

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that the augmentation hereinafter recommended and proposed is required in order to raise the average annual income of the said Archdeaconry of Richmond to two hundred pounds.

"And whereas a yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds is now payable by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners to the Archdeacon for the time being of the said Archdeaconry of Richmond in respect of certain estates formerly belonging to the Bishoprick of Chester.

"Now therefore we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England with the consent of the Right Reverend William Boyd Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme) humbly recommend and propose that we be authorized to pay on the first day of January in every year out of the common fund created by the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty's reign chapter one hundred and thirteen, to the Archdeacon of the said Archdeaconry of Richmond and to his successors in the same archdeaconry the sum of fifty-eight pounds in addition to the yearly sum of one hundred and thirty pounds now payable by us to the archdeacon for the time being of the said archdeaconry under and by virtue of an Order of Your Majesty in Council dated the tenth day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two and published in the London Gazette of the third day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-three.

"And we further recommend and propose that the first payment of the said yearly sum of fifty-eight pounds so hereby recommended to be made as aforesaid shall be made on the first day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, and that every such payment as well as the said yearly payment of one hundred and thirty pounds hereinbefore mentioned shall be made by us only after we shall have been satisfied that the archdeacon who applies for the same has, during the previous twelve calendar months, complied with the conditions as to residence which for the time being are required by law, and that both of such yearly payments shall be apportionable between any archdeacon resigning or otherwise avoiding the said archdeaconry or his representatives (as the case may be) and the archdeacon who shall next be collated to the same archdeaconry.

"Provided always and we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further recommend and propose, with the like consent of the said William Boyd, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (testified as aforesaid) and also with the consent of the Venerable Edwards Cust, the present Archdeacon of the said Archdeaconry of Richmond (testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme) that the said yearly payment of fifty-eight pounds hereinbefore recommended to be made to the archdeacon for the time being of the said archdeaconry shall be and be taken to be in lieu of and in full substitution for the hereinbefore-mentioned yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds now payable as aforesaid by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners to the Archdeacon for the time being of the said Archdeaconry of Richmond, and that the said yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds shall accordingly be held to have ceased and determined as from the first day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ripon.
