company (hereinafter referred to as the original Company) intend to apply to Parliament in the ensuing Session for leave to bring in a Bill for all or some of the following among other purposes, that is to say:—

To dissolve the original Company, and to cancel and annul its deed of settlement, and to provide for the winding up of the original Company, and to incorporate the shareholders of the original Company with other persons or corporations into a Company by the name of the Basingstoke Gas Company, or by some other name (hereinafter referred to as the Company), and to confer upon the Company all necessary powers and authorities for carrying into effect the objects of the Bill.

To vest in the Company all the undertakings, works, lands, buildings, mains, pipes, machinery, property, stock, plant, interests, rights, powers, privileges, easements, licenses, contracts and agreements, and the benefit of licenses, contracts and agreements of the original Company.

To declare, define, regulate and arrange the Undertaking, capital and borrowing powers, and to make provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the Company, and to convert the existing share capital of the original Company into stock, and to authorise the Company to raise additional capital by the creation and issue of shares and stock (ordinary or preferential or both), and by borrowing on mortgage or otherwise, and to create and issue debenture stock.

To confer upon the Company all the powers necessary for supplying with gas the parishes, townships, and other places following, that is to say:—Basingstoke, Eastrop, Basing, Winslade, Herriard, Cliddesden, Worting, Monk Sherborne, and Sherborne Saint John, all in the county of Southampton, hereinafter referred to as the limits of supply, and to levy and recover rents, rates, and charges therefor.

To authorise the Company to hold the lands and to maintain the existing works of the original Company, and to alter, improve, enlarge, renew, or discontinue those works, and to erect additional works for the manufacture and storage of gas, and also to erect houses, offices, and buildings on the land now belonging to or held by or in trust for the original Company, or any part thereof, and also upon the lands hereinafter described, and to enable the Company to manufacture gas and any residual products arising in the manufacture of gas, and to convert or utilize such residual products, and to store gas, residual and other products arising from the manufacture of gas thereon.

The lands to be so held and used for the manufacture and storage of gas, and for gas works, and for the manufacture and storage of residual products arising from the manufacture of gas, or of the materials used therein, and for other the purposes of the Bill, are—

First. The lands now belonging to or held by or in trust for the original Company, and on parts of which the gas works of that Company have been erected, that is to say:—

A parcel of land, containing one acre or thereabouts, situate in the parish of Basingstoke, in the county of Southampton, and bounded on the east partly by land belonging, or reputed to belong, to the Right Honourable William Henry Lord Bolton, or his trustees, and partly by land and buildings belonging to the Basingstoke Urban Sanitary Authority, on the west partly by messuages and land belonging or reputed to belong to Messieurs J. May and Company, partly by messuages and land belonging or reputed to belong to Francis Charles Simpson and Robert Neville, partly by land belonging, or reputed to belong to the trustees of the will of George Lamb, deceased, and partly by an approach road leading from the Gas Works Road to the existing works of the original Company, on the north partly by land belonging or reputed to belong to the said William Henry Lord Bolton or his trustees, partly by a messuage and land belonging or reputed to belong to John Charles Pitman Curtis, and partly by the said approach road leading from the Gas Works Road, and on the south partly by land belonging or reputed to belong to the Basingstoke Urban Sanitary Authority, and partly by the said messuages and land belonging or reputed to belong to Messieurs J. May and Company, and partly by the public road from Basingstoke to Basing.

2ndly. A parcel of land situate in the said parish of Basingstoke, in the county of Southampton, comprising one acre or thereabouts, being part of an arable field numbered on the 25-inch ordnance map of the county of Southampton 111, in the parish of Basingstoke, belonging or reputed to belong to the said William Henry Lord Bolton, or his Trustees, and occupied by Henry Portsmouth, and lying on the east and north sides of and adjoining the land and works of the original Company, and bounded on the east and north by other parts of the said arable field, on the west partly by the said lands and works of the original Company, partly by messuages and land belonging or reputed to belong to John Charles Pitman Curtis, and partly by a messuage and land belonging or reputed to belong to the representatives of Samuel Chandler, deceased, and on the south partly by the lands and works of the original Company, and partly by other parts of the said arable field.

3rdly. A parcel of land situate in the parish of Eastrop, in the county of Southampton, belonging or reputed to belong to the Trustees of the Will of George Lamb, deceased, and occupied by George Hunt, and containing 49 poles or thereabouts, and bounded on the east by the land and works of the original Company, on the west by Gas Works Road, on the north by the before-mentioned approach road leading from the Gas Works

Road to the works of the original Company, and on the south by messuages and land belonging or reputed to belong to Francis Charles Simpson and Robert Neville.

To enable the Company to purchase and acquire by agreement or by compulsion, if necessary, for the purposes of their Undertaking, the lands and other property secondly and thirdly hereinbefore described, and upon the lands first, secondly, and thirdly hereinbefore described, or any part or parts thereof, to erect, make, and maintain additional buildings, works, and conveniences for the manufacture and storage of gas and the residual products arising therefrom, and also to manufacture and store gas thereon.

To purchase or take on lease, or otherwise acquire, by agreement, and to hold other lands, houses, and hereditaments, for purposes other than the manufacture or storage of gas within the limits of supply, or to acquire easements or rights over or under any such lands and hereditaments, and to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of any lands, works, and property from time to time vested in or purchased by the Company, or to exchange any such land.

