11. With regard to—

(a.) Parcels which are addressed to a Post Office in the United Kingdom to be called for, or to a place in the United Kingdom beyond the limits of the free postal delivery of any town or district, or to a ship at any port in the United Kingdom, and which are not called for or delivered within such reasonable times as the Postmaster-General may from time to time prescribe; and

(b.) Parcels which cannot be delivered in the United Kingdom for want of a true direction, or by reason that the addressee is dead, or cannot be found, or has refused the same, or has refused to pay any charges thereon, or for any other sufficient reason;

The following provisions shall apply, that is to say:—

(1.) The Parcel shall, as the Postmaster-General may from time to time direct, be retained at or forthwith forwarded to such place as the Postmaster-General may from time to time appoint, and may, if necessary, be there opened and examined.

(2.) Notice shall be given to the sender through the Post Office of Luxemburg that the Parcel will, in default of any claim on the part of the addressee, be given up to the sender's agent upon personal application at such place as aforesaid, or, at the request of the sender, will be returned to him by post upon payment of such charges as are herein-after mentioned.

- (3.) The notice shall state that in default of the receipt by the Postmaster-General of an application for the Parcel, during a period to be specified in such notice, from some person who, in the Postmaster-General's judgment, is entitled to receive the Parcel, it will be disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may direct.
- (4.) The Postmaster-General may, in his discretion, specify in any such notice, or otherwise, the periods during which Parcels may be returned to the senders thereof, and in so doing may have regard to the nature and contents of Parcels.
- (5.) Where in the case of a Parcel which cannot be delivered for want of a true direction, the sender corrects the address of the Parcel, the Parcel shall be forwarded to the corrected address, subject to the following conditions:—
 - (a.) Where the corrected address of the Parcel is within the same free delivery as the original address, and the Parcel is not, at the time of such correction, lying at a Returned Letter Office, no new charge shall be made with respect to the delivery of the Parcel.
 - (b.) Where the corrected address of the Parcel is not within the same free delivery as the original address, or the Parcel at the time of such correction is lying at a Returned Letter Office, the sender shall pay a new and distinct rate of postage equal in amount to the rate of postage which would have been chargeable on such Parcel as an Inland Parcel.
- (6.) A Parcel shall not be given up or returned by post to the sender except upon payment by him of any charge for redirection or other charge to which the Parcel has become liable under the provisions of this Warrant, or of any such Regulations as are referred to in section 14 of the "Post Office (Parcels) Act, 1882."
- (7.) Where the sender requests a Parcel to be returned to him by post, such Parcel shall not be returned to the sender except upon payment by him of a new and distinct rate of postage, according to the rates fixed by this Warrant, and all other charges to which the Parcel has become liable.
- (8.) The Postmaster-General may require proof to his satisfaction that an applicant for a Parcel is entitled to receive the same.
- (9.) Where no application is made for a Parcel within the period specified in any such notice as aforesaid, or an applicant fails to prove to the satisfaction of the Postmaster-General that he is entitled to receive the Parcel, or refuses or fails to pay the charges to which the parcel has become liable under this Warrant, the Parcel may be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may direct or authorize.
- (10.) If at any time while a Parcel remains in the possession of the Postmaster-General, it becomes offensive or injurious to any Officer of the Post Office or other person, or to other Parcels, it may forthwith be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize, notwithstanding that the provisions of this Warrant as to the return of such Parcel have not been or have only partially been complied with.

Charge for Re-direction.

12. Any Parcel may be re-directed from its original address or any substituted address, within the United Kingdom, to any country or place with which a Parcel Post to or from the United Kingdom or the Grand Duchy of Luxemburg is established, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such Parcel in respect of such re-direction a new and distinct rate of postage according to the rates for the time being payable in respect of the transmission of a like Parcel from the United Kingdom to the country or place to which it may be re-directed, and such postage, if not paid at the time of such re-direction, shall be collected on the delivery of the Parcel to the addressee.

13. Any Parcel may be re-directed from its original address, or any substituted address, within the United Kingdom to any other address within the United Kingdom, and in every case of such re-direction there shall be charged on such Parcel in respect of each such re-direction, and (if not previously paid) paid by the addressee thereof in money upon the delivery of such Parcel, a new and distinct rate of postage, equal in amount to the rate of postage which would have been originally chargeable on such Parcel as an Inland Parcel.

Remission of Re-direction Rates.

14. The Postmaster-General may wholly remit the rate of postage for re-direction on any Parcel addressed to the United Kingdom which may, on the request of the addressee thereof, be re-directed by an Officer of the Post Office, and again forwarded by post to the same person at any address within the limits of the same free postal delivery as the address from which such Parcel was so re-directed.

