

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of November, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners' Act 1840 Amendment Act 1885 duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England acting in pursuance of 'The Ecclesiastical Commissioners' Act 1840 Amendment Act 1885,' have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for augmenting the income of the Archdeaconry of Suffolk in the diocese of Norwich.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that the augmentation hereinafter recommended and proposed is required in order to raise the average annual income of the said Archdeaconry of Suffolk to two hundred pounds.

"Now therefore we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners with the consent of the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich (testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme) humbly recommend and propose that we be authorized to pay on the first day of January in every year out of the common fund created by the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty's reign chapter one hundred and thirteen to the archdeacon of the said Archdeaconry of Suffolk and to his successors in the same archdeaconry the sum of thirty-two pounds in addition to the yearly sum of one hundred pounds now payable by us to the archdeacon for the time being of the said archdeaconry under and by virtue of an Order of Your Majesty in Council dated the eighteenth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six and published in the London Gazette of the thirty-first day of March in the same year.

"And we further recommend and propose that the first payment of the said yearly sum of thirty-two pounds so hereby recommended to be made as aforesaid shall be made on the first day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven and that every such payment as well as the said yearly payment of one hundred pounds hereinbefore mentioned shall be made by us only after we shall have been satisfied that the archdeacon who applies for the same has, during the previous twelve calendar months, complied with the conditions as to residence which for the time being are required by law and that both of such yearly payments shall be apportionable between any archdeacon resigning or otherwise avoiding the said archdeaconry or his representatives (as the case may be) and the archdeacon who shall next be instituted to the same archdeaconry.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Norwich. C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 26th day of November, 1886.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Her Majesty, chapter ninety-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme or representation, bearing date the fourth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the seventh and eighth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirteenth and fourteenth years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, and of the Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme or representation for altering the boundaries of the new parish of Saint Day and of the new parish of Treleigh both in the county of Cornwall and in the diocese of Truro.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the first day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five and duly published in the London Gazette on the fourteenth day of August following a part of the parish of Gwennap in the said county of Cornwall and at that time in the diocese of Exeter was assigned as a district chapelry to the church of Saint Day situate within that parish and the same was called 'The District Chapelry of Saint Day.'

"And whereas under the provisions of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and four the said district chapelry of Saint Day became a new parish of the character contemplated by that Act and by the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven and by the hereinbefore mentioned Act of the thirty-second and thirty-third years of Your Majesty chapter ninety-four.

"And whereas by the authority of another Order of Your Majesty in Council bearing date the twenty-third day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five and duly published in the London Gazette on the ninth day of January in the following year a part of the parish of Redruth in the county of Cornwall and at that time in the diocese of Exeter as aforesaid was constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and the same was called 'The District of Treleigh.'

"And whereas the said district of Treleigh has under the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven also become a new parish of the