To deal in, sell, and dispose of coal, lime, coke, tar, asphalt, chemicals, and other residual and manufactured products, and other matters and things, and to carry on the business usually carried on by Gas Companies.

To supply gas in bulk, or otherwise, for purposes of light, heat, or motive power, and for cooking food, and for any other purpose for which gas is suitable, to levy rates, rents, and charges for the supply of gas, and to exercise all or any of the rights and powers now enjoyed or exercised by the original Company with respect to the supply of gas, and also all such other rights, powers, and privileges as may be conferred by the Bill.

To enable the Company on the one hand, and any Local Authority, Company, Corporation, public body, officers, or persons on the other hand, to enter into and carry into effect contracts, agreements, and arrangements for or with respect to the supply by the Company to any such Local Authority, Company, Corporation or public body, officers or persons, of gas in bulk or otherwise for any public, trading or other purposes; and to authorise any such Local Authority, Corporation, Company, public body, officers or persons respectively to apply their respective funds, and to raise further moneys for the purposes of any such contract, agreement or arrangement; and to sanction and confirm any such contract, agreement or arrangement already made, or which prior to the passing of the Bill may be made with respect to the matters aforesaid.

To enable the Company to acquire, hold, use, and enjoy patent rights, licenses, and authorities under letters patent in relation to the manufacture, conversion, distribution, and utilization of gas, and the residual products arising therefrom within the limits of supply, and to carry on the business usually carried on by Gas Companies, or which is or may become incidental thereto.

To maintain, alter, or renew any existing gas works, mains, and pipes within the limits of supply, and to lay down and maintain, alter, or renew mains and pipes or other apparatus, in, through, across, along, or under lands, streets, roads, public or private lanes, railways, rivers, canals, waters, sewers, drains, pipes, bridges, and other passages and places within the limits of supply.

To empower the Company to manufacture and purchase or hire gas meters, stoves, fittings, or other apparatus, and to sell, fit up, or let the same, and to charge and receive rents, charges, and remunerations for the sale and supply of gas and other services rendered with respect to such gas meters, stoves, and fittings, and other apparatus, whether for gas or for any other purpose for lighting or heating or motive power, and to alter existing rates, charges, and remunerations, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from the payment of such rates, charges, and remunerations.

The Bill will incorporate with itself the necessary provisions of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," "The Companies Clauses Act, 1863," "The Companies Clauses Act, 1869," and "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869;" as the same are amended by "The Commonable Rights Compensation Act, 1882," and "The Lands Clauses (Umpire) Act, 1883;" and it will also incorporate with itself, except so far as the same may be specially varied, the provisions of "The Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847," and "The Gas Works Clauses Act, 1871"; and it will confer upon the Company all other rights and privileges necessary for carrying into effect the objects of the Bill, and it will vary and extinguish all such existing rights and privileges as may interfere with the attainment of any of those objects.

Duplicate plans, describing the lands to be taken compulsorily under the powers of the Bill, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and of the occupiers of such lands, and a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the 30th day of November, 1886, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Southampton, at his office at the County Hall in the city of Winchester, and on or before the said 30th day of November a copy of the said plan and book of reference, together with a copy of the said notice will be deposited for public inspection as follows: for the parish of Basingstoke, with the Reverend James Elwin Millard, D.D., Vicar of Basingstoke, at the Rectory, Basingstoke, there being no Parish Clerk of that parish; for the parish of Eastrop, with the Reverend Richard John Shields, M.A., Rector of Eastrop, at The Elms, Eastrop, there being no Parish Clerk of that parish.

Printed copies of the intended Bill will on or before the 21st day of December next be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 10th day of November, 1886.

Portsmouth Corporation.

(Extension of powers of Corporation over streets, buildings, highways, &c.; Repair and maintenance of streets and roads; Apportionment and recovery of private improvement expenses; Regulation of parks, public walks, and recreation grounds; Control and regulation of street traffic, and of omnibuses, tramcars, and carriages, their drivers and conductors; Weighing machines, &c., for coals; Control and regulation of foreshore, beach, and parade; Delegation of powers of Corporation as to prosecution and other matters to Committees; Extension of powers under and amendment or repeal of 49 Geo. 3, cap. 190, and 52 Geo. 3, cap. 78; and constitution of new governing body for licensing boatmen and regulating ferries, and ferry and other boats and boatmen; contribution of expenses by Corporation and Alverstoke Local Board; Powers for Corporation on Portsmouth side, and Alverstoke Local Board on Gosport side of harbour to regulate and control traffic and landing and embarking of steam launches and other vessels and boats; and to appoint piermasters and other officers; bye-laws; borrowing powers; application of funds; levying of rates for expenses and execution of Act; amendment or repeal of Acts; and other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Portsmouth, in the county of Southampton, as the Municipal and Urban Sanitary Authority thereof (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation"), intend to apply to Parliament in the session of 1887, for leave to bring in a Bill (hereinafter referred to as "the Bill"), for the following, or some of the following, among other purposes, that is to say:—

To confer on the Corporation new and enlarged powers, and to make further provisions with reference to streets, buildings, and other matters within the borough, including the following matters and things, that is to say:—

To make null and void the approval by the Corporation of any plan or section of any proposed work, unless the execution of the work specified in the plan or section be commenced within the periods to be mentioned in and provided for by the Bill.