In any case not in this Warrant expressly provided for, where any Parcel shall be posted or tendered for conveyance by post which in any respect infringes or fails to comply with the Regulations in this Warrant contained, or any of them, such Parcel may, at the option of the Postmaster-General, either be dealt with as in this Warrant provided, with reference to Parcels which cannot be delivered, or be dealt with or disposed of in such manner as the Postmaster-General may in his discretion direct or authorize.

Provision for safety of Parcels.

18. In any case where any officer of the Post Office may find it necessary or expedient for the safety or protection of Parcels that any Parcel should be forwarded or delivered by some later despatch or delivery than that for which the same was posted or despatched, or intended to be posted or despatched respectively, he may delay the despatch or delivery of such Parcel, or make such other and special arrangements as to the despatch or delivery thereof, not, however, involving a greater delay than 24 hours in the whole, as may be deemed by such officer necessary or expedient in the circumstances of the case.

Postmaster-General not liable for Loss or Damage.

20. INSTRUMENT substituting the New Church of Saint Paul, within the Parish of Warton, for the Old Church thereof, in the County of Lancaster, and Diocese of Manchester.

To all to whom these presents shall come, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England send greeting:

WHEREAS a new church has lately been built within the parish of Warton, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, and has been consecrated and dedicated to Saint Paul.

And whereas the Right Reverend James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, and the Very Reverend Henry George Liddell, Clerk in Holy Orders, Doctor in Divinity, the Dean of the Cathedral Church of Christ, in Oxford, acting on behalf of himself as such Dean and of the Chapter of the same Cathedral Church, which said Dean and Chapter are the patrons of the said parish of Warton, and the Reverend William Henry Baynes, Clerk in Holy Orders, the Incumbent of the same parish, have, by an instrument under their hands, bearing date on or about the second day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, certified to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, that it would be for the convenience of the said parish of Warton that the said new church of Saint Paul, situate within such parish, should be substituted for the old church (also dedicated to Saint Paul) of the same parish.

Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in exercise and execution of the power or authority in that behalf contained in the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and in the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of all other powers or authorities in anywise enabling us in the same behalf, do, by this instrument under our common seal, with the consents (testified as hereinafter mentioned) of the said James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, and of the said Dean and Chapter of the said Cathedral Church of Christ in Oxford, and of the said William Henry Baynes, hereby declare that the said new church of Saint Paul, situate within the said parish of Warton, and duly consecrated as aforesaid, shall be, and the same is hereby, substituted for the said old church (dedicated to Saint Paul as aforesaid) of the same parish, and that such new church shall henceforth be the church of the said parish, in lieu of the said old church of the same, as fully in all respects as if the said new church of Saint Paul, so hereby substituted, had been originally the church of the same parish.

And we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in further pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities aforesaid, and with such consents as aforesaid (testified as hereinafter mentioned), do hereby transfer all the endowments, emoluments, and rights of or belonging to the said old church (dedicated to Saint Paul as aforesaid) of the said parish of Warton, or of or belonging to the Incumbent thereof, to the said new church of Saint Paul (now being by virtue of these presents the church of the said parish) and to the Incumbent thereof and his successors for ever.

In the Matter of the Companies Acts, 1862 to 1883; and in the Matter of Hatchett's Hotel Company Limited; and in an action Davies v. Hatchett's Hotel Company Limited and others.

GEORGE WATSON HAINES (of the firm of H. Haines and Son, Auctioneers, 56, Moorgate-street, E.C.), the person appointed by the said Judge in these matters, will offer for sale, at the Auction Mart, Tokenhouse-yard, in the city of London, on Wednesday, the 26th day of January, 1887, at two o'clock in the afternoon precisely:—

That splendid block of freehold property at the corner of Dover-street, Piccadilly, erected upon the site of the old house, known for about 150 years as Hatchett's Hotel, together with the White Horse Cellars, the celebrated coaching rendezvous, which are also a portion of the present premises. It is one of the best known hotels in London.

The original site was purchased by the Company about four years since, at a cost of £70,000. The land tax has since been redeemed, and there has been erected thereon the present fine building, at a cost exceeding £32,000, from designs which were exhibited at the Royal Academy last year. It is well adapted for the purpose for which it was designed, and has been used, viz., a first-class hotel and restaurant.

The elegant furniture, fittings, and complete plant, utensils, and stock in trade will be taken by valuation in the usual way. It is eligible, from its position and construction, for a first-rate club, residential or otherwise, and, if desired, the hotel portion could be used for this purpose, the entrance in Dover-street being entirely separate and distinct from the buffet restaurant of White Horse Cellars in Piccadilly, which may be let off at a very considerable rent.

The building could also be easily adapted for an insurance office or bank, or, at a small cost, the ground-floor could be made into shops.

Full particulars and orders to view can be obtained of Edward Moore, F.C.A., No. 3, Crosby-square, E.C., the Official Liquidator; of Messrs. Ingram, Harrison, and Ingram, Solicitors, 67, Lincoln's-inn-fields; and of the Auctioneer, 56, Moorgate-street, E.C.