To provide that all temporary hoardings, fences, platforms, and other things, by way of enclosure in any street, shall be in such lines and not exceeding such height as the Corporation may direct, no part thereof be used for affixing placards, posting bills or notices, without the consent of the Corporation, with liability to penalties for breach thereof.

To give further powers to the Corporation in relation to paving, flagging, curbing, and channelling footways, the execution of temporary repairs in any street, and the recovery of expenses.

To empower the Corporation to divert or stop up highways and footpaths where unnecessary, on application of owners of the land, over or adjoining which any highway or footpath may pass.

To provide for notices to be given to the Corporation of the intention to break up any street or road under any public or private Act of Parliament or otherwise, and to inflict penalties in default of notice.

To further define and enlarge the expression "private improvement expenses," in the Public Health Act, 1875, and to provide for the apportionment and recovery thereof, and to enact further provisions relating thereto.

To empower the Corporation to purchase or accept gifts of, or contribute to, the acquisition of land for the purposes of parks, public walks, or places of public resort or recreation, and to provide for the laying out, planting, draining, improvement, maintenance, and repair of the same, and also of the existing parks, walks, and public places belonging to or under the control of the Corporation, and for the erection of refreshment rooms, shelters, and other conveniences, the setting aside of portions of such parks or places for games, bands of music, the holding of exhibitions, flower shows, and other matters, and to charge any sum the Corporation may think fit for admission thereto; for regulating the times of opening and closing such parks and places; and to make and enforce bye-laws for protecting and regulating such parks and places, and for securing the good conduct of persons frequenting the same, and for preventing the holding of religious and political meetings, for regulating refreshment rooms, and the nature and price of articles sold therein; for preventing or regulating the admission of dogs, horses, and vehicles, and removal of persons offending against bye-laws and regulations, and to confer on the park-keepers the powers and duties of police constables.

To extend the provisions of certain sections of the Town Police Clauses Act, 1847, to omnibuses and other carriages plying for hire, and their proprietors, drivers, and conductors, and to empower the Corporation to make bye-laws for regulating and prescribing the routes of and points of taking up and setting down passengers by omnibuses and other public vehicles, and for imposing penalties for the breach of such bye-laws and the fraudulent use of numbers on omnibuses or other licensed vehicles, and badges or numbers appointed to be worn by the drivers or conductors thereof, and to suspend or revoke licences of drivers guilty of misconduct, and to inflict penalties therefor.

To empower the Corporation to refuse to license, or suspend, or revoke licences of carriages intended to be used on tramways not having fixed in front thereof proper apparatus for keeping clear of the wheels any person who may fall in front thereof.

To empower the Corporation to make bye-laws for prevention of the overcrowding, and otherwise regulating the use of, tramway carriages.

To empower the Corporation to make regulations for the purpose of keeping order and preventing the obstruction of streets in neighbourhood of any theatre or place of entertainment or public resort, and to authorize any constable on duty to direct the drivers of vehicles as to setting down and taking up persons, and the positions to be occupied by such vehicles, and as to the route in any street to be taken by any vehicle, and to provide for the infliction of penalties for the breach of such regulations or directions.

To make provisions with regard to the sale or delivery of coal, and the providing of proper weights, scales, and weighing machines, the size of sacks, the production of weigh-notes, and the punishment of offences in relation thereto.

To confer new and enlarged powers on the Corporation, and to make further provisions with reference to the control and management of the foreshore, beach, sands, and parades within the Borough, and to provide that the foreshore, beach, or sands shall, for all or any purpose, be deemed to be a street or public place within the Borough.

To confer further powers upon the Corporation for the prosecution of offenders, and to enable them to delegate their powers relating to this and other matters to a committee or committees as may be prescribed by the Bill.

To alter, extend, amend, and, if need be, to repeal all or some of the provisions of the Acts 49 Geo. 3, cap. 190, and 52 Geo. 3, cap. 78, and to dissolve the Commissioners appointed under those Acts, and to create and incorporate a new governing body for the licensing, management, and regulation of ferries, and ferry and other boats, and boatmen or watermen working or plying for hire in the districts defined in those Acts, or boats used and worked as pleasure boats under the Public Health Act, 1875.

To vest in the new governing body all or some of the powers heretofore vested in and exercised by the said Commissioners under the before-mentioned Acts, or one of them; and to empower the new governing body from time to time to make bye-laws for regulating all boats and boatmen, and to impose penalties for breach of such bye-laws, and to provide for the appointment of a clerk or clerks, and other officers, as may be thought fit or as may be defined by the Bill; and to empower the new governing body to demand and take fees for licensing boats and boatmen, and other matters as may be defined by the Bill, and to require and enable the Corporation and the Alverstoke Local Board to contribute towards the expenses of the new governing body so far as the fees and penalties may be insufficient to meet those expenses.

To empower the Corporation as to the Portsmouth shore, and the Alverstoke Local Board as to the Gosport shore, of Portsmouth Harbour, and the landing places on those shores respectively, to regulate and control the traffic of steam launches, and other vessels and boats landing and embarking passengers on, and to prevent obstructions by vessels, boats, or otherwise, at and about those landing-places, and to prohibit touting, and to make bye-laws with relation to any of these matters, and to impose penalties for the breach thereof, and to appoint pier masters or other officers to regulate the traffic and the landing and embarking of passengers, and the times at which steam launches and other vessels or boats shall remain alongside of, or arrive at or start from, the landing-places; and generally to prevent damage or injury to vessels, boats, and goods, and confusion and delay in the traffic to and from the shore on each side of Portsmouth Harbour, and touting by any boatman or other person.

To empower the Corporation to pay all expenses incurred by them in carrying into execution the provisions of the Bill out of, or to charge the same upon, the borough fund and borough rate, or the district fund and general district rate, and to borrow and re-borrow at interest on the security of those funds and rates.

To levy rates, rents, duties, and charges; to vary existing rates, rents, duties, and charges, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payments of rates, rents, duties, and charges; and to raise money by the creation and issue of Corporation Stock, or otherwise, and to grant charges or annuities, or other annual sums, and to borrow money on mortgages or debentures, or debenture stock, redeemable or irredeemable, and to charge all or any lands and property of the Corporation, and also the borough rate and borough fund of the borough, and the district fund and general district rates of the Corporation, acting as the Urban Sanitary Authority, any or either of them, and all other the estates, rates, revenues, and property of the Corporation, or any of them, or any part or parts thereof respectively, with, and as security for, all or any part of such Corporation Stock, charges, annuities, or annual sums of money, or money to be borrowed on mortgage or debentures, or debenture stock.

To vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would or might in any way prevent, or interfere with, or delay the accomplishment of any of the objects of the intended

Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

To incorporate, with alterations and amendments, or to apply, amend, or alter all or some of the provisions of the several Acts of Parliament following, or some of them, that is to say:—The Municipal Corporation Act, 1882. The Public Health Act, 1875. The Town Improvement Clauses Act, 1847. The Town Police Clauses Act, 1847. The Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847. The Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847. The Local Loans Act, 1875. The Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847, and all Acts amending the said Acts respectively, or any of them; and to amend, alter, or repeal the provisions, or some of the provisions, of the following Acts, viz.:—6 and 7 Vic., cap. 35; 10 and 11 Vic., cap. 257; 20 and 21 Vic., cap. 37; 27 and 28 Vic., cap. 83 (public); 32 and 33 Vic., cap. 124; 40 and 41 Vic., cap. 132; 46 and 47 Vic., cap. 211; and all other Acts, whether public or local and personal, relating to or in any way affecting the Corporation or the borough.

Printed copies of the Bill for the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

(Agreements with Severn Commissioners and others as to Compensation Water; Sanctioning Deviations of authorized Works; Revision and Equalization of Water Charges and Water Supply within and without the City; Confirmation of Agreements as to Supply of Water, and further Powers to supply Water by agreement; Provisions as to raising money for Waterworks Extensions, and as to Sporting Rights on Reservoirs, and as to Pollution of Streams; Improvement of Chisenhale-street; Regulations as to Bands playing in Streets, Advertising Vehicles, Shooting Galleries, Whirl-gorounds, &c., and as to Buildings, Courts, Back Streets, Furnaces, Ovens, Hoardings, Open Spaces about Buildings, and other matters; Amendment of section 26 of "Liverpool Sanitary Amendment Act, 1864," and of section 27 of "Liverpool Improvement Act, 1886;" Powers to borrow and apply Moneys, and to create Corporation Stock; Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Liverpool (hereinafter called "the Corporation") for an Act for all or some of the following objects or purposes, that is to say:—

To authorize agreements between the Corporation and the Severn Commissioners and all other persons and bodies corporate interested, for the alteration or modification of the provisions with respect to compensation water contained in the Liverpool Corporation Waterworks Act, 1880 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1880"), and to make further provisions with reference to such compensation water.

To define and enlarge the powers of the Corporation for the use of the works authorized by the Act of 1880, and the maintenance, cleansing, repair, and inspection of their Vyrnwy Aqueduct, and works connected therewith, and to relieve the Corporation from liability to interference by injunction or otherwise in respect of the discharge of water from such aqueduct and works or any part thereof, and to make other provision with reference thereto.

To legalize and confirm and authorize the construction by the Corporation of the deviations hereinafter described of the Vyrnwy Aqueduct, authorized by the Act of 1880, beyond the limits of deviation shown on the plans and sections deposited for the purposes of that Act, and to empower the Corporation to maintain and use the works by that Act authorized as the same have been or may be constructed beyond such limits, and to make such provision as may be necessary with reference thereto and for vesting in and securing to the Corporation all such estate, rights, and interests in the lands in or through which such works are constructed as they have acquired or may require for the purposes aforesaid. The deviations above referred to are:—

1. A deviation to be situate partly in the township and parish of Whittington, and partly in the parish, town, and liberties of Oswestry, in the county of Salop, commencing in the field numbered on the deposited plans referred to in the Act of 1880, 1 in the said parish of Whittington, and terminating at the occupation road numbered on the said plans 10, in the said parish of Whittington, at a point about 3 chains from the south-west side of the Great Western Railway.

2. A deviation commencing in the township of Eaton, in the parish of Tarporley, in the county of Chester, in the field numbered on the said deposited plans 83 in that parish, and terminating in the township of Utkinton, in the parish of Tarporley aforesaid, in the road numbered on the said deposited plans 116 in that parish, near the junction therewith of the road numbered on the said plans 5 in the parish of Delamere.

3. A deviation to be wholly situate in the township of Oakmere, in the parish of Delamere, in the county of Chester, commencing in the public road numbered on the said deposited plans 15A in the said parish, at a point about 35 chains south of the point where the said road crosses the West Cheshire Railway, and terminating in the same road at a point about 25 chains north of the said crossing.

And to authorize the abandonment of those portions of the works authorized by the Act of 1880 which are rendered unnecessary by the said deviations.

To repeal, alter, vary, or amend all or some of the provisions now in force with respect to the levying and recovering by the Corporation of water-rates, and of rents or charges for the supply of water by them, whether within or without the city, and to make other and better provision in respect of the rates and rents and charges to be made for or in connection with the supply of water throughout the district of supply by the Corporation, and in respect of the incidence of such rates rents and charges as between owners and occupiers or otherwise, and as to the mode of estimating assessing and levying the same, and to make further provision for the supply of water for public purposes to the Corporations and other local authorities within the district of supply, and otherwise in reference thereto and the payment therefor.

To make further provision and to confer further powers upon the Corporation with reference to the supply by them of water, in bulk or otherwise, to other corporations, authorities, bodies, and persons, whether within or without the present limits for the supply of water by the Corporation, and to authorise and give effect to agreements between the Corporation and any other corporations, authorities, bodies, and persons, with reference to such supply, and to any other matter relating thereto, and to confirm and give effect in whole or in part, to any agreements which may have been made, or which may be made prior to the passing of the intended Act, with reference to such matters, and particularly, but not exclusively, to the agreements between the Corporation and the following bodies or persons, or some of them, that is to say:—The Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough and Liberties of Oswestry, in the county of Salop the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Warrington, in the county of Lancaster; the Warrington Waterworks Company; the Local Board of Widnes, in the county of Lancaster; the Runcorn Improvement Commissioners, in the county of Chester; Sir Richard Brooke; the Most Honourable William Henry Hugh, Marquis of Cholmondeley; Joseph Lewis, of Crouch Hill House, in the county of Middlesex; and the Honourable George Thomas Kenyon, of Penley House, Ellesmere, in the county of Flint.

To declare and make applicable to certain extensions and improvements of the Chorley Waterworks the provisions as to borrowing money contained in the 11th section of the Liverpool Corporation Waterworks (Amendment) Act, 1850, and to explain and enlarge the provisions of the said section as to the purposes for which money may be borrowed thereunder.

To explain, alter, vary, or amend the provisions of the Liverpool Corporation Waterworks Acts, 1847 and 1866, with respect to the rights of fishing, shooting, and sporting within or upon any of the reservoirs constructed under the authority of those Acts, or either of them, and to make further or other provision with reference thereto.

To make further and better provision for preventing the pollution of any streams or waters from which the Corporation derive any portion of their water supply.

To empower the Corporation to widen and improve Chisenhale-street, in the parish and city of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, on the south side thereof between Pall Mall and Vauxhall-road, and to purchase or acquire by compulsion or agreement, and to hold lands, houses, buildings, and hereditaments, and easements therein in the said city and parish of Liverpool, for the purpose of the said intended widening and improvement, and for other purposes connected therewith.

To empower the Corporation to purchase part only of any property which may be required for any of the purposes of the intended Act, without being subject to the liability imposed by the 92nd section of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and to sell lands acquired by them, and to exempt the Corporation from the provisions of the last-mentioned Act as to the sale of superfluous lands.

To empower the Corporation to alter or otherwise interfere with, temporarily or permanently, the lines and levels, or to stop up, appropriate, and extinguish all rights of way over the whole or parts of any streets, lanes, courts, alleys, bridges, or places within the said city and parish, and to stop up, appropriate, alter, or divert, temporarily or permanently, all sewers, mains, and pipes, which it may be necessary or convenient to stop up, appropriate, or extinguish rights of way over, or to alter or divert, or otherwise interfere with, or which would in any manner impede or interfere with the several objects and purposes of the said intended Act, or any of them, and to alter, vary, or extinguish all existing rights and privileges connected with the lands, houses, and property to be purchased or taken under the authority of the said Act.

To make provision with reference to the persons belonging to the labouring classes who may be displaced in carrying out the powers conferred by the intended Act and by the Liverpool Improvement Act, 1886, and to repeal or amend section 27 of the last-mentioned Act.

To make further provision for prohibiting and regulating the use in any highway or street in the city of advertising vans or other carriages, wagons, or vehicles, used exclusively or principally for displaying advertisements, and for prohibiting and regulating the erection or use of shooting galleries, swing-boats, and whirl-go-rounds, and other similar machines, in any highway or street within the city, or on land adjoining or near to any such highway or street, and for regulating, prohibiting, and licensing bands of music and persons playing musical instruments in any street or public place within the city.

To make further provision and confer further powers upon the Corporation in relation to streets and buildings, and especially in relation to the following, among other matters:—culs-de-sac, courts, back streets, and open spaces, furnaces and flues, stoves and ovens, plans and sections of new buildings, hoardings, and to extend to the foregoing matters, or some of them, all or any of the provisions contained in sections 37 and 38 of the Liverpool Improvement Act, 1882, and also to make further provision, and to confer further powers on the corporation in relation to open spaces about buildings, and to empower the Corporation to make and to enact and confirm rules and bye-laws with reference thereto, or to any of the other matters to be included in the intended Act, and to enforce the same by penalties or otherwise.

To repeal, alter, vary, or amend section 26 of the Liverpool Sanitary Amendment Act, 1864, with respect to obtaining the approbation or consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury in the case of any sale, exchange, mortgage, charge, demise, lease, or other disposal of lands under that Act.

To authorize and empower the Corporation to borrow money for the purposes of the intended Act upon the credit of rates and assessments which they are or may be authorized to make and levy; and if the Corporation shall think fit, upon the credit of the city fund of the said city, and of the estates and property of the Corporation, and to apply to such purposes any part of their corporate funds, and, if thought fit, to authorize and empower the Corporation to make, levy, and recover rates and assessments upon and from the owners and occupiers of property within the said city, for the purposes of the said intended Act, and to increase existing and authorized rates and assessments, and to grant exemptions from the payment of rates and assessments.

To empower the Corporation to create and issue Liverpool Corporation Stock for all or any of the purposes of the intended Act, and to make such stock part of the Liverpool Corporation Stock authorized by the Liverpool Corporation Loans Act, 1880.

To vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would or might in any way prevent or interfere with or delay the accomplishment of any of the objects of the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

To alter, amend, extend, enlarge, or repeal, so far as may be necessary, the powers and provisions, or some of them, of the Acts hereinbefore mentioned or referred to, as well as of the several Acts following, that is to say:—

“The Liverpool Building Act, 1842”; “The Liverpool Sanitary Act, 1843”; “The Liverpool Sanitary Act, 1846”; “The Liverpool Corporation Waterworks Act, 1847”; “The Liverpool Corporation Waterworks (Amendment) Act, 1850”; “The Liverpool Corporation Waterworks Act, 1852”; “The Liverpool Sanitary Amendment Act, 1854”; “The Liverpool Corporation Waterworks Act, 1855”; “The Chorley Waterworks Transfer Act, 1856”; “The Liverpool Improvement Act, 1858”; “The Liverpool Corporation Waterworks Act, 1860”; “The Liverpool Corporation Waterworks Act, 1862”; “The Liverpool Sanitary Amendment Act, 1864”; “The Liverpool Corporation Waterworks Act, 1866”; “The Liverpool Improvement Act, 1867”; “The Liverpool Improvement and Waterworks Act, 1871”; “The Liverpool Corporation Waterworks Act, 1880”; “The Liverpool Corporation Loans Act, 1880”; “The Liverpool Improvement Act, 1882”; “The Liverpool Improvement Act, 1886”; and any other Acts or Orders relating to the Corporation.

And notice is hereby given, that plans and sections relating to the purposes of the said intended Act, and a book of reference to such plans, and a copy of this notice, as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the 30th day of November in the present year, be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Lancaster, at his office at Preston, with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Salop, at his office at Shrewsbury, in the said county, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Chester, at his office at Chester, in the said county, and also with the Town Clerk of the said city, at his office, Municipal-buildings, Dale-street, Liverpool; and that on or before the same day copies of so much of the said plans and sections and book of reference as relates to the several parishes hereinbefore mentioned, and a copy of this notice will also be deposited, as regards the parish of Liverpool, with the parish clerks of that parish, at St. Peter's Parish Church, in Liverpool, and at St. Nicholas's Church, in Liverpool, and at their respective residences, 22, Greek-street, and 9 Prussia-street, Liverpool; and as regards each of the other parishes with the parish clerk of such parish, at his residence.

And notice is hereby further given that on or before the 21st day of December next, printed copies of the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 8th day of November, 1886.

Board of Trade.—Session 1887.

The Tramways Act, 1870.

Burnley and District Tramways and Burnley and District Tramways Extension.

(Extension of time for construction of Extension Tramways; Abandonment of portion thereof; Powers to use Steam Cable or other mechanical power; Return of Deposit; Repeal and Amendment of Act and Orders, and for other purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade, on or before the 23rd day of December next, under the provisions of the Tramways Act, 1870, for a Provisional Order to extend the time for making, forming, laying down, and maintaining the tramways authorized by the Burnley and District Tramways Extension Order, 1882, and to authorize the use of steam power for haulage thereon and on such parts of the Tramways authorized by the Burnley and District Tramways Order, 1879, as animal power only is now authorized upon.

The Provisional Order will also provide for all or some of the following objects, that is to say:—

To enable the Promoters to abandon the following tramway or part of tramway, that is to say:—

Tramway No. 1, authorized by the Burnley and District Tramways Extension Order, 1882, from a point 1 furlong 9-70 chains, measured in a westerly direction along the line of the said proposed Tramway No. 1, from the termination of the said Tramway No. 1 as authorized, to the termination of the same.

To authorize and empower the promoters from time to time, on such terms and conditions, and subject to such restrictions (if any) as may be prescribed by the Provisional Order, to use upon the tramways authorized by the Burnley and District Tramways Extension Order, 1882, and the part or parts of the tramways constructed under and authorized by the Burnley and District Tramways Order, 1879, upon which animal power only is now authorized, such steam cable, or other mechanical power other than or in addition to animal power, for the moving thereon of their carriages, as may be prescribed or authorized by the Provisional Order, and to hold and acquire patent or other rights or licences, and to use patent rights in relation to such steam cable, or other mechanical power as aforesaid.

To authorize and empower the Board of Trade to release the whole or any part of the deposit lodged with respect to the Burnley and District Tramways Order, 1879, and made applicable to the Burnley and District Tramways Extension Order, 1882.

To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges inconsistent with or which would or might in any way interfere with any of the objects of the Provisional Order and to confer other rights and privileges.

To incorporate with the Provisional Order and extend and apply to the tramways and works all or some of the powers and provisions of the Tramways Act, 1870, and the Burnley and District Tramways Order, 1879, and the Burnley and District Tramways Extension Order, 1882, and so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the Provisional Order, or may be deemed expedient to alter, amend, or repeal the provisions, or some of the provisions of that Act and those Orders.

And notice is hereby further given that a copy of this advertisement as published in the London Gazette, will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection at the office of the Board of Trade, in Whitehall-gardens, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Lancaster, at his office, at Preston, in that county; and as to each of the parishes, townships, extra parochial and other places and districts, from, in, through, or into which the said several tramways and works are or will be made or pass as follows, that is to say: as regards each parish, with the Clerk of each such parish, at his place of abode; as regards any extra parochial place, with the Parish Clerk of some parish immediately adjoining thereto, at his place of abode; and as regards the district of each local authority as follows:—For the district of the Nelson Local Board, with the Clerk of such board, at his office; and as regards the district of any other local authority, at the respective offices of each such local authority.

Every company, corporation, or person desirous of making any representation to the Board of Trade or of bringing before them any objection respecting the intended application, may do so by letter addressed to the assistant secretary of the Railway Department of the Board of Trade, on or before the 15th day of January next, and copies of their objections must, at the same time, be sent to the undersigned on behalf of the promoters.

The draft of the proposed Provisional Order will be deposited at the offices of the Board of Trade on or before the 23rd day of December next, and printed copies of the said Draft Order, when deposited, and of the Provisional Order, when made, will be furnished at the price of 1s. each to all persons applying for them at the office of the undersigned.

Banbury and Cheltenham Direct Railway.
(Abandonment of Authorized Railways; Release of Deposits; Diversion of Road and Footpath; Agreements with Great Western Railway Company; Further Provisions as to Payment of Debts and Arrears of Debenture Interest; Discharge of Receivers and Managers; Provision as to Securities held by Trustees for Benefit of Bondholders; Alteration of Dates of Payment of Interest on Debenture Stocks; Redemption of Existing Debenture Stocks, and Provisions as to Issue and Application of Further Debenture Stocks; Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, by the Banbury and Cheltenham Direct Railway Company (hereinafter called "the Company"), for an Act for some or all of the following purposes, that is to say:—

To authorize the Company to abandon the construction of Railway No. 2, authorized by the Banbury and Cheltenham Direct Railway Act, 1873 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1873"), and of the new railway authorized by the Banbury and Cheltenham Direct Railway Act, 1877 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1877").

To provide for the release or repayment of the deposit funds transferred into or deposited in the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, upon the application to Parliament for the last-mentioned Act, and for the Banbury and Cheltenham Direct Railway Act, 1883 (hereinafter called "the Act of 1883"), in respect of the railways and works authorized by those Acts respectively, or one of them.

To provide for the stopping up and diversion of the road and footpath in the field numbered, on the deposited plans referred to in the Act of 1873, 5B, in the parish of Clipping-Norton, in the county of Oxford.

To explain, amend, and enlarge the provisions contained in the agreement between the Company and the Great Western Railway Company, set forth in the schedule to the Act of 1873, with reference to the providing of station accommodation and the payment therefor; and to make further provisions with respect to those matters, and to authorize or confirm, and give effect to, further agreements in relation thereto.

To extend and amend the provisions contained in sections 17 and 19 of the Act of 1883, empowering the Company to apply preference and debenture stocks, as therein mentioned, in or towards paying or satisfying all or some of the claims against the Company for indebtedness, or for arrears of debenture interest, and to issue such preference and debenture stocks to companies, bodies, executors, trustees, and other persons having any such claims, and to enable and require such companies, bodies, executors, trustees, and other persons to accept the same in satisfaction of their claims.

To authorize and require the receivers and managers of the Company to pay over to the Company any balance in their hands, after providing for all costs, expenses, and liabilities in connection with their receivership and managership; and also all costs, charges, and expenses incurred by the Company, and all other parties of and in relation thereto, and to discharge the receivers and managers.

To authorize and require the trustees mentioned in the agreement set forth in the second schedule to the Act of 1883, or other the trustees for the time being of that agreement, or of either of the two several indentures referred to in that agreement, or of any other deed or agreement made or entered into by or between the parties to the said agreement, or any of them, to transfer to the Company, or to such person or persons as the intended Act may prescribe, any securities and moneys held by such trustees for the purposes of such agreements, indentures, or deeds, or of any of them, and to make other provisions for realizing the said securities and otherwise with reference thereto, and to release and indemnify the said trustees.

To provide for the alteration of the periods out of the earnings of which the interest or dividends on all or some of the debentures or debenture stocks of the Company are payable, and of the dates to which such interests or dividends are calculated and paid, and to make all such dividends payable at the same dates.

To make provision for the redemption by the Company of all or any of the existing debenture stocks of the Company, upon such terms and conditions, and subject to such restrictions as may be prescribed by the intended Act, and for that purpose to empower the Company from time to time, and at such times as the intended Act may prescribe to create and issue debenture stock or stocks, and to attach thereto such rights, privileges, and priorities, as regards the existing debenture and preference stocks of the Company, as may be thought desirable, and to provide for the application and acceptance of such debenture stock or stocks so from time to time created and issued, or the moneys to be raised thereby, in or towards the redemption of their existing debenture stocks, or some part thereof, and also in or towards paying, satisfying, or adjusting all or some of the debts and liabilities and legal expenses of the Company. The arrears due to the Great Western Railway Company, and to such other purposes as may be prescribed or authorized by the intended Act.

To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would in any manner impede or interfere with the objects of the intended Act, and to confer, vary, and extinguish other rights and privileges.

To extend, alter, and amend or repeal, so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the intended Act, the provisions of the several Acts hereinbefore mentioned, and of all other Acts relating to the Company, and the Act (local and personal) 5 and 6 William IV, cap. 107, and all other Acts relating to the Great Western Railway Company.

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 21st day of December next printed copies of the intended Act will be deposited at the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Burnard and Alger's Cattedown Wharves (Plymouth).

(Power to Levy Tolls, Rates, &c., at Burnard and Alger's Cattedown Wharves; to Declare them Public Wharves; and to make Bye-laws to be observed thereat; Amendment of Acts, &c., &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session for leave to bring in a Bill for effecting the purposes, or some of the purposes, following, that is to say:—

To enable Charles Frederick Burnard, William Henry Alger and Robert Burnard (trading under the name or style of Messrs. Burnard, Lack, and Alger), or other the owner or owners, lessee or lessees, or occupier for the time being of the quays and wharves situate on the northern side of the Cattewater Harbour, in the parish of Charles, in the county of Devon, known as Burnard and Alger's Cattedown Wharves (which persons are hereinafter in this notice referred to as and included in the expression "the Promoters"), to demand, take, and recover tolls, rates, dues, and other payments upon or in respect of vessels, boats, and persons using or frequenting, and of goods, wares, merchandize, cattle, articles, and things shipped or unshipped, or landed, or received, or delivered at the aforesaid quays and wharves, or any extension thereof, and in respect of any services to be rendered or performed by the Promoters, and for or in respect of the use of any buildings, yards, cranes, or other works and conveniences, or the use of any lands of the Promoters held in connection with the said quays and wharves, and to confer exemptions from, and from time to time to compound for such tolls, rents, rates, dues, and other payments, and, if thought fit, to declare that such quays and wharves shall be public quays and wharves.

To authorize the Promoters to make and enforce (by penalty or otherwise) Bye-laws, rules, and regulations for the management and use of the said quays and wharves, and for the control and regulation of vessels and boats and of persons using or frequenting the same, and of goods, wares, merchandize, and other things shipped, unshipped, or landed, or received or delivered at the said quays and wharves, or any lands of the Promoters held in connection therewith.

To vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with any of the purposes of the Bill, and to confer on the Promoters such rights and privileges as may be expedient or necessary for giving effect to such purposes.

So far as may be necessary for effecting the objects aforesaid, to amend and, if need be, repeal the provisions, or some of the provisions, of the Cattewater Harbour Order, 1874, and the Act confirming the same, and the Cattewater Harbour Order, 1876, and the Act confirming the same, and any Act or Acts, Provisional Order or Orders, relating to the Cattewater Commissioners or the Cattewater Harbour.

Pudsey Gas.

(Power to Raise Additional Capital ; Definition and Regulation of Capital ; Power to Acquire Additional Lands ; Sliding Scale of Prices and Dividends ; Incorporation and Amendment of Acts, &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session by the Pudsey Coal Gas Company (hereinafter called "the Company") for an Act for all or some of the following purposes, that is to say :—

1. To enable the Company to raise additional capital by the creation and issue of new shares or stock in their undertaking, with or without preference or priority in payment of interest or dividend, and by mortgage, debenture stock, or otherwise.

2. To define, regulate, and consolidate the several classes of capital of the Company.

3. To alter the provisions of the Acts relating to the Company in regard to the prices to be charged for gas supplied, and the dividends to be paid by the Company, and to provide for the variation of the amount of dividends in accordance with the prices charged for gas supplied by the Company, and to make provisions as to the maintenance or formation of insurance and reserve funds.

4. To authorize the Company to purchase additional lands by agreement, for the purposes of their undertaking, other than the manufacture or storage of gas or residual products.

5. To incorporate with the Bill such of the provisions of the Companies Clauses Acts, 1845, 1863, and 1869, and of the Lands Clauses Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869 ; the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847 ; the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1871 ; and to confer upon the Company all such other powers, rights, and privileges as may be necessary or expedient, and for carrying into effect the objects of the Bill.

6. To alter, amend, vary, or repeal all or any of the provisions of the Pudsey Gas Act, 1855, or any other Acts or Act relating to the Company. And notice is hereby further given, that printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December next.

Dated this 10th day of November, 1886.
